PENN HILLS MAN ON THE RUN SINCE JANUARY TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Penn Hills man, on the run since January, has been taken into custody.

32-year-old Sofion Moore has been a fugitive since bench warrants were issued in January. The first warrant involves his failure to show for a status conference on a case involving firearms charges and the second is for a probation violation on a case involving burglary. Additionally, Moore also has an active warrant for an escape charge after walking away from Renewal Inc. In December 2023.

Detectives from our office began developing information on Moore's movements last week and were able to narrow his location today to an address on Bellaire Place in Brookline. When detectives arrived at the address earlier today, they subsequently found Moore hiding underneath a table in the dining room of the residence.

Moore was arrested without incident and transported to the Allegheny County Jail.
