A.R.T. Digital Holdings acquisition of Kaboomracks to expand hosting, co-location, and energy-efficient solutions for the digital energy.

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, December 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A.R.T. Digital Holdings Corp. (OTC: CGAC), a leader in energy-efficient digital infrastructure, is proud to announce its strategic merger with Kaboomracks, a trusted marketplace and service provider for cryptocurrency mining. This merger positions A.R.T. Digital as a comprehensive provider of hosting, co-location, and energy solutions for the digital economy.

Why This Merger Matters

The acquisition of Kaboomracks by A.R.T. Digital Holdings marks a significant milestone in A.R.T. Digital's evolution from a mining-focused company to a comprehensive provider of digital energy and infrastructure solutions. As a wholly owned subsidiary, Kaboomracks enhances A.R.T. Digital's capabilities in hosting, co-location, and marketplace operations, positioning the company to deliver scalable solutions to cryptocurrency miners and digital infrastructure operators.

This merger positions A.R.T. Digital Holdings Corp. and Kaboomracks as a unified force in the digital energy sector, equipped to meet the challenges of a rapidly evolving market. Together, the combined entity will continue to:

- Expand hosting and co-location facilities.
- Innovate energy-efficient solutions for mining operations.

□ Deliver reliable services to support decentralized blockchain networks.

Looking ahead, A.R.T. Digital Holdings and Kaboomracks will continue to drive innovation and expand their services, with additional updates on projects and milestones to be shared in the coming months.

About Kaboomracks

Founded in 2019, Kaboomracks has been a trusted name in the cryptocurrency mining industry, offering:

- A robust marketplace for new and used mining equipment.
- Comprehensive repair and maintenance services, including micro soldering to extend equipment lifecycles.
- Consulting services for facility design, deployment, and optimization.

Over the years, Kaboomracks has rapidly grown and captured significant market share in the hardware mining brokerage space, solidifying its position as a trusted leader in the industry.

Kaboomracks is a full-service provider, delivering hardware brokerage, hosting and co-location solutions to cryptocurrency miners. The company has over 16 Megawatts (MW) of co-location capacity located in:

- Wenatchee, Washington State
- Houston, Texas
- McAllen, Texas

By merging with A.R.T. Digital Holdings, Kaboomracks gains access to the financial resources and strategic support necessary to accelerate its growth and drive innovation.

Kaboomracks' well-established reputation as a trusted provider in the mining industry brings unparalleled operational resources to A.R.T. Digital Holdings. The merger strengthens A.R.T. Digital's position in the market, enabling it to expand hosting capacity, innovate energy-efficient solutions, and meet the increasing demand for decentralized infrastructure.

As a unified entity, Kaboomracks can leverage growth capital and market access through A.R.T. Digital, enabling the expansion of hosting services, customer solutions, and operational innovations.

Together, the combined company is creating a cohesive platform for miners, uniting industry-leading operational expertise with the strategic resources needed to thrive in a rapidly changing digital energy landscape.
