STUDIO CITY, CA – December 14, 2023 – Ashley Newbrough ("The Love Club," "Flipping for Christmas") and Marcus Rosner ("Notes of Autumn," "Flipping for Christmas,") star in "Love on the Right Course," a new, original movie premiering Saturday, January 6 (8 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel, as part of the network's annual New Year New Movies programming event.

Whitney (Newbrough) is a professional golfer who is struggling to make the cut to qualify for her next tournament in Europe. Concerned that she might not be able to continue competing on a professional level, she returns to Budapest and the golf course her family owns there to reevaluate her career. She finds that her father (Roy McCrerey, "Blood & Gold"), who has grown reclusive since losing his wife two years ago, has handed over day-to-day operations of the club to a laid-back, new golf pro, Daniel (Rosner). Daniel's casual style is at odds with Whitney's, and it throws her off her game, literally. As the pair get to know each other, their perspective changes and a romance develops. But, when Whitney's former trainer returns and pushes Daniel out, it might just cost Whitney her best shot at love.

"Love on the Right Course" is from LORTC Productions Inc. and Love Cubed KFT. Brittany Bristow, Michael McLaughlin and Leif Bristow are executive producers. Jonathan Halperyn, Daniel Kresmery, Vandad Kashefi, Borga Dorter and Agnes Bristow serve as producers. Stefan Scaini directed from a script by Brittany Bristow and Dustin Keating.
