IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE TWELFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR DESOTO COUNTY, FLORIDA
CIVIL DIVISION

IN RE HEMPTTECH CORP.
COMMON SHARES,
PLAINTIFF,

CASE NO.: 2018-CA-00133

ORDER FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on the Declaratory Action pursuant to Chapter 86, Florida Statutes, as brought by Hemptech, Corp. for determination of whether the Company is or has ever been a “Shell” Company under Rule 405 of the Securities Act. The Court has been presented with the necessary evidence, public filings, testimony and other matters necessary for such determination of such matter. The Court having heard the representations and argument of counsel, and otherwise being fully advised in the premises, it is

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECLARED that

- A. The Legal Questions presented were the following for the Court to use its declaratory judgment powers were the following:
- 1) Whether the Company has ever been or met the definition of a “Shell” corporation under Section 405 of the Securities Act for application of that definition as to eligibility of the common stock of the Corporation for purposes of exemption from registration under the Securities Act for purposes of resale of such securities. If the finding of the Court is that the company has never been a shell under such definition, then the enquiry will end. If on the other hand the answer is yes, that the Company was a shell at some point, then the Plaintiff seeks a ruling as to the next issue.
 - 2) If the Company had ever met the definition of being a “Shell” corporation under Section 405 of the Securities Act, then the Corporation has “cured” such Shell situation by compliance with the Securities Act for purposes of sale of its common stock by shareholders under Rule 144 of the Securities Act.

B. The Court was presented evidence that such hearing had been published to the public, shareholders and all interested parties as to the place, time and subject of the hearing through the Corporation filing such notice with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 29, 2018. That given such notification, no party with opposing evidence or otherwise appeared.

C. The Court having had the benefit of the evidence, argument of counsel, public filings and otherwise made the following determination as to the applicability of whether the Corporation is now or ever has been a shell company as defined in Rule 405, of the Securities Act; as such the Court does not need to reach the second question presented;

D. The Court has determined, based upon the matters presented, that the Corporation is not now, nor has it been a Shell Company as defined under the Securities Act for application of Rule 144 of the Securities Act when otherwise appropriate.

E. The Corporation shall publish such finding by filing of a Form 1-U through the Securities and Exchange Commission within five days of this Order.

SO ORDERED in Chambers in Desoto County, Florida on the ____ day of April, 2018.
