We have financed our operations primarily through cash generated from the sale of our stock and loans to us. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. During the year ended July 31, 2024, and 2023, the Company suffered net losses of $363,610 and $756,800, respectively. As of July 31, 2024, the Company had a negative working capital of $3,032,897 and a stockholders’ deficiency of $2,971,697. Historically, the Company has sustained its operations primarily through equity and debt financing. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. In view of these matters, the Company will need to improve its working capital position. The Company plans to overcome the circumstances that impact our ability to remain a going concern through a combination of achieving profitability, raising additional debt and equity financing, and renegotiating existing obligations. There can be no assurance, however, that we will be able to complete any additional debt or equity financing on favorable terms or at all, or that any such financings, if completed, will be adequate to meet our capital requirements. Any additional equity or debt financings could result in substantial dilution to our stockholders. If adequate funds are not available, we will be required to delay, reduce, or eliminate some or all of our planned activities. Our inability to fund our capital requirements would have a material adverse effect on the Company. Management believes that the actions presently being taken to revise the Company's operating and financial requirements may provide the opportunity for the Company to continue as a going concern.

AMERICAN DIVERSIFIED HOLDINGS CORPORATION

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(A) Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reported periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(B) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the cash flow statements, the Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of six months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

(C) Revenue Recognition

At the time of the transaction, the Company assesses whether the fee is fixed and determinable based on the payment terms associated with the transaction and whether collectability is reasonably assured. If a significant portion of a fee is due after our normal payment terms, the Company accounts for the fee as not being fixed and determinable. In these cases, the Company recognizes revenue as the fees become due. Where the Company provides or delivers a product or service at a specific point in time and there are no remaining obligations, the Company recognizes revenue upon the delivery of the product or completion of the service.

(D) Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under SFAS No. 109 "Accounting for Income Taxes". Under SFAS No. 109, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Under SFAS No. 109, the effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company has made no current provision (benefit) for Federal income taxes because of losses since its inception. A valuation allowance has been used to offset the recognition of any deferred tax assets arising from net operating loss carry forwards due to the uncertainty of future realization. The use of any tax loss carryforward benefits may also be limited as a result of changes in Company ownership.

(E) Loss Per Share

Basic and diluted net loss per share for all periods presented is computed based upon the weighted average number of common shares outstanding and issuable shares as defined by SFAS No. 128, "Earnings Per Share".

(F) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

SFAS No. 107, "Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments", requires disclosures of information about the fair value of certain financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value. For purposes of this disclosure, the fair value of a financial instrument is the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced sale or liquidation.

The carrying amounts of the Company's financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, advances to suppliers, accounts payable and accrued expenses, line of credit, notes payable and short-term secured financing approximate fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity for these instruments.

(G) Rounding

All amounts have been rounded to the nearest $1.00 except for share amounts.

(H) Reclassifications

Certain prior year accounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year's presentation.

NOTE 6 – OTHER EVENTS – LEGAL

On February 11, 2021, ADHC announced today that management has interviewed securities litigation counsel seeking advice on initiating legal proceedings for the return of 324 million shares issued by interim management for an acquisition that was never completed. “Rescinding these shares is a positive step in going forward with ADHC’s 2022 plan. We feel it is management’s duty to the shareholders to engage counsel and seek return of these shares which represent almost 40% of the outstanding shares of the Company” stated ADHC management.

On February 17, 2021, the ADHC announced that it has come to the attention of the Company that previous interim management has caused an 8-K to be filed making certain allegations against CEO Ernest Remo and ADHC. All corporate activities conducted by current management have been done in accordance with all federal and state laws and approved by corporate securities and litigation counsel. Shareholders can rest assured that all corporate activities conducted by its CEO and the Company are legally compliant. The current management team is the rightful and legally authorized representatives of ADHC as evidenced by all recent filing on OTC and as a matter of fact since the Company is not a full reporting SEC company and as such, we do not file 8-K’s and look forward to resolving any matters in dispute amicably. On November 5, 2021, the Company announced today that the company has filed a lawsuit against Miroslav Zecevic, Mina Mar Marketing Group (“Mina Mar Group”), Mina Mar Corporation, and a group of Spanish entities (among others) involving allegations of serious misconduct perpetrated against ADHC, a public company, Ernest B. Remo, and the ADHC shareholders. The complaint contains allegations of years of improper actions that have caused significant harm to ADHC shareholders. Setting forth claims of conversion and intentional interference with contract against Zecevic (among other claims), the complaint states, “In August and September 2019, Zecevic caused over 300 million ADHC shares to be issued to [the Spanish entities] [however] the monies that were paid for the shares were never received by ADHC. Instead of ensuring that ADHC would be paid for its shares, Zecevic arranged to have the monies paid directly to Mina Mar Corp., Zecevic’s own business. ADHC, then a Nevada corporation, received nothing for these substantial share issuances. In addition to directing payment to his company, Zecevic set the price for the shares issued to Tourist Cruise SL (one of the Spanish entities) at 10% of the then-current price as traded on the open market.” In support of these statements, the complaint attaches a purported “bank record from August 12, 2019 directing payment from Tourist Cruise SL to Mina Mar Corp. [not ADHC] for 62,500,000 ADHC shares.” In addition to the claims of financial malfeasance against Zecevic, the complaint also seeks relief from Zecevic’s alleged repeated false statements against ADHC and its management. Included in the body of the complaint are images of a dozen publications and social media statements attributed to Zecevic, upon which the plaintiffs’ claims are based. “[Zecevic’s] false statements are intended to manufacture confusion and doubt about ADHC in the eyes of the public,” the pleading states. Additionally, the complaint avers that “Zecevic caused [American Diversified Holdings Corp., a New York corporation unrelated to ADHC] to be formed and incorporated in New York on October 27, 2021 for the purpose of creating additional confusion with the public about the identity and management of ADHC and to otherwise leverage ADHC’s good name, reputation, and trademarks for his benefit.” According to the complaint, the authorized and legal management team of ADHC, both as a corporation and individually, have been the target of a repeated campaign of false and malicious actions which has resulted in severe deterioration in the market value of ADHC’s stock. “After over two years of enduring the repeated attacks against the shareholders of ADHC this lawsuit sends a statement to the defendants that ADHC management will not sit by and allow the shareholders to be victimized”, stated ADHC management. ADHC is seeking monetary damages and other remedies to ensure that ADHC will no longer endure this wrongful behavior from the named defendants.

On or about March 5, 2021, the Company was served with a lawsuit filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The Company filed a motion to dismiss on July 27, 2021, On November 11, 2021, the Company announced the Court in the SAVEENE vs REMO, et al. has denied the Saveene’s request to amend its complaint and ordered the case to be transferred from the South District of New York to Southern District of California consistent with Remo and ADHC’s submissions. The court stated that Saveene’s proposed amendments were “FUTILE” and denied Saveene’s request to amend its complaint finding the request as “APPEAR[ING] TO BE GAMESMANSHIP.”. This decision by the Southern District of New York sends a clear message to the plaintiff that their futile arguments and gamesmanship in the matter will not be tolerated. Defendants anticipate that Remo’s motion to dismiss will now be heard in the Southern District of California. ADHC and its CEO are committed to building shareholder value and will not tolerate any more attacks on the company. On September 26, 2022, the Company announced that the Magistrate Judge in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California dismissed the above referenced case with prejudice and has directed the clerk of court to close the case.
