Security Description:

The goal of this section is to provide a clear understanding of the material rights and privileges of the securities issued by the company. Please provide the below information for each class of the company's equity securities, as applicable:

1. For common equity, describe any dividend, voting and preemption rights.

The Common Stock of the Company is eligible for dividends and has full voting rights at 1 vote per share on all corporate matters, but it does not contain any rights or privileges with regards to preemptive rights.

2. For preferred stock, describe the dividend, voting, conversion, and liquidation rights as well as redemption or sinking fund provisions.

Dividends. If any dividend or other distribution payable in cash, securities or other property, including a dividend payable in shares of Common Stock, is declared on the Common Stock, each holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock on the record date for such dividend or distribution shall first be entitled to receive on the date of payment or distribution of such dividend or other distribution an amount equal to $0.001 per share. No dividend or other distribution shall be declared or paid on the Common Stock unless the preferred dividend or other distribution that satisfies this Section is first declared or paid on the Series A Preferred Stock.

Liquidation Preference. In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, or winding-up of the Corporation, after distribution in full of the preferential amounts, if any, to be distributed to the holders of shares of any series of preferred stock having a priority on liquidation superior to that of the Convertible Preferred Stock, the holders of shares of Convertible Preferred Stock shall first be entitled to receive an amount equal to the Face Value per share and thereafter shall be entitled to participate with the Common Stock in all of the remaining assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders, ratably with the holders of Common Stock in proportion to the number of shares of Common Stock held by them, assuming for each holder of Convertible Preferred Stock on the record date for such distribution that each holder was the holder of record of the number (including any fraction) of shares of Common Stock into which the shares of Convertible Preferred Stock then held by such holder are then convertible. A liquidation, dissolution, or winding-up of the Corporation, as such terms are used in this Section, shall not be deemed to be occasioned by or to include any merger of the Corporation with or into one or more corporations or other entities, any acquisition or exchange of the outstanding shares of one or more classes or series of the Corporation, or any sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all or a part of the assets of the Corporation.

Voting Rights. Except as otherwise required by law, the shares of Convertible Preferred Stock shall entitle the holders thereof to vote, on any matter submitted to a vote of the stockholders of the Corporation, with the holders of the Common Stock of the Corporation, provided that the holders of the Convertible Preferred Stock, as a class, shall be entitled collectively to 51 percent of the total voting stock of the Corporation, Common or Preferred, on any matter on which the shareholders of the Corporation are entitled to vote.

Conversion at Option of Holders. Provided that, and only to the extent that, the Corporation has a sufficient number of shares of authorized, but unissued and unreserved, Common Stock available to issue upon conversion, each share of Convertible Preferred Stock not previously redeemed, shall be convertible beginning after one year from the date of the initial issue of the Convertible Preferred Stock and at any time thereafter, at the option of the holder thereof, into Common Stock then representing fifty-one (51) percent of the resulting Common Shares thereafter outstanding Preemptive Rights. The Series A Preferred Stock is not entitled to any preemptive or subscription rights in respect of any securities of the Corporation.

3. Describe any other material rights of common or preferred stockholders.

None

4. Describe any material modifications to rights of holders of the company's securities that have occurred over the reporting period covered by this report.

None

3) Issuance History

The goal of this section is to provide disclosure with respect to each event that resulted in any changes to the total shares outstanding of any class of the issuer's securities in the past two completed fiscal years and any subsequent interim period.

Disclosure under this item shall include, in chronological order, all offerings and issuances of securities, including debt convertible into equity securities, whether private or public, and all shares, or any other securities or options to acquire such securities, issued for services. AXIS TECHNOLOGIES GROUP INC.
NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For The Period Ended December 31, 2023

NOTE 1: THE COMPANY AND THE SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed in the preparation of these financial statements:

Organizational Information: Axis Technologies Group, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated in 2003 in the State of Delaware.

Industry Information: Axis Technology Group, Inc. (AXTG) is a holding company that promotes decentralized finance business and business focus to make these innovations come true. AXTG supports and develops companies' development of blockchain and DeFi projects. AXTG will take this opportunity to make strategic investments and acquire companies who have unseen potential to scale and add value.

Basis of Presentation: The accounting records of the Company are maintained on the accrual basis and the accompanying financial statements are presented on the accrual basis.

Depreciation and Amortization: The cost of property and equipment is depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the related assets using the accelerated recovery periods of the Internal Revenue Service. Purchased software is amortized on the straight-line basis over five years; organization expense and trademarks are amortized on the straight-line method over sixty months.

Accounts Receivable: The accounts receivable arise in the normal course of business of providing services to Customers. Accounts are written-off as they are deemed uncollectible based upon a periodic review of the accounts. At this time the company has no receivables.

Concentration of Credit Risk: Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of bank deposits and trade accounts receivable. The Company has concentrated its credit risk for cash by maintaining deposits in financial institutions within the geographic region of Lincoln, Nebraska, which may at times exceed amounts covered by insurance provided by the U.S. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). There are no excess deposit liabilities at this time. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk to cash. Concentrations of credit risk with respect to accounts receivable arise because the Company grants unsecured credit in the form of trade accounts receivable to its customers.

Management Estimations: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Axis Technologies Group, Inc.

Cash and Equivalents: For purposes of reporting cash flows, the Company considers all cash accounts which are not subject to withdrawal restrictions or penalties, and certificates of deposit with original maturities of 90 days or less to be cash or cash equivalents. Revenue Recognition: Revenues on subscription contracts are recognized monthly over the life of the contract. Amounts that have been invoiced are recorded in accounts receivable and revenue or deferred revenue, depending upon whether the revenue recognition criteria have been met.

Inventory: The Company maintains its inventory on a perpetual basis utilizing the first-in first-out (FIFO) method. There is no inventory at this time.

NOTE 2: GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company has minimal working capital and net losses from inception. This condition raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's continuation as a going concern is dependent on its ability to meet its obligations, to obtain additional financing as may be required, and ultimately to attain profitability. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTE 3: INCOME TAX

The Company provides for income taxes under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. SFAS 109 requires the use of an asset and liability approach in accounting for income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities and the tax rates in effect when these differences are expected to reverse. SFAS 109 requires the reduction of deferred tax assets by a valuation allowance if, based on the weight of the available evidence, it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Consequently, because of uncertainty about the Company's ability to realize any future tax benefits from its unused net operating losses, no deferred tax asset relating to those losses has been recorded.

NOTE 4: COMMITMENTS

The company has no leased space at this time
