4) Issuer's Business, Products, and Services

A. Business operations:

Industrial Nanotech Inc. is a rising global nanoscience solution and research leader. The Company develops and commercializes new and innovative applications for sustainable manufacturing and buildings which are sold worldwide, including patented thermal insulation and asset protection coatings which provide energy savings, thermal insulation, corrosion resistance, prevention of CUI, moisture resistance, UV resistance, chemical resistance, and other protective benefits. The coatings are low VOC, water-based, and sustainable. The Company manufactures the products at a factory in Sumter, South Carolina, and sells the products directly through the Company's subsidiaries and through distributors in the US and internationally. Additional information about the company's products can be found at www.syneffex.com and www.talkingpaint.com.

- B. Subsidiary: Syneffex Inc. & Talking Paint Inc.
- C. Principal products:

The current product line developed, patented, and sold by the Company is a line of specialty coatings containing a nanotechnology-based material which are well-documented to provide the combined performance qualities of thermal insulation, corrosion prevention, and resistance to mold growth in an environmentally safe, water-based, coating formulation. Industrial Nanotech currently owns patent rights to the combination of a specific category of nanocomposites and a variety of secondary "carrier" components used in these products. The Company is an active participant in research and development with leading laboratories exploring nanotechnology. Additional products are either in the Research and Development Phase or the Product Launch Phase of development and commercialization.

The Company's products are sold throughout the world both directly to the consumer through the Company's websites and through a network of exclusive distributors, non-exclusive distributors, and independent sales representatives

Industrial Nanotech Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements September 30, 2023

Note 1 - General Organization and Business

Industrial Nanotech, Inc. (the "Company") is a Delaware corporation organized on February 7, 2005. On March 14, 2005, the Company acquired a corporation with the same name organized in Wyoming on January 14, 2004. The Delaware Corporation is the surviving legal entity with the Wyoming Corporation being the historical accounting entity for reporting purposes. Both companies were organized by the same founders, therefore there was no change of control. The Wyoming Corporation is operated as a wholly owned subsidiary.

On June 28, 2005, the Company organized a Florida corporation of the same name to provide management services to the Company and is also operated as a wholly owned subsidiary.

The Company develops, manufactures and markets industrial grade insulation products utilizing emerging nanotechnology. The Company currently owns patent rights to the combination of a specific category of nanocomposites and a variety of secondary "carrier" components used in these products. The Company is an active participant in research and development with leading laboratories exploring nanotechnology.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") on the accrual basis of accounting.

Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Earnings (Loss) per Share

The basic earnings (loss) per share is calculated by dividing the Company's net (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares during the year. The diluted earnings (loss) per share are calculated by dividing the Company's net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year. The diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding is the basic weighted average number of Shares adjusted as of the first of the year for any potentially dilutive debt or equity. Basic and diluted losses per share were the same at the reporting dates as there were no common stock equivalents outstanding at June 30, 2023 and September 30, 2023.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with CAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers cash on hand, cash in banks and other highly liquid instruments purchased with an original maturity date of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment

Property and Equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The Company capitalizes all additions and improvements with a cost greater than $500. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, ranging from five to seven years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Property and equipment consists of the following:

	September 30, 2023
Computer Equipment	$ 43,208
Equipment	16,195
Furniture and Fixtures	6,528
Less: Accumulated Depreciation	(51,074)
Property and Equipment, Net	$ 14,857

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when a sale is made and the product is shipped. The Company receives payment for orders that have not yet met the revenue recognition criteria. These payments are recorded as customer deposits within current liabilities until the revenue is earned.

Accounts receivable consist of amounts due from customers which arise in the normal course of business. Management determines the allowance for doubtful accounts based on historical losses and current economic conditions. On a continuing basis, management analyzes delinquent receivables, and once those receivables are determined to be uncollectible, they are written off against an existing allowance account. As of June 30, 2023 and September 30, 2023, the Company determined that an allowance for doubtful accounts is not necessary.

Shipping and Handling Fees

All amounts billed to a customer in sales transaction related to shipping and handling represent revenues and are reported as revenues in the consolidated statements of operations. Costs incurred by the Company for shipping and handling are reported within costs of revenues in the consolidated statements of operations.

