BRONX MAN SENTENCED TO 20 YEARS IN PRISON FOR KILLING TWO MEN IN RETALIATORY SHOOTING
Defendant Pleaded Guilty to Manslaughter

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced that a Bronx man has been sentenced to 20 years in prison for fatally shooting two men and wounding another inside a building hallway in Claremont, in retaliation for the killing of his uncle.

District Attorney Clark said, “After his uncle was fatally shot while walking down the street holding his daughter’s hand, the defendant acting in concert with his co-defendant, killed two people and wounded a third. Retaliatory justice only puts more people in danger and continues the bloodshed.”

District Attorney Clark said the defendant, Nasir Greene, 28, of 1521 Sheridan Avenue, pleaded guilty to two counts of first-degree Manslaughter on November 30, 2023. He was sentenced today by Bronx Supreme Court Justice Margaret Clancy to 20 years in prison and five years post-release supervision. His co-defendant, Calvin Robinson 32, was sentenced to 25 years in prison and five years post release supervision in January after pleaded guilty to Manslaughter and Criminal Possession of a Weapon charges.

According to the investigation, at 8:00 p.m. on July 5, 2020, inside 306 East 171st Street, the defendants fired multiple shots at Eghosa Imafidon, 26, Joel Baba, 22, and Mohammed Baba, 29. Imafidon was struck multiple times in the neck, head and arm, and Joel Baba was struck multiple times in the torso, arm, and leg. Both died. Mohammed Baba was shot in the arm.

The case was prosecuted by Senior Homicide Counsel Burim Namani under the supervision of Christine Scaccia, Chief of the Homicide Bureau, and under the overall supervision of James Brennan, Deputy Chief of the Trial Division, and Theresa Gottlieb, Chief of the Trial Division.
