

About IFES

VISION

A world where people are free, societies are democratic, and elections

MISSION

Together, we build resilient democracies that deliver for all.

Democracy fosters freedom.

Democracies built on strong foundations will be more resilient.

IFES analysis, tools, and training empower the people protecting democracy. We help build strong, independent institutions around the world. We work with civil society and citizens across the globe to nurture democratic culture.

Every democracy is different. We all face shared challenges.

Together, we build resilient democracies that deliver for all.
