District Court Honors Graduates of the Judge Rubén Castillo Sentencing Options that Achieve Results (SOAR) Program

Collaborative initiative of U.S. District Court, U.S. Pretrial Services, Federal Defender Program and U.S. Attorney's Office graduates 7 federal pretrial defendants Chicago, Ill. – Today the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois honored a new class of graduates of the Judge Rubén Castillo Sentencing Options that Achieve Results (SOAR) Program.

“On behalf of the Court, I congratulate you, our SOAR Program graduates, on your hard work toward living productive, law-abiding lives. I wish you success and happiness in the future. I also wish to thank to our dedicated SOAR Program Team. Because of your commitment, our district can provide this compassionate alternative to incarceration,” said Chief Judge Rebecca R. Pallmeyer.

“The SOAR Program Team is so proud of this class of SOAR participants. You have done the work, and despite challenges faced along the way, this group of graduates successfully completed the program and reached their individual goals and becoming healthy, law-abiding, and productive members of our community,” said District Judge Jorge L. Alonso.

In today's ceremony, District Judge Jorge L. Alonso and Magistrate Judge Beth W. Jantz spoke about each of the graduates. Karen Freeman-Wilson, President and CEO of the Chicago Urban League, delivered the keynote address to the graduates.

Through treatment, sanction alternatives, and incentives to reinforce positive behavior, the SOAR program provides an alternative to incarceration for federal pretrial defendants. Participants in the SOAR program meet in bi-monthly court sessions with members of the SOAR Team to discuss each participant's progress in his or her efforts to succeed: sobriety, constructive employment, education, crime-free and productive lifestyle. SOAR provides a higher level of supervision, programming, and judicial oversight for participants through a collaborative team approach, which involves judges, prosecutors, defense attorneys, pretrial services officers and treatment providers. Participation in the SOAR program lasts from eighteen to twenty-four months. Successful completion of the program results in the imposition of a non-custodial sentence. The U.S. Attorney's Office may also reduce the felony to a misdemeanor conviction or possibly dismiss the criminal charges.

Established in October 2016, SOAR was created through the collaborative partnership of the United States District Court, the United States Pretrial Services Office, the Federal Defender Program, and the United States Attorney's Office. Members of the SOAR team include Jorge L. Alonso, U.S. District Judge; Beth Jantz, U.S. Magistrate Judge; Meghan Morrissey, Executive Assistant United States Attorney; Charles "Chip" Mulaney, Assistant United States Attorney; David Rojas, Assistant United States Attorney; Christina Farley Jackson, Deputy Director, Federal Defender Program; Geoffrey Meyer, Appellate Chief, Federal Defender Program; Kathleen Leon, Staff Attorney, Federal Defender Program; Patrick May, Supervisory Pretrial Services Officer; Jeff Arias, Pretrial Services Officer Specialist; Matthew Lind, Law Clerk to Judge Alonso; and A.J. Squillante, Courtroom Deputy to U.S. Magistrate Judge Jantz.
