Security Description:

The goal of this section is to provide a clear understanding of the material rights and privileges of the securities issued by the company. Please provide the below information for each class of the company's equity securities, as applicable:

- 1. For common equity, describe any dividend, voting and preemption rights.
- (1) Dividend Rate. The holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends when, as, and if declared by the board of directors out of assets legally available therefor.
- (2) Voting Rights. Except as otherwise provided by the CRS, the holders of the issued and outstanding shares of the Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share. No holder of shares of Common Stock shall have the right to cumulate votes.

- (3) Liquidation Rights. In the event of liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the affairs of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, subject to the prior rights of the holders of Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock, if any, the holders of shares of the Common Stock can share ratably in the corporation's assets, and shall share equally and ratably in the corporation's assets available for distribution after giving effect to any liquidation preference of any shares of the Series A Preferred Stock or Series B Preferred Stock. A merger, conversion, exchange, or consolidation of the corporation with or into any other person or sale or transfer of all or any part of the assets of the corporation (which shall not in fact result in the liquidation of the corporation and the distribution of assets to stockholders) shall not be deemed to be a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the corporation.
- (4) No Conversion, Redemption, or Preemptive Rights. The holders of Common Stock shall not have any conversion, redemption, or preemptive rights.
- (5) Consideration for Shares. The Common Stock authorized by this article shall be issued for such consideration as shall be fixed, from time to time, by the board of directors.
 - 2. For preferred stock, describe the dividend, voting, conversion, and liquidation rights as well as redemption or sinking fund provisions.

Series A Preferred Stock

- (1) Voting Rights. Except as otherwise provided by the CRS, the holders of the issued and outstanding shares of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to 1,000 votes for each share held by them.
- (2) Consideration for Shares. The shares of the Series A Preferred Stock authorized by this article shall be issued for such consideration as shall be fixed, from time to time, by the board of directors.

Series B Preferred Stock

- (1) Voting Rights. Except as otherwise provided by the CRS, the holders of the issued and outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share held by them.
- (2) Conversion Rights. The holders of shares of the corporation's Series B Preferred Stock shall have the right to convert each share of Series B Preferred Stock held by them to one share of the corporation's Common Stock.
- (3) Consideration for Shares. The shares of the Series B Preferred Stock authorized by this article shall be issued for such consideration as shall be fixed, from time to time, by the board of directors.
 - 3. Describe any other material rights of common or preferred stockholders.

None.

4. Describe any material modifications to rights of holders of the company's securities that have occurred over the reporting period covered by this report.

None.

3) Issuance History

The goal of this section is to provide disclosure with respect to each event that resulted in any changes to the total shares outstanding of any class of the issuer's securities in the past two completed fiscal years and any subsequent interim period.

Disclosure under this item shall include, in chronological order, all offerings and issuances of securities, including debt convertible into equity securities, whether private or public, and all shares, or any other securities or options to acquire such securities, issued for services. Using the tabular format below, please describe these events.

NET SAVINGS LINK, INC.

Notes to the Accounts June 30, 2024

1. Nature of Operations and Continuance of Business

The unaudited interim financial statements included herein have been prepared by Net Savings Link, Inc. ("NSL" or the "Company") in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. We suggest that these interim financial statements be read in conjunction with the unaudited financial statements and notes for the period ended 30 June, 2023. We believe that all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and the results of operations for the interim periods presented have been reflected herein and that the disclosures made are adequate to make the information not misleading. The results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. Notes to the financial statements which would substantially duplicate the disclosure contained in the audited financial statements for the most recent fiscal year.

2. Going Concern

NSL's financial statements are prepared using Generally Accepted Accounting Principles applicable to a going concern that contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. However, NSL has generated minimal revenue and accumulated significant losses since inception. As of September 30, 2023, the company has accumulated a deficit of $16,756,499. All of these items raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans with respect to alleviating the adverse financial conditions that caused management to express substantial doubt about the NSL's ability to continue as a going concern are as follows:

In order to fund the start-up of operations during the period ended March 31, 2022, management plans to enter into several financing transactions and try to raise funds. The continuation of the Company as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to generating profitable operations that produce positive cash flows. If the Company is not successful, it may be forced to raise additional debt or equity financing.

There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to achieve its business plans, raise any more required capital or secure the financing necessary to achieve its current operating plan. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to successfully accomplish the plan described in the preceding paragraph and eventually attain profitable operations. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

3. Related Party Transactions

The Company accrued wages for its current President and CEO at a rate of $120,000 per year, along with other employees of the Company.
