U.S. District Court Swears in 259 Citizenship Candidates in Naturalization Ceremony at Rockford's Coronado Performing Arts Center

Rockford, Ill. - The U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois hosted a naturalization ceremony at the Coronado Performing Arts Center in which 259 new citizens from 49 countries were sworn in as U.S. citizens.

"On behalf of the court, I offer heartfelt congratulations and welcome our newest citizens. I invite and encourage each of you to take an active role American citizens. Register to vote, get involved in our community, serve on a jury when you are called, and spread kindness," said Chief Judge Virginia M. Kendall.

U.S. District Judge Iain D. Johnston administered the Oath of Allegiance and welcomed the new citizens.

Every year thousands of immigrants visit the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois to be sworn in as U.S. citizens at naturalization ceremonies. The district's judges preside over these ceremonies, which take place in both of the district's courthouses and throughout the district. Family and friends gather to watch as new citizens take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States, a sworn declaration that every citizenship applicant must recite during a formal ceremony in order to become a naturalized American citizen. When taking the Oath, the new citizen promises to support and defend the U.S. Constitution and the laws of the U.S.
