Articles 21 and 58 of Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 (CSDR)

Competent authorities shall send the information requested in the below tables in WORD format to CSDR.Notifications@esma.europa.eu. The information provided will be published by ESMA in accordance with Article 21(3) and Article 58(2) of CSDR.

Article 21 - CSD register

- 1. Decisions taken by competent authorities under Articles 16, 19 and 20 shall be immediately communicated to ESMA.
- 2. Central banks shall without undue delay inform ESMA of any securities settlement system that they operate.
- 3. The name of each CSD operating in compliance with this Regulation and to which authorisation or recognition has been granted pursuant to Article 16, 19 or 25 shall be entered in a register specifying the services and, where applicable, classes of financial instruments for which the CSD has been authorised. The register shall include branches operated by the CSD in other Member States, CSD links and the information required under Article 31 where Member States have made use of the possibility provided for in that Article. ESMA shall make the register available on its dedicated website and keep it up to date.

Article 58 - CSD register

- 1. Decisions taken by competent authorities under Articles 54, 56 and 57 shall be notified to ESMA.
- 2. ESMA shall introduce in the register, that it is required to make available on its dedicated website in accordance with Article 21(3), the following information:
- (a) the name of each CSD which was subject to a decision under Articles 54, 56 and 57;
- (b) the name of each designated credit institution;
- (c) the list of banking-type ancillary services that a designated credit institution or a CSD authorised under Article 54 is authorised to provide for the CSD's participants.

Where a CSD utilises account operators, the rules of this act governing the distribution of tasks and responsibilities etc., between the CSD and the account operators shall apply. 'Account operator' means any undertaking to which a CSD has granted authorisation under section 6-2. The use of account operators does not prevent the CSD from making registrations itself.  Section 6-3 Account operators' obligations etc. An account operator is responsible for ensuring that the securities accounts and the financial instruments for which that party is account operator meet the requirements of law, regulations and the CSD's body of rules at all times. The provisions of sections 5-1 to 5-4 concerning the registration of rights to financial instruments etc., apply equally to account operators that receive requests for registration.

An account operator shall comply with the following provisions of the CSD Regulation concerning the accounts and the financial instruments for which it is the account operator:
1. Article 36 on the integrity of securities issues etc.
2. Article 37(3) prohibiting the

An account operator shall retain documentation of the basis for records in the register for a minimum of ten years.
An account operator shall maintain transparent and accessible arrangements for the handling of complaints related to its activity as account operator. An account operator shall be able to document the complaints and how they have been processed.
Section 6-4 Account
operators' right to outsource functions The outsourcing of account operator functions is not permitted unless permitted by the CSD's rules, see section 2-2.
Where the CSD in its rules has granted account operators the right to outsource functions, the provisions on outsourcing of Article 30, (1) to (3), of the CSD Regulation shall apply with equal effect. An account operator shall in the outsourcing agreement ensure that the outsourcing does not adversely affect the CSD's ability to conduct oversight pursuant to section 6-5.

		Section 6-5 The CSD's oversight of account operators etc.  A CSD shall maintain satisfactory oversight of account operators' activities to ensure their compliance with law, regulations and the CSD's rules.  A CSD shall without undue delay inform Finanstilsynet if an account operator materially or repeatedly breaches provisions of law, provisions made pursuant to law or the CSD's rules.  Account operators shall provide the CSD with such information as the CSD needs in order to meet its obligations laid down in law, regulations and the CSD's rules.  Section 6-6 Withdrawal of authorisation to be an account operator  A CSD may withdraw an account operator's authorisation under section 6-2 in whole or in part if the account operator:  1. no longer meets the conditions for being an account operator pursuant to law, regulations, the CSD's rules or its authorisation.  2. fails to use the authorisation within 12 months of its issue, expressly relinquishes the authorisation or has not carried on business as an account operator for the last six months

	3. has obtained authorisation to act as an account operator by means of incorrect or incomplete information of material significance obligation towards, or to comply with a rectification order from, Finanstilsynet.

	Decisions regarding withdrawal of authorisation under the first subsection shall be handled under the rules governing the handling of complaints laid down pursuant to Article 32(2) of the CSD Regulation.
	Section 6-7 Termination of the account operator arrangement If a CSD decides to terminate the account operator arrangement in whole or in part, it shall notify Finanstilsynet and the account operators concerned in writing at the latest twelve months before the change enters into force.
!	Finanstilsynet may within six months of receipt of notification under the first subsection set conditions for such
