

HOW ARE ALLIES PREPARING FOR TRUMP 2.0?

Former president and president-elect Donald Trump has talked at length about the need for allies and partners to do more and to pay their fair share. Which allies in Europe and Asia will Trump favor or show disdain for?

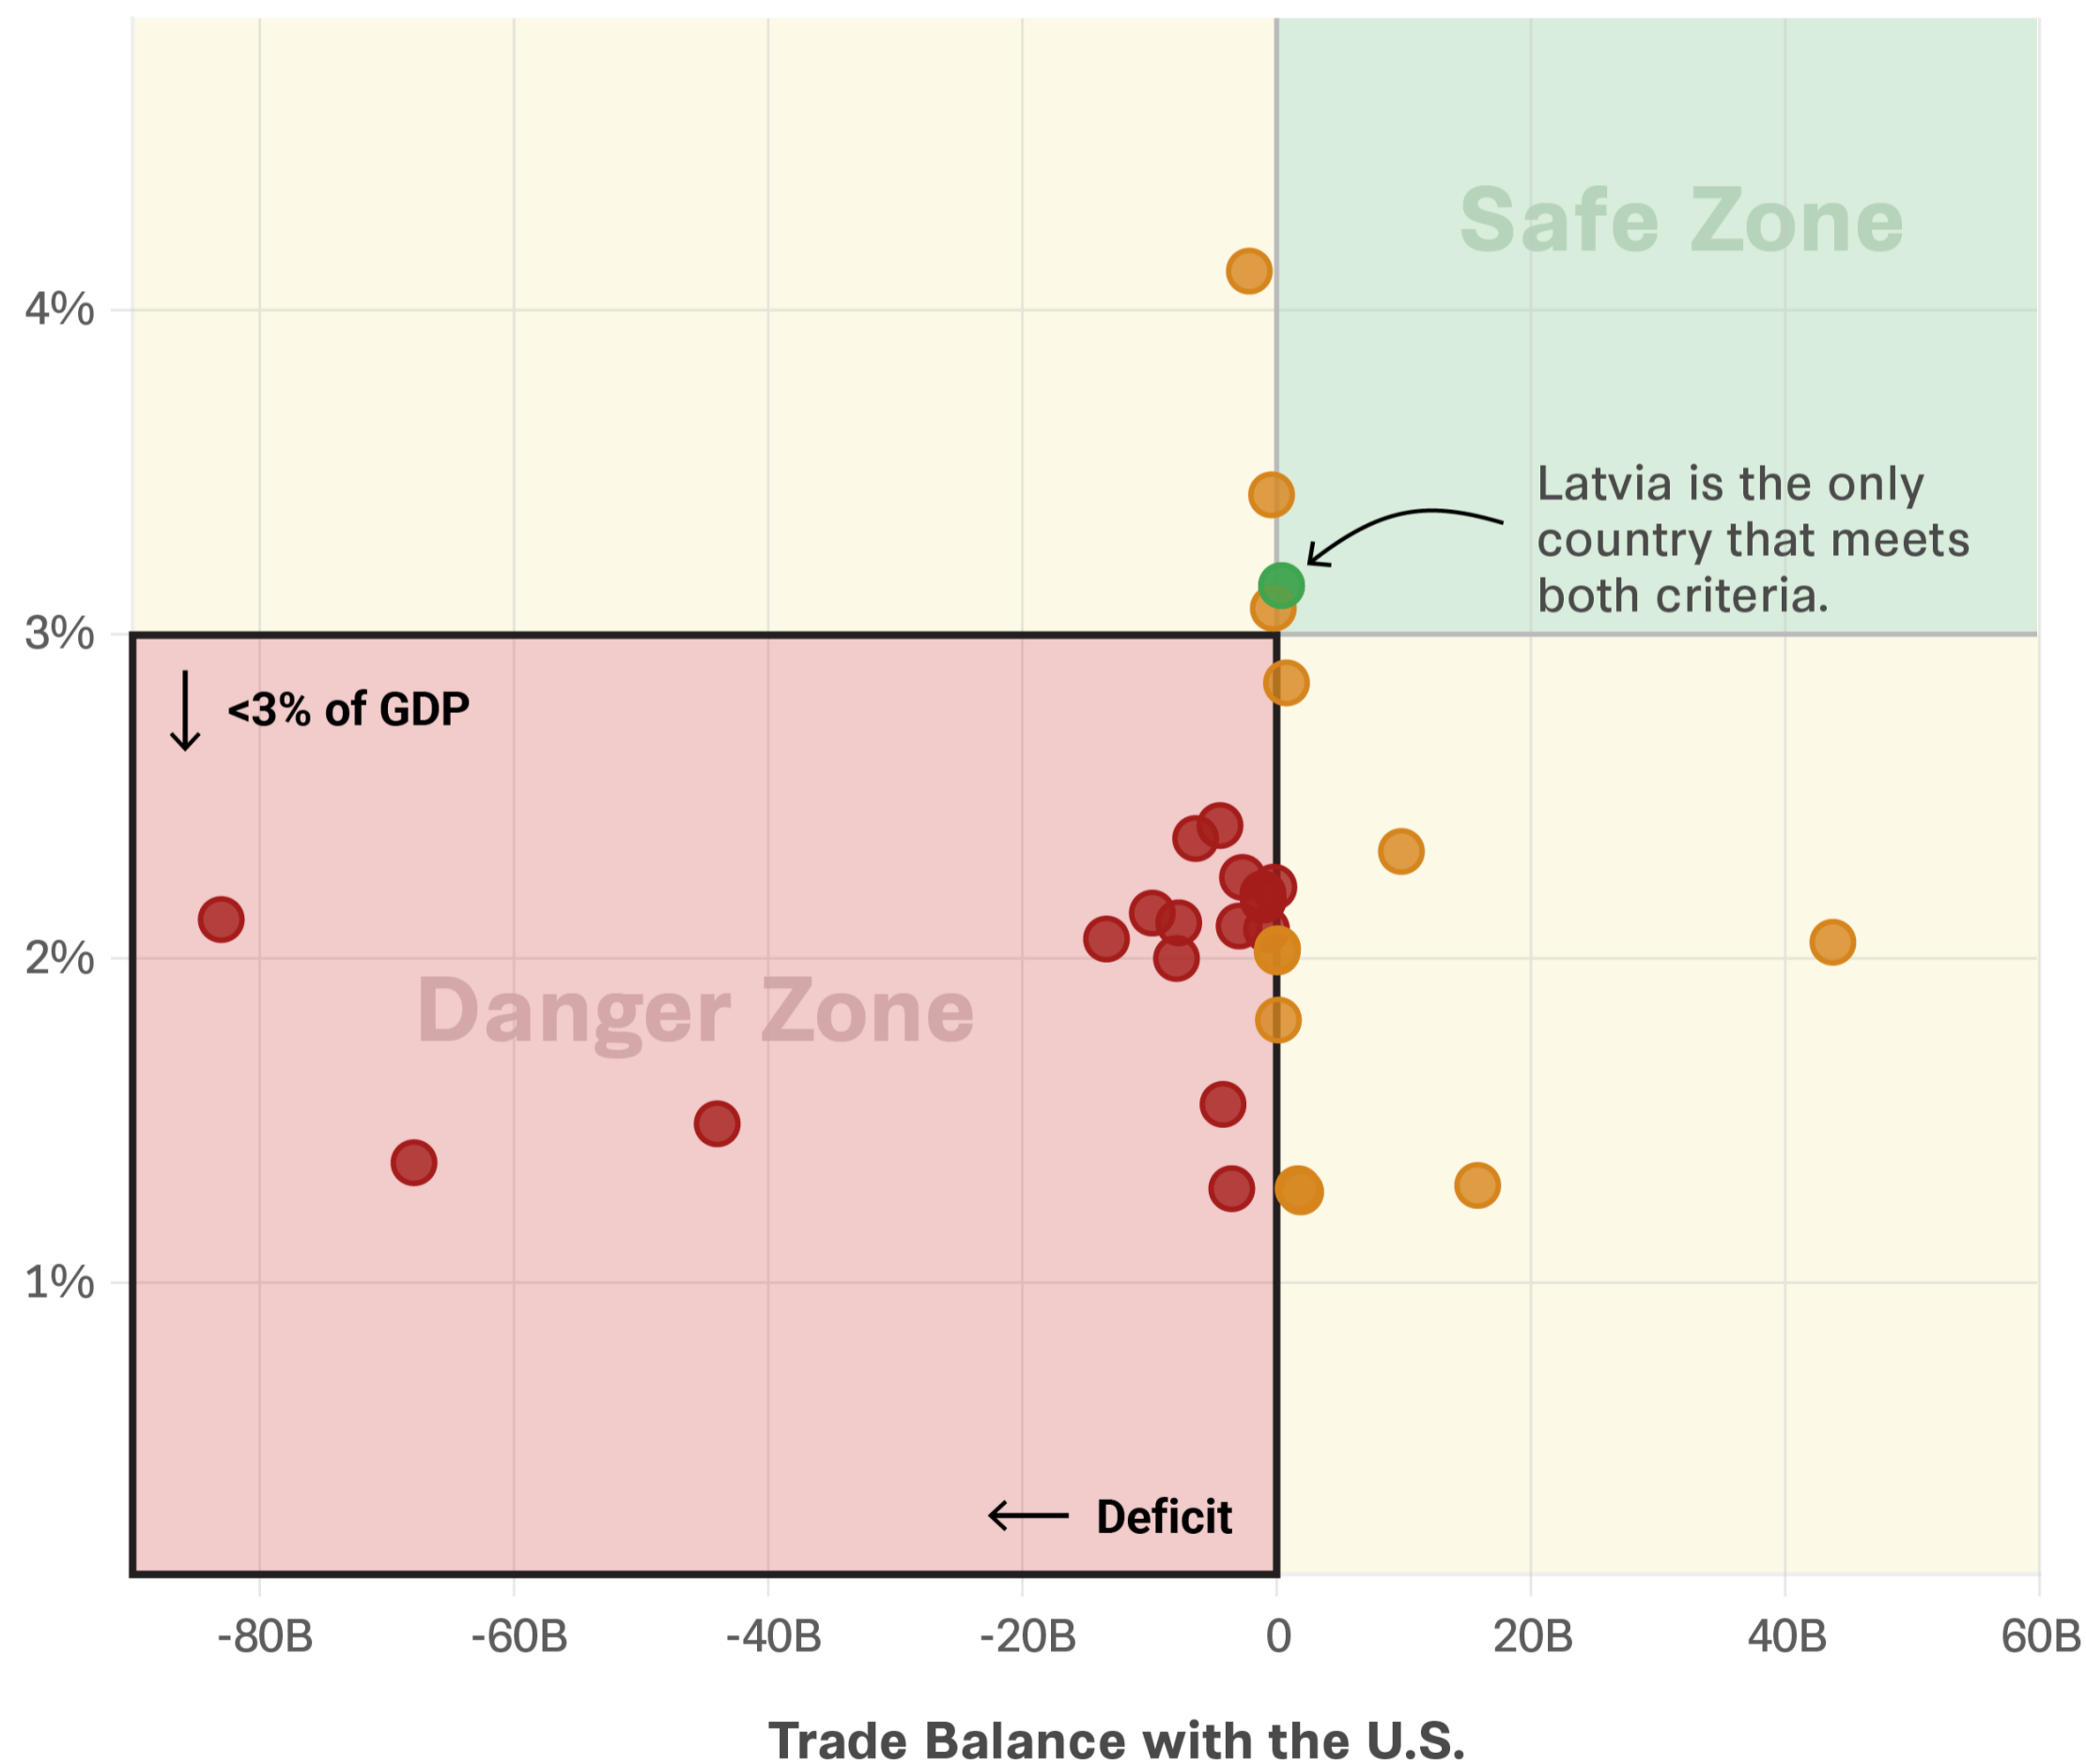

Based on his first term in office and campaign statements, Trump's barometer on allies is shaped by two key criteria: (1) whether the country has a trade surplus or deficit with the United States, and (2) whether the ally does its "fair share" on defense by spending at least 3 percent of their GDP.

The graphic below shows which NATO and Asian allies and partners are in the "Danger Zone" or "Safe Zone" with Trump based on these two metrics.
