K-148 to close for railroad crossing replacement

A portion of K-148 in Republic County is expected to close for two days the week of Oct. 28 for the replacement of the BNSF railroad crossing at Kackley.

During construction, K-148 will be closed to all traffic at the railroad crossing in Kackley. Through traffic on K-148 will be directed to detour on K-28, K-9 and U.S. 81. (See attached map.) Exact dates for the closure will be announced prior to the start of the project.
