Meeting Summary

On June 15, 2023, EPA participated in a webinar hosted by ACC. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss 1,3-butadiene (CASRN 106-99-0). ACC provided an overview of the ACC 1,3-Butadiene TSCA Risk Evaluation Consortium. Members of the consortium provided an overview of 1,3-butadiene occupational exposures. Specifically, the physical and chemical properties, the 1,3-butadiene supply chain, the manufacturing process, and the synthetic rubber manufacturing process and mass balance as it relates to occupational non-users were discussed during this webinar.
