2024 Training Program of the Standard Directions for Internal Control Systems in Securities Firms will be held from April 18th to June 7th at major cities in Taiwan

In order to enhance internal auditors of securities firms in fully understanding the revised content of the "Standard Directions for Internal Control Systems in Securities Firms", the Taiwan Stock Exchange, in collaboration with the Taipei Exchange, Taiwan Depository & Clearing Corporation, and the Taiwan Securities Association, holds the "Training Program of the Standard Directions for Internal Control Systems in Securities Firms". This year will see a total of 12 sessions held from April 18th to June 7th in Taipei, Kaohsiung, Tainan, Taichung, and Hsinchu, with an estimated attendance of around 1800 practitioners in securities firms.
