OLYMPIC GAMES PARIS 2024

THE COURT OF ARBITRATION FOR SPORT (CAS) OPENS ITS TEMPORARY OFFICES IN PARIS FOR THE OLYMPIC GAMES 2024

Lausanne, 16 July 2024 - The Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) has opened two temporary offices in Paris for the Olympic Games 2024 (the Games). The first, for the CAS Ad Hoc Division, will resolve any legal disputes that arise during the Games. This temporary tribunal has operated at every edition of the Summer and Winter Olympic Games since 1996, as well as at other major sporting events. The CAS Ad hoc Division guarantees free access to high quality dispute resolution services conducted within a timeframe consistent with the competition schedule as decisions can be rendered within 24 hours in urgent matters.

The second temporary office is for the CAS Anti-Doping Division which will adjudicate anti-doping-related matters arising during the Games. This structure, in operation since the Rio 2016 Olympic Games, and a permanent division since 2019, will handle potential doping cases referred to it by the International Testing Agency (ITA) in accordance with the International Olympic Committee (IOC) Anti-doping Rules.

The composition of each division is available in our previous release: https://www.tas-cas.org/fileadmin/user_upload/CAS_Media_Release_ParisOG.pdf
