Belle Bonica Luxe Corp./BlockChain Loyalty Corp. Announces Strategic Acquisition and Corporate Developments

On April 25, 2024, Belle Bonica Luxe Corp. (trading as BlockChain Loyalty Corp. - BBLC) entered into an agreement to acquire a 20% stake in Koilink Technologies Inc., a FinTech company based in Wyoming. This strategic move represents a significant advancement in BBLC's ongoing commitment to innovation and value creation.

Koilink Technologies Inc. addresses a critical need in the financial services industry by leveraging technology to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of capital raising and investment matchmaking. Koilink is a geo-social industry-targeted mobile app/web-application that links investment brokers and public or private companies to equity offerings in real-time. The platform is designed to streamline the process of accessing financing opportunities for issuers, while also providing brokers with a continuous source of potential deals.

As a 20% stakeholder in Koilink Technologies Inc., BBLC currently holds 10,000,000 of Koilink's 50,000,000 shares outstanding of Class 'A' common shares ("Koilink Common Shares"). BBLC's board of directors has decided to "spin out" Koilink, which is expected to become a separate publicly traded entity. Upon meeting all regulatory requirements, Koilink's Common Shares are expected to be listed either on the CSE, CBOE, or OTC Markets.

BBLC, through its transfer agent, will issue 6,489,165 shares of Koilink Common Shares to BBLC shareholders as a dividend. For every 10 Common Shares of BBLC held by shareholders of record on May 15th, 2024, each such shareholder will be entitled to receive 1 (one) Class 'A' common share of Koilink Technologies Inc. The details of the timing and how this will be accomplished will be disclosed as soon as all of the relevant details are worked out between Koilink, BBLC, their transfer agent and regulators.

BBLC and Koilink share some common officers and directors.