Income Tax

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Additionally, the recognition of future tax benefits, such as net operating loss carry forwards, is required to the extent that realization of such benefits is more likely than not. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which the assets and liabilities are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income tax expense in the period that includes the enactment date.

In the event the future tax consequences of differences between the financial reporting bases and the tax bases of the Company's assets and liabilities result in deferred tax assets. Periodic reviews of the carrying amount of deferred tax assets are made to determine if the establishment of a valuation analysis is necessary. A valuation allowance is provided for the portion of the deferred tax asset when it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax asset will not be realized. Management considers the scheduled reversals of deferred tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies when making this determination.

The Company's income tax returns are subject to examination by tax authorities. Generally, the statute of limitations related to the Company's federal and state income tax return is three years from the date of filing. The state impact of any federal changes for prior years remains subject to examination for a period up to five years after formal notification to the states.

Management has evaluated tax positions in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification ('FASB ASC") 740, Income Taxes, and has not identified any significant tax positions.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, establishes a framework for measuring fair value. The framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities (Level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described below.

Level I Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1), such as quoted prices for similar assets at the measurement date; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company has implemented all new accounting standards and does not believe there are any other new accounting pronouncements that have been issued that may have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Note 3 - Going Concern

Management is presently creating new technologies, launching new brands and product lines, and is pursuing the acquisition of additional intellectual property in nanotechnology. The overall objective is to develop a nanocomposite manufacturing and research facility and expansion of distribution networks worldwide. The Company must continue increase revenue to support the growth of product development. Management has been successful in 2022 at sufficiently increasing revenues; however, failure to do so would cause the Company to further increase its negative working capital deficit and could result in the Company having to curtail or cease operations.

Note 4 - Note Payable - Related Party

In March 2005, the Company entered into convertible promissory note with G Stuart Burchill, the CEO, to personally provide a line of credit to the Company. The note had no stated amount and accrues interest compounded monthly at 10% per annum. The principal and interest were due on demand. The note could be converted into common stock at a conversion rate to be negotiated at the time of conversion. The conversion rate was at a 50% discount to the previous 10-day average closing price.

On March 10, 2022, G Stuart Burchill, the CEO, amended the promissory note as follows:

- The principal and interest are due with six (6) months written advance notice.
- The note cannot be converted to common stock.

Note 5 - Stockholders' Deficit

The Company has authorized 3,750,000,000 shares of common stock, par value of $0.0001 per share and 25,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value of $0.0001 per share. Of the 25,000,000 shares of preferred stock, 7,500,000 shares are designated as Series A.

The holders of Series A preferred stock ("Series A") are entitled to 1,000 votes per share and the holders of common stock are entitled to one vote. Series A holders are entitled to receive quarterly dividends payable in cash if dividends are declared on common stock. Series A dividends shall be the greater of $0.10 per share or 1,000 times the aggregate declared dividend per common share. As of December 31, 2017, and December 31, 2018, there were no dividends declared. In case of voluntary or involuntary liquidation or dissolution of the Company, subject to assets being available, holders of Series A will receive $1,000 per share plus accrued dividends. Once liquidation of Series A is complete, holders of common stock will receive $1.00 per share and all remaining available assets shall be distributed proportionally by number of shares outstanding.

Note 6 – Note to Profit/Loss Regarding Significant Supply Chain Issue Q4 2022

As reported in the Annual Report Year End 12/31/2022, the Company experienced a major supply chain issue when the primary resin system was discontinued, which eliminated the Company's ability to fill orders for our major product lines. As also reported the issue has been resolved and Q1 2023 was devoted to due diligence and quality control testing of the new formulations and beginning of production. At the end of Q1 2023 production to fill customer orders began again and product is being shipped weekly to customers throughout the US and internationally. Sales continue to trend upward toward previous levels. One good outcome of this difficult past two quarters is that EPX-H2O is now composed of Leeds Certified components and can be used in projects requiring Leeds Certification.

Note 7 - Subsequent Events

In accordance with FASB ASC 855, Subsequent Events, the Company evaluated subsequent events through the date of this report, which the date the consolidated financial statements were available for issue. No material subsequent events were noted.

Note 8 – Litigation

The company has on going case with Filing date May 16, 2022 with demand of $11,000.00 Cash plus 12,000,000 shares of restricted common stock plus interest.
