New Jersey Civil Service Commission to Host Statewide Job Fair August 2024

TRENTON, NJ - The New Jersey Civil Service Commission (CSC) will be hosting a Statewide Job Fair on Thursday, August 15, 2024, at Kean University, Liberty Hall Academic Center, 1003 Morris Avenue, Building 2 in Union, NJ from 9:30 AM to 1:30 PM.

Over 30 state and local departments, agencies, colleges, and universities are expected to attend to share their organization's mission, open job opportunities and career advancement opportunities, and answer any questions job seekers may have.

"It is gratifying to connect State departments, schools, and agencies that have promising job opportunities with skilled job seekers," said Allison Chris Myers, Chair & Chief Executive Officer of the New Jersey Civil Service Commission. "We are committed to increasing career advancement opportunities in New Jersey while addressing the needs of New Jersey's workforce."

A wide range of careers will be represented at the job fair, including IT, Finance, Electricians, Social Services, Medical, Maintenance, Education, Public Safety, Equipment Operators, and Clerical/Administrative.

"Providing access to job opportunities for a career in public service to the state's workforce is a fundamental purpose of the agency's mission to provide diversity, equity, and inclusion resources," said Charlie Williams, PhD., Executive Director of CSC's Office of Diversity Programs. "We are also very pleased to partner with Assemblywoman Annette Quijano, Majority Conference Leader (Legislative District 20) for this important event." Assemblywoman Quijano stated, "I am happy to help sponsor the upcoming job fair hosted by the New Jersey Civil Service Commission. Supporting such initiatives is important to me because they provide essential opportunities for job seekers to connect with potential employers in public service. This job fair will be a crucial opportunity for all, offering a wide array of public service positions. From IT and law enforcement to social work and engineering, attendees will find abundant career options reflecting the diverse needs of our community."

Some of the government agencies, colleges, and universities that will be looking to hire at this event include NJ Civil Service Commission, NJ Office of Information Technology, NJ Department of Treasury, NJ Department of Labor, NJ Department of Health, NJ Department of Corrections, NJ Office of the Attorney General, NJ Casino Control Commission, and more.

Applicants are encouraged to attend any of the three information sessions conducted by the CSC on how to apply for a state job. Topics will include An Overview on Your Application to Eligibility; Where to Find Exam Announcements and Vacancy Notices; How to Create a Profile and Apply for an Exam; and Application Tips and Techniques. Subject matter experts will be present to provide answers to questions and to further assist applicants through the job search and application process. Times for these sessions are: 10:30 AM, 11:30 AM, and 12:30 PM.
