Man Arrested for the Offense of Obstruction or Retaliation

Date: 6/27/2022
Arrested: Steven Holguin, 30 years old, Northeast El Paso, Texas resident
Charge: Obstruction or Retaliation, $5,000 bond issued by Judge Acosta

El Paso, Texas – On Monday, June 27th, officers from the Westside Regional Command arrested Steven Holguin for the offense of Obstruction or Retaliation for threats he made to officers during a previous arrest. Holguin was arrested at the Cincinnati Entertainment District on Saturday, June 25th, and while being transported to the Regional Command, Holguin made threats against the officers' lives. Holguin is a registered nurse and threatened the officers by saying he would give them Fentanyl to end their lives if he ever saw them at the hospital where he works. Holguin was released from the El Paso County Detention Facility on June 25th for the initial charge, and was re-arrested and booked for the offense of Obstruction or Retaliation on June 27th.
