Financial Statement Notes

NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1a. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Corporation adheres to the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement No. 95, "Statement of Cash Flows." For this statement, the Corporation classifies all Cash and equivalents with a maturity of three months or less as cash equivalents.

1b. Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles necessitates the use of management estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions impact the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the Date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Consequently, actual results may differ from these estimates.

1c. Revenue Recognition

Revenue from fixed-price contracts is recognized using the percentage of completion method based on costs incurred relative to total estimated costs. Revenue from products, subscriptions, and related services, including time-and-material contracts, is recognized based on a negotiated rate multiplied by labor hours and other billable direct costs incurred. Anticipated losses on all contracts are recorded in full as soon as they are known.

1d. Income Taxes:

- The Corporation is subject to federal and state corporate income taxes. The Corporation has made provisions for taxes for the following periods: Quarter ending July 31, 2024; Quarter ending April 30, 2024.

As of the 3rd Quarter ending July 31, 2024, there have been additional changes since the last reporting period ending April 30, 2024, with a cumulative net loss of $-4,530. However, in the quarter ending July 31, 2024, an adjustment was made to the profit/loss of $9,711 in asset income, which adjusted the tax liability to $37,087 in taxable Income as of July 31, 2023.

1e. Property and Equipment

The Property and Equipment Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. The cost and accumulated depreciation of retired or otherwise Page 22 of 24 disposed-of assets are removed from the accounts, with any resulting gain or loss recognized in Income for the period

1f. Goodwill represents the excess cost of a business acquisition over the fair value of the net assets acquired. Per paragraphs 350-20-35-1 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, Goodwill is not amortized but is reviewed periodically, at least annually, for impairment. Factors such as projected cash flows and revenue and earnings multiples are considered to determine whether the carrying value of Goodwill is impaired. If Goodwill is deemed impaired, the difference between the carrying amount and the estimated fair value is recognized as an expense during the period the impairment occurs.

1g. Goodwill Impairment

In accordance with paragraph 350-20-35-1 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, Goodwill is not amortized. In July 2015, the number of shares issued under the 3(a)(10) court order was reduced. Starting in November 2014, the Company canceled the Issuance of court-ordered stock allocations and recalculated risk factors, resulting in negative income projections and an increase in the number of shares against shareholders' equity. This change is reflected within the balance sheet starting the 1st Quarter, November 1, 2015, until impairment or self-valorization is achievable.

1h. Goodwill and Intangibles Impairment

According to the SEC Financial Reporting Manual section 9510.3, registrants should disclose specific information when a reporting unit is at risk of failing step 1 of the impairment test (as defined in ASC 350). Goodwill should be evaluated annually. To comply with S-K 303(a)(3)(ii), which requires a description of known uncertainties, a reevaluation of Goodwill is necessary. Additional guidance is provided in Section V of Release 33-8350, which states that material implications of uncertainties associated with the methods, assumptions, and estimates underlying critical accounting measurements should be addressed.

1i. Reducing the value of Goodwill:

The impairment was reduced by $60 between the 1st and 2nd Quarters. It is anticipated that the writing of the entire Goodwill will be determined after the finance audit by the end of the 1st Quarter 2026

NOTE 2 – PAYABLES

Payables include a negotiated payment plan with the Transfer Agent Stock Transfer Online, Inc. From April 2023 to January 2024, six outstanding invoices totaling $1,650.00 are expected to be paid sooner. Equity funding and an escrow line of Credit are under negotiation starting in April 2024. The payment is amortized with a monthly interest fee of 5%. The equity investment is to be determined.

NOTE 3 – INVESTMENTS

The eCETP WebApp funding initiative for website security and support services budgeted $22,467 for the Third Quarter Report ending Jul 31, 2022. The FINA Balance was completed in August 2022. IJJ allotted 35,000,000 IJJ Coins to the eCETP donation platform and minted IJJ Ethereum ERC-20 tokens for the Exchange Trading module with

In eCETP. Preset pricing was established to support business activities and transactions. The product offered is a Donation Backer Package with Account Receipts and Tickets (ART), available in six packages.

NOTE 4 – ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Between January 2023 and the present, investments in software development and application specification for CETP and Carbon Credit WebApps were made. Consultant services were provided for a nonprofit contract valued at $73,700, with $33,000 for the license and $43,700 as the remaining Balance.

NOTE 5 – COMMON STOCK ADJUSTMENT

In response to the unexpected new Issuance related to the Goodwill and Intangibles impairment, Mr. Pope canceled 100,000,000 of his common shares issued in April 2015, as of July 2022, to offset the increase against the shareholders' equity from the 3(a)(10). The 3(a) 0) is now closed for all required issuances. The certificate for the 100,000,000 shares is now in possession, but the court order to cancel the certificate has not been pursued. Shareholders who returned the certificate without the medallion signature were identified.
