REPORTS OF POTENTIAL CLASS ACTIONS

The Star Entertainment Group Limited (ASX code: SGR) (The Star) has become aware of press releases issued today from each of Slater and Gordon and Maurice Blackburn in relation to potential class actions against The Star.

Slater & Gordon's press release says that it is investigating a class action about The Star's conduct and the adequacy of its internal controls. Maurice Blackburn's press release says it is preparing a class action in relation to alleged inadequacies in The Star's systems for ensuring compliance with its obligations to manage anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing risks.

The Star is not aware of any proceedings having been filed and has not been served with any originating process in respect of any class action proceedings. Should any proceedings be commenced, The Star intends to defend any such proceedings.
