EPRA BPR GOLD AWARD AND SBPR BRONZE AWARD

NEPI Rockcastle has received the European Public Real Estate Association (EPRA) Gold Award for compliance with its Best Practices Recommendations for financial reporting (BPR), and the EPRA Bronze Award for compliance with its Best Practices Recommendations for sustainability reporting (sBPR).

EPRA is the leading real estate organisation in Europe. The Group joined EPRA in 2018 and won the Silver Award for BPR in 2019 and the Gold Award for BPR in 2020, as a recognition of its commitment to transparency in reporting and compliance with industry best practices. In 2021, the Group maintained its high-quality standard in financial reporting and received another EPRA BPR Gold Award. In addition, NEPI Rockcastle’s extended focus on sustainability and social responsibility over the past years led to the Group receiving its first EPRA sBPR Award.

“The 2021 EPRA BPR Gold Award and EPRA sBPR Bronze Award further confirm our undertaking to follow best practices for financial and sustainability reporting. The EPRA BPR Gold award further endorses our commitment to excellence in financial reporting. Also, as a property company, we take a long-term view and focus on sustainability not only through green buildings and energy efficiency, but also by engaging with the communities where we are present. We have continuously implemented sustainability projects over the last years and outlined an even more ambitious agenda for the future. We are happy to note this recognition of our efforts through the first sBPR Award and aim to continue to improve going forward.” Mirela Covasa, CFO of NEPI Rockcastle.
