Update on Gazprombank Debt

Petropavlovsk PLC, guarantor of the US$125 million 8.25% guaranteed convertible bonds due 2024 issued by Petropavlovsk 2010 Limited and of the US$500 million 8.125% guaranteed notes due 2022 issued by Petropavlovsk 2016 Limited, has today issued the following statement:

Petropavlovsk PLC (“Petropavlovsk” or the “Company” and, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) today reports that it has received notification from Gazprombank (“GPB”) that the revolving credit facilities (“RCFs”) between GPB and the Group’s Russian subsidiaries have been assigned to a new creditor, Nordic LLC.

As previously announced, Petropavlovsk received notice from Gazprombank last month requiring repayment of, in aggregate, c.US$87.1m (including accrued interest) due under the RCFs. Since GPB’s designation under the UK’s Russia (Sanctions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 in March, the Group has not made payments on the RCFs.

The Company is considering the implications of the assignment with its advisers.

The Company also announces that the Group is unable to pay the coupon due on 14 May 2022 of approximately US$12.36 million in respect of the US$500 million 8.125% guaranteed notes 2022 issued by Petropavlovsk 2016 Limited (of which US$304 million remains outstanding) (the “Notes”). Among other reasons, this is as a result of the inability of the Group to extract cash from its Russian subsidiaries in the current environment and the previously announced acceleration of the approximately US$201m (including accrued interest) term loan between Petropavlovsk and UMMC-Invest (formerly with GPB) (the “Term Loan”).

As a result of (in particular):

- the acceleration of the Term Loan;
- the existence of payment and cross defaults under the Notes;
- the limited cash resources available to the Company; and
- the Board’s assessment that it will be very challenging to refinance the Notes in the present circumstances;

Petropavlovsk continues to explore its options to determine the Company’s course of action in light of recent events and their impact on the Group’s financial position in the best interest of all stakeholders, including creditors and shareholders. As announced on 14 April 2022, these options include the sale of the Company’s entire interests in its operating subsidiaries as soon as practically possible. That process is continuing, and it remains unclear what return, if any, may be secured for shareholders or the holders of the Group’s listed debt securities as a result of that process.
