Steady Evolution Has Strengthened Our Scale And Market Position

Tailwinds From Demographic Shifts and Undersupplied Housing Support Higher Levels of Future Residential Investment

U.S. Population Age 41-56

~65 million (Gen X)¹

- Move up buyers; drives investment in remodeling
- Significant home equity supports higher levels of remodel activity
- Higher housing turnover and increasing mobility

U.S. Population Age 25-40

~72 million (Millennials)¹

- Seven million more people compared to Gen X are entering prime household formation years
- Remote work/mobility increases migration to affordable housing markets
- Increasing disposable incomes

Demographics and past underinvestment, combined with mobility and migration trends, provide strong multi-year tailwinds for the U.S. housing market over the next decade

Increasing Age in Years of U.S. Housing Stock: 2009 vs 2019¹

Historically Stable Growth in U.S. Repair & Remodel (R&R) Expenditures ($B)^{2,3}

- Pent up Demand: Median age of a U.S. home is approximately 40 years old, up from a median age of 31 years in 2005

- Past Underinvestment: Homes under 9 years old fell to just 7% of total stock in 2019, down from 15% in 2006 due to ~15 years of below-trend new construction

- Historically Resilient: Excluding the 2006-2009 financial crisis, the largest calendar year decline in R&R demand since 1996 was just (2.3%) in 2002

Long-term Strategy: “GDP”

American Woodmark

“GDP”: Our Economic Engine To Drive Growth & Margin Expansion

Our “GDP” Strategy is the lens we view long-term decision-making through, enabling growth and profitability through the cycle

Growth

Product Innovation

- Targeted launches of opening price point brands into new markets
- Relevancy across Made-to-Stock, Made-to-Order (MTO), Framed, Frameless categories

Channel Initiatives

- Dealer/Distributor penetration
- E-commerce expansion

Digital Transformation

One American Woodmark

- Investments in technology infrastructure to operate as one company
- Faster marketing cycles

Driving Deeper Channel Penetration

- E-commerce expanding with improved product offerings, content, and experience
- Accelerate customer conversion with easy-to-use design and shopping tools

Platform Design

Customer Experience (CX)

- Kitchen and Bath Center of Excellence
- Delivery, quality, response rate

Operational Excellence (OPEX)

- Design For Manufacturing & Assembly (DFMA), materials, logistics, and labor savings
- Drive production and efficiency through a balanced manufacturing footprint

Automation

- Reduce labor costs and waste
- Improve lead times and quality
- Make our employee's jobs easier

Growth: Maximize Our Market Opportunity Through Key Initiatives

Highly Fragmented Market Opportunity

Kitchen & Bath Cabinet Industry¹

Over 50% of the market is highly fragmented, less capitalized local and regional manufacturers or import products

Key Growth Drivers

Product Innovation and Capacity Investments

- Accelerating growth through product innovation and relevant offerings
- Building on nearly 30% of Made-to-Order (MTO) sales from products introduced in the last three years
- Monterrey, Mexico and Hamlet, North Carolina expansions to strengthen Made-to-Stock product line and improve our economics

Expand Channel Opportunities

- Simple Trends brand to compete with low-cost imports
- Growth opportunity in Dealer/Distributor channel
- E-commerce and Digital Marketing to expand customer purchase options and reduce time-to-purchase decision

Our Initiatives Are Focused on Delivering Growth in Excess of Our Underlying Market Growth Rate

American Woodmark

Case Study: Adapting Our Offerings To Add Value And Accelerate Growth

Builder Channel Opportunity

- Builders increasingly look to suppliers to find ways to improve new home affordability
- Demographic shifts drive more first-time home buyers further accelerating the need for value-oriented options

American Woodmark Solution

- Gain share with Origins brand and expand offerings across the homebuilding market
- Efficient logistics & service footprint built around single-family building density allows for a turnkey solution
- Meet a growing builder need for opening price point homes with on-trend offerings

American Woodmark

Origins
BY TIMBERLAKE

Outcome

- Achieved goal of lowering costs and improving affordability, especially for growing first time homebuyer market
- Origins is our fastest growing brand three years in a row

Digital Transformation: Customer Experience and Drive Efficiencies

Strengthening Our Competitive Advantage and Profitability by Leveraging Digital Capabilities

Unlock Efficiencies Through One American Woodmark

- Enterprise Resource Planning and Customer Relationship Management systems to help realize efficiency gains
- Better leverage information across the organization
- Unify offerings and capabilities under a single platform
- Sophisticated data analysis to track customer lifecycle and service needs
- Better align internal capacity across teams

Increase Consumer Centric Approach to Digital Marketing

- Expand engagement through robust digital marketing campaign
- Accommodate online consumer preferences
- Lead generation E-commerce tools to increase business reach
- Invest in Dealer/Distributor online platform to improve customer experience (CX)

