George Sharp Litigation Against the Issuer

On June 8, 2020, George Sharp, the Plaintiff, filed a complaint against the Issuer, Mark Hagen, Margaret Willett and Does 1-50 alleging breach of contracts for failure to pay the full value of agreements between George Sharp and the Issuer (George Sharp v. Cuba Beverage Company, Mark Hagen, Margaret Willett and Does 1-500, Superior Court of the California, Central Division, Case No. 27-2020-00019244-CL-BC-CTL). On February 7, 2022, a notice of Entry of Judgment was entered regarding a February 7, 2022 judgment against the Company for $26,476. On September 9, 2022, a Notice of Entry of Amended Judgment was entered in the amount of $54,692 against the Company. On October 27, 2022, an Acknowledgement of Satisfaction of Judgment, in the amount of $5,000, was entered by the court with respect to defendants Mark Hagen and Margaret Willett's total liability in this matter. The Company will not be filing an appeal.

Issuer's Litigation against Zachary Kramer, Alex Procopio, and Colonial Stock Transfer Co

On March 12, 2023, the Issuer filed a complaint against Zachary Kramer, Alex Procopio (the Issuer's former Chief Executive Officer from 2011 to 2016), and Colonial Stock Transfer Co alleging the fraudulent transfer of 518,737,500 common stock shares from Procopio to his nephew Kramer for the alleged purpose of conducting an illegal distribution of such shares upon the public (FUNR v. Zachary Kramer, Alex Procopio, Colonial Stock Transfer Co., Does 1-99, Superior Court of California, Central Division). The Complaint alleges that if defendant Procopio is allowed to continue to distribute the 518,737,500 ostensible shares to the public, by way of a work-around transfer to his defendant nephew, Zachary Kramer, the Issuer will be materially harmed by having the 518,737,500 shares be used as an instrumentality of fraud and thereby cause material harm to the Issuer and its shareholders. The Complaint further states that: (a) starting in 2012

Defendant Procopio participated in a fraudulent pump and dump scheme involving the Issuer to obtain illegal profits; (2) in 2019, criminal charges were filed against Defendant Procopio (US v. Alex Procopio SDCA Case No. 3:19-CR-04549-BTM) alleging a fraudulent scheme to commit securities fraud and in connection with such action on February 5, 2020 a judgment was entered against Defendant Procopio finding him guilty of one count of criminal conspiracy; (3) in 2019, the SEC filed an action against defendant Procopio (SEC v. Procopio et al SDCA Case No. CV-00182-BEN-LL) alleging a fraudulent kickback scheme involving the Issuer's shares to evade the registration and anti-fraud provisions and on or about May 2, 2020, Procopio was enjoined from future violations of the anti-fraud and registration provisions. An SEC order prohibits Procopio from acting as an officer or director of any issuer that has a class of securities registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Securities & Exchange Act of 1934, and bars Procopio from participating in an offering of penny stock, including engaging in activities with a broker, dealer, or issuer for purposes of issuing, trading, or inducing or attempting to induce the purchase or sale of a penny stock. The Parties executed a May 16, 2023 Release and Settlement Agreement providing for the Company's purchase of the Shares for $45,000 to be paid to Kramer and a mutual release between the Parties.

NOTE 5 - INCOME TAXES

The Company accounts for income taxes under ASC Topic 740: Income Taxes which requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for both the expected impact of differences between the financial statements and the tax basis of assets and liabilities, and for the expected future tax benefit to be derived from tax losses and tax credit carryforwards. ASC Topic 740 additionally requires the establishment of a valuation allowance to reflect the likelihood of realization of deferred tax assets. The Company has a net operating loss carryforward for tax purposes that can be carried forward indefinitely under the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. Internal Revenue Code Section 382 places a limitation on the amount of taxable income that can be offset by carryforwards after certain ownership shifts.

The Company has recorded a full valuation allowance against its net deferred tax asset. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible.

The Company has not completed a study to determine whether any ownership change per the provisions of Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as well as similar state provisions, has occurred. Utilization of the Company's net operating loss and income tax credit carryforwards may be subject to a substantial annual limitation due to ownership changes that may have occurred or that could occur in the future. These ownership changes may limit the amount of the net operating loss and income tax credit carryover that can be utilized annually to offset future taxable income. In general, an "ownership change" as defined by Section 382 of the Code results from a transaction or series of transactions over a three-year period resulting in an ownership change of more than 50 percentage points of the outstanding stock of a company by certain stockholders.

Uncertain tax positions

In accordance with authoritative guidance, the impact of an uncertain income tax position on the income tax return must be recognized at the largest amount that is more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon audit by the relevant taxing authority. An uncertain income tax position will not be recognized if it has less than a 50% likelihood of being sustained. The Company has no material uncertain tax positions as of June 30, 2024.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax positions within the income tax expense line in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations. There were no accrued interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions as of June 30, 2024 and 2022.

The Company is subject to U.S. federal and state income tax, and in the normal course of business, its income tax returns are subject to examination by the relevant taxing authorities. As of December 31, 2022, the 2017 – 2020 tax years remain subject to examination in the U.S. federal tax and various state tax jurisdictions. However, to the extent allowed by law, the taxing authorities may have the right to examine the period from 2013 through 2020 where net operating losses and income tax credits were generated and carried forward and make adjustments to the amount of the net operating loss and income tax credit carryforward amount. The Company is not currently under examination by federal or state jurisdictions.

NOTE 6 - GOING CONCERN

Certain conditions indicate the Company may not be able to continue as a going concern. The Company's costs have far outweighed the income since the inception of the Company. The Company's costs have been solely supplemented by additional investments in the Company and may not be able to be sustained. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments to the financial statements that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.
