

Kansas Bureau of Investigation

Tony Mattivi
Director

Kris W. Kobach
Attorney General

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 1, 2024

Contact: Melissa Underwood
(785) 296-8283

melissa.underwood@kbi.ks.gov

UPDATE: Statewide Silver Alert for Lansing woman is canceled

TOPEKA – The Leavenworth County Sheriff's Office reported to the Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) that 87-year-old Frances Kraft was located safe in Lafayette County, Missouri. She is in good condition.

The statewide silver alert is now canceled. Thanks for your assistance during the alert.

###

---

EARLIER RELEASE
August 1, 2024

Contact: Melissa Underwood
(785) 296-8283

melissa.underwood@kbi.ks.gov

Statewide Silver Alert issued for Lansing woman

LEAVENWORTH COUNTY – The Leavenworth County Sheriff's Office requested the Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) issue a statewide Silver Alert for a missing Lansing woman.

The whereabouts of 87-year-old Frances M. Kraft, are unknown, and the public's assistance is requested to help locate her.

Kraft was last seen at her Lansing home at 10 a.m. on Thursday, Aug. 1. It is believed she was at the Dillons grocery store in Leavenworth until around 11:30 a.m., but she has not returned home. She was driving a maroon 2002 Honda Accord bearing tag 9049AEU.

Kraft is a white female who is 5 feet 7 inches tall and weighs around 135 pounds. She has hazel eyes, grey hair, and wears glasses. Kraft was last seen wearing a light blue button-up blouse, white jeans and tennis shoes. Kraft has dementia.

If you see Frances Kraft, please call 911 immediately. If you have other information about her whereabouts, please call the Leavenworth County Sheriff's Office at (913) 682-5724.

###