Media Advisory: Critchfield Begins Fall Tour of Idaho Schools

(BOISE) – Superintendent of Public Instruction Debbie Critchfield is spending several weeks on the road visiting Idaho schools this month. She kicked off the tour October 7 with visits to the West Jefferson and Sugar-Salem districts. She is visiting schools in the Fremont, Sugar-Salem, Madison and Rigby districts today.

Tomorrow, October 9, Critchfield will visit White Pine Charter School STEM Academy in Ammon. Media interested in attending and interviewing Critchfield about the school visits can do so at a 9:45 press availability. The school is located at 2959 John Adams Parkway.

If you're a member of the media and interested in attending, please RSVP to Idaho Department of Education Communications Director Scott Graf at sgraf@sde.idaho.gov.

Critchfield is also scheduled to visit schools in the Weiser, Lewiston, Marsh Valley, North Gem, Grace, Soda Springs, Bear Lake, Preston, West Side and Oneida school districts, as well as Gem Prep Meridian before the end of the month.
