PITTSBURGH MAN WITH MULTIPLE BENCH AND ACTIVE WARRANTS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Pittsburgh man with multiple warrants has been taken into custody.

29-year-old Khalil Taylor has been a fugitive since May 2023 when probation violation bench warrants were issued on two different cases, one involving an escape charge and the other involving firearms violations. In addition, Taylor has two active arrest warrants, one out of the City of Pittsburgh for terroristic threats and one out of Pitcairn for simple assault.

Detectives from our office developed information this week that Taylor was inside of a residence on Heart Court in Homewood. Detectives arrived at the location shortly before 8:00am this morning and were able to take Taylor into custody without incident.

Following the arrest, detectives secured a search warrant for the residence and recovered suspected hallucinogenic mushrooms and a Glock handgun. As a result, Taylor is in the Allegheny County Jail facing new charges including two firearms violations and two possession counts.