American Woodmark

Digital Transformation Case Study: Digital Marketing Platform

Digital Lead Generation

- Kitchen & Bath retailers in the dealer channel are key growth drivers with billions in cabinetry sales
- Local retailers often rely on advertising methods with limited reach due to budget constraints

American Woodmark Solution

- We bring a digital brand presence with a nationwide marketing toolkit to help consumers connect with local dealers
- Through a dealer locator and contact application, customers seamlessly connect with a Waypoint Living Spaces retail location
- A common platform creates shared visibility
- Waypoint representatives can provide support across the purchase journey

American Woodmark

Outcome

- Pilot program delivered leads to >30% of participating strategic partners
- 40% of leads now result in a service transaction

Platform Design: Leverage Complexity Reduction and Operational Excellence to Drive Margin Improvement

Complexity Reduction and Customer Experience

- Localize capacity needs and position near skilled labor
- Establish both Kitchen & Bath Manufacturing Centers of Excellence
- Facility enhancements to improve reliability and service
- Improve customer experience and lower costs by expanding DFMA:
 - Improve throughput
 - Shorten lead times
 - Optimal inventory management

Operational Excellence and Systems Thinking

- Increase use of high-quality substitute materials
- Procurement strategy to drive global sourcing synergies
- Logistics and delivery network initiatives; expand Final Mile Network
- Invest $75 million in automation over next five years
- Optimize technology to lower capital requirements and improve processes
- Focus on product performance, appearance, and reducing defects

Significant Opportunity For Margin Expansion

American Woodmark

¹ Note the expected increase of Adjusted EBITDA Margin Improvement presented above reflects the current expectations and beliefs of management. See additional disclosures, footnote 1 on slide 33 for further information, Appendix A for a reconciliation of Adjusted EBITDA Margin to the most comparable GAAP financial measure and for a definition of "Adjusted EBITDA Margin."

Additional Disclosures

² The information presented on this slide with respect to the overall US cabinet market and the size of the New Construction, Home Center & Retail and Dealer/Distributor markets represents internal management estimates. These estimates are based on management's knowledge and experience in these markets and are informed by certain internal surveys, market research, industry publications and surveys and additional sources. Although management believes these estimates are reliable, they may prove to be inaccurate due to the method by which we obtained some of the data for these estimates or because of the inability to verify such data with certainty due to limits on the availability and reliability of raw data, the voluntary nature of the data gathering process and other limitations and uncertainties inherent in data gathering. These estimates and any internal surveys informing such estimates have not been independently verified. For these reasons, investors should not place undue reliance on the market information presented. Total market size is estimated by company management at $18.2 billion. Current addressable market opportunity within Dealer/Distributor channels is estimated at ~$1.8B based on internal management estimates. This data is as of Calendar year 2022.

Appendix A

Adjusted EBITDA, and Adjusted EBITDA margin Definition

We use EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, and Adjusted EBITDA margin in evaluating the performance of our business, and we use each in the preparation of our annual operating budgets and as indicators of business performance and profitability. We believe EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, and Adjusted EBITDA margin allow us to readily view operating trends, perform analytical comparisons and identify strategies to improve operating performance.

We define Adjusted EBITDA as net income adjusted to exclude (1) income tax expense, (2) interest expense, net, (3) depreciation and amortization expense, (4) amortization of customer relationship intangibles, (5) expenses related to the acquisition of RSI Home Products, Inc. ("RSI acquisition") and the subsequent restructuring charges that the Company incurred related to the acquisition, (6) inventory step-up amortization, (7) non-recurring restructuring charges, (8) stock-based compensation expense, (9) gain/loss on asset disposals, (10) change in fair value of foreign exchange forward contracts, and (11) pension settlement charges. We believe Adjusted EBITDA, when presented in conjunction with comparable GAAP measures, is useful for investors because management uses Adjusted EBITDA in evaluating the performance of our business.

We define Adjusted EBITDA margin as Adjusted EBITDA as a percentage of net sales.

Additional Definitions

Free cash flow

To better understand trends in our business, we believe that it is helpful to subtract amounts for capital expenditures consisting of cash payments for property, plant and equipment and cash payments for investments in displays from cash flows from continuing operations which is how we define free cash flow. Management believes this measure gives investors an additional perspective on cash flow from operating activities in excess of amounts required for reinvestment. It also provides a measure of our ability to repay our debt obligations.

Net leverage

Net leverage is a performance measure that we believe provides investors a more complete understanding of our leverage position and borrowing capacity after factoring in cash and cash equivalents that eventually could be used to repay outstanding debt.

We define net leverage as net debt (total debt less cash and cash equivalents) divided by the trailing 12 months Adjusted EBITDA.

A reconciliation of these non-GAAP financial measures and the most directly comparable measures calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP are set forth on the following tables.
