

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, August 4, 2021

LE PASS LIGUE 1 PRIME VIDEO CHANNEL AVAILABLE ON FREEBOX

From August 6, Freebox subscribers will be able to watch the main Uber Eats Ligue 1 matches on Le Pass Ligue 1, Prime Video's new paid subscription channel. Le Pass Ligue 1 is easily accessible on the Prime Video application from a TV connected to the Freebox.

Fans will be able to subscribe to the channel to enjoy eight exclusive matches from each day of the championship.

Le Pass Ligue 1 is available exclusively to Prime members in France for an additional subscription of €12.99 per month, which can be canceled at any time. Freebox customers who are not Prime members will have to sign up to Amazon Prime (free 30-day trial then €5.99 per month).

Prime is already included in Freebox Delta subscribers' plans.

In addition, Free subscribers can enjoy the Free Ligue 1 app on their Freebox and smartphone. It is the only platform that offers all matches in near real-time in the form of video clips. This service is included in Freebox and Free 4G/5G mobile plans.

Additional subscription, exclusively for Amazon Prime members. Unsubscription from the channel at any time. See the terms and conditions on primevideo.com.

Amazon Prime (worth €5.99/month): included with the Freebox Delta plan for subscribers who are not already Amazon Prime members. Accessible after creating an Amazon account and accepting the Amazon Prime terms and conditions. See the Amazon Prime description and terms and conditions on amazon.fr/prime.

Free Ligue 1: offer subject to conditions, valid in mainland France, reserved for Freebox subscribers and Forfait Free & Série Free mobile subscribers. Service available on TV with Freebox Player and on compatible smartphones (download the application from the App Store or Google Play, creation of an account required). Mobile Internet connections linked to the use of this service are billed or charged against the mobile plan. Conditions on free.fr.
