U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger-

The receipt of cash by Splunk Stockholders in exchange for shares of Splunk common stock in the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Such receipt of cash by a U.S. Holder (as defined in the section of this proxy statement captioned "The Merger U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger") generally will result in the recognition of gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash that such U.S. Holder receives in the Merger and such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Splunk common stock surrendered pursuant to the Merger. For a more complete description of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger, Splunk Stockholders should read the section of this proxy statement captioned "The Merger U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger." Splunk Stockholders should consult their tax advisors concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to the Merger in light of their particular circumstances and any consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or non-U.S. tax jurisdiction.

EDGAR 425 September 21, 2023

On September 20, 2023, Splunk Inc., entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among the Company, Cisco Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and Spirit Merger Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company, with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent.

The cybersecurity and observability leader, today announced a definitive agreement under which Cisco intends to acquire Splunk for USD 157 per share in cash, representing approximately USD 28 billion in equity value.

The parties expect the transaction to close by the end of the third calendar quarter of 2024.
