PRA Burden Statement: This collection of information is approved by OMB under the Paperwork Reduction Act, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq. (OMB Control No. 2070-0201). Responses to this collection of information are mandatory for certain persons, as specified at 40 CFR Part 710. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to be 1.7 hours per response. Send comments on the Agency's need for this information, the accuracy of the provided burden estimates and any suggested methods for minimizing respondent burden to the Regulatory Support Division Director, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (2821T), 1200 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Washington, D.C. 20460. Include the OMB control number in any correspondence. Do not send the completed form to this address.

	Part VI - CBI SUBSTANTIATION
	This substantiation contains CBI: Yes □ No □
	Pursuant to TSCA section 14(c)(3), you must substantiate any CBI claims for information elements other than specific chemical identity at the time this notice is submitted. EPA guidance for complying with TSCA section 14(c)(3) may be found at https://www.epa.gov/tsca-cbi/substantiating-cbi-claims-under-tsca-time-initial-submission. You may also substantiate a request to maintain an existing CBI claim for a specific chemical identity at the time this notice is submitted, but this is not required. Rather, you must substantiate the existing CBI claim for the specific chemical identity not later than 30 days after providing this notice. If you do not assert a CBI claim at time of submission of this form, or otherwise fail to assert a proper CBI claim (i.e., by failing to substantiate your CBI claim or not providing a certification statement), the information shall be treated as not subject to a CBI claim, and may be made public without further notice. If a single substantiation response applies for all or a class of information claimed as CBI, you should indicate this in your substantiation response. If different substantiation responses are necessary to support CBI claims for different information types, you should provide separate substantiation responses for each information type, clearly identifying the information for which each substantiation applies in the free text boxes (e.g. Question A.1. or 2) or in the additional information box at the end of this form.

TSCA section 14(c)(2) states:

Information generally not subject to substantiation requirements

Subject to subsection (f), the following information shall not be subject to substantiation requirements under paragraph (3):

- (A) Specific information describing the processes used in manufacture or processing of a chemical substance, mixture, or article.
- (B) Marketing and sales information.
- (C) Information identifying a supplier or customer.
- (D) In the case of a mixture, details of the full composition of the mixture and the respective percentages of constituents.
- (E) Specific information regarding the use, function, or application of a chemical substance or mixture in a process, mixture, or article.
- (F) Specific production or import volumes of the manufacturer or processor.
- (G) Prior to the date on which a chemical substance is first offered for commercial distribution, the specific chemical identity of the chemical substance, including the chemical name, molecular formula, Chemical Abstracts Service Registry number, and other information that would identify the specific chemical substance, if the specific chemical identity was claimed as confidential at the time it was submitted in a notice under section 2604 of this title.

ii TSCA section 14(e)(1)(B) states

- (B) in the case of information other than information described in subsection (c)(2)— $\,$
 - (i) for a period of 10 years from the date on which the person asserts the claim with respect to the information submitted to the Administrator; or
 - (ii) if applicable before the expiration of such 10-year period, until such time as—
 - (I) the person that asserted the claim notifies the Administrator that the person is withdrawing the claim, in which case the information shall not be protected from disclosure under this section; or
 - (II) the Administrator becomes aware that the information does not qualify for protection from disclosure under this section, in which case the Administrator shall take any actions required under subsections (f) and (g).
