Hercules Capital Increases Its Committed Letter of Credit Facility with SMBC

PALO ALTO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Hercules Capital, Inc. (NYSE: HTGC) ("Hercules" or the "Company") the largest and leading specialty financing provider to innovative venture, growth and established stage companies backed by some of the leading and top-tier venture capital and select private equity firms, today announced it has increased its committed letter of credit facility with Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation ("SMBC") by $75.0 million for a total of $175.0 million in credit capacity subject to borrowing base, leverage and other restrictions. The increased credit facility also includes an uncommitted accordion feature of up to $400.0 million in total facility size.

"With the increase to our letter of credit facility with SMBC, we continue to expand and enhance our ability to provide flexible and expedient financing solutions to our current and prospective growth and late-stage venture portfolio companies," said Seth Meyer, chief financial officer of Hercules. "We want to thank SMBC for their continued support in helping us strengthen our industry-leading franchise."
