NARRATIVE:

The Chevrolet was eastbound on Interstate 94 when it lost control after being passed by a semi-truck. The Chevrolet left the roadway, rolled, and came to rest on its side in standing water. Following a search by first responders, the 7- and 10-year-old male passengers were located and pronounced deceased at the scene. All other occupants were transported to the Jamestown Regional Medical Center by Jamestown Area Ambulance. One passenger was then life-flighted by Sanford AirMed to Sanford Hospital in Fargo. The driver was transported by Jamestown Area Ambulance to Sanford Hospital in Fargo.

The crash remains under investigation by the North Dakota Highway Patrol.

The name of the driver will be released later on July 16; the names of the juveniles will not be released.
