Security Description:

The goal of this section is to provide a clear understanding of the material rights and privileges of the securities issued by the company. Please provide the below information for each class of the company's equity securities, as applicable:

1. For common equity, describe any dividend, voting and preemption rights.

The holders of the Company's common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders, including the election of directors. Generally, all matters to be voted on by shareholders must be approved by a majority (or, in the case of election of directors, by a plurality) of the votes entitled to be cast by all shares of our common stock that are present in person or represented by proxy. Except as otherwise provided by law, amendments to the Company's Articles of Incorporation generally must be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by all outstanding shares of the Company's common stock.

The Company's Article of Incorporation does not provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors. Holders of the Company's common stock will be entitled to such cash dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board from funds available. Holders of the Company's common stock have no preemptive rights to purchase shares of the Company's common stock. The issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock are not subject to any redemption provisions and are not convertible into any other shares of the Company's capital stock. Upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of the Company's common stock will be entitled to receive pro rata all assets available for distribution to such holders.

The Company has never declared or paid any cash dividends on its common stock.

2. For preferred stock, describe the dividend, voting, conversion, and liquidation rights as well as redemption or sinking fund provisions.

Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. On January 3, 2013, the Company filed a Certificate of Designation with the State of Nevada to designate up to 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock as "Series A". The Series A holds no voting rights but is automatically convertible into shares of the Company's common stock immediately upon the effectiveness of a Certificate of Change filed by the Company to increase the number of shares of common stock the Company would become authorized to issue.

Series E Convertible Preferred Stock. On January 27, 2016, the Company filed a Certificate of Designation with the State of Nevada to designate up to 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock as "Series E". The Series E hold voting rights equal to twice the number of votes of all outstanding shares of capital stock such that the holders of outstanding shares of Series E shall always constitute 66.67% of the voting rights of the Corporation. All shares of Series E rank subordinate to all of the Company's common and preferred stock and are not entitled to participate in the distribution of the Company's assets upon liquidation.

3. Describe any other material rights of common or preferred stockholders.

None.

4. Describe any material modifications to rights of holders of the company's securities that have occurred over the reporting period covered by this report.

There have been no material modifications to rights of holders of the company's securities that occurred over the reporting period covered by this report.

3) Issuance History

The goal of this section is to provide disclosure with respect to each event that resulted in any changes to the total shares outstanding of any class of the issuer's securities in the past two completed fiscal years and any subsequent interim period.

Disclosure under this item shall include, in chronological order, all offerings and issuances of securities, including debt convertible into equity securities, whether private or public, and all shares, or any other securities or options to acquire such securities, issued for services. Using the tabular format below, please describe these events.

4) Issuer's Business, Products and Services

The purpose of this section is to provide a clear description of the issuer's current operations.
(Ensure that these descriptions are updated on the Company's Profile on www.otcmarkets.com).

A. Summarize the issuer's business operations (If the issuer does not have current operations, state "no operations")

Ongoing application development and marketing awareness for our RAADR parenting app.

B. List any subsidiaries, parent company, or affiliated companies.

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the parent company, Raadr, Inc., and its subsidiaries, Choice One Mobile, Inc., PITOOEY! Mobile, Inc. and Rockstar Digital, Inc.

C. Describe the issuer's principal products or services.

The Company offers a unique software tool in www.raadr.com that allows individuals to monitor social media activity online. As the digital world of the 21st Century continues to evolve, parents, guardians, and children are faced with challenges and threats not just in the real world, but in the omnipresent realm of social media as well. The Company, makers of the proprietary technology application RAADR© have developed a web-based tool that provides families with peace of mind when it comes to knowing that children are safe from bullying and predatory behavior unfortunately so prevalent today.

By customizing their own unique monitoring and alert settings, parents and guardians can be alerted when their children's Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and other pertinent social media platforms under scrutiny become posted with inappropriate language. By utilizing customized keywords chosen by the user that are added to an already existing database, parents and guardians can carry a sense of assuredness that the youth they love and are responsible for are safe and acting in a fun, yet appropriate manner.

5) Issuer's Facilities

The goal of this section is to provide a potential investor with a clear understanding of all assets, properties or facilities owned, used or leased by the issuer and the extent in which the facilities are utilized.

In responding to this item, please clearly describe the assets, properties or facilities of the issuer, give the location of the principal plants and other property of the issuer and describe the condition of the properties. If the issuer does not have complete ownership or control of the property (for example, if others also own the property or if there is a mortgage on the property), describe the limitations on the ownership.

If the issuer leases any assets, properties or facilities, clearly describe them as above and the terms of their leases.

The CEO provides the Company office space at 7950 E. Redfield Rd, Unit 210 Scottsdale, Arizona 85260.

6) Officers, Directors, and Control Persons

Using the table below, please provide information, as of the period end date of this report, regarding all officers and directors of the company, or any person that performs a similar function, regardless of the number of shares they own.

In addition, list all individuals or entities controlling 5% or more of any class of the issuer's securities.
If any insiders listed are corporate shareholders or entities, provide the name and address of the person(s) beneficially owning or controlling such corporate shareholders, or the name and contact information (City, State) of an individual representing the corporation or entity. Include Company Insiders who own any outstanding units or shares of any class of any equity security of the issuer.

The goal of this section is to provide investors with a clear understanding of the identity of all the persons or entities that are involved in managing, controlling or advising the operations, business development and disclosure of the issuer, as well as the identity of any significant or beneficial owners.

RAADR, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For The Six Months Ended June 30, 2024 and 2023
(unaudited)

Note 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Overview

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial statements ("U.S. GAAP"). Accordingly, they do not contain all information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for annual financial statements.

In the opinion of the Company's management, the accompanying unaudited financial statements contain all of the adjustments necessary (consisting only of normal recurring accruals) to present the financial position of the Company as of June 30, 2024 and the results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented. The results of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2024 are not necessarily indicative of the operating results for the full fiscal year or any future period.

Management acknowledges its responsibility for the preparation of the accompanying unaudited financial statements which reflect all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary in its opinion for a fair statement of its financial position and the results of its operations for the periods presented.

Note 2 - GOING CONCERN AND MANAGEMENT'S LIQUIDITY PLANS

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business.

As shown in the accompanying financial statements, as of June 30, 2024, the Company had cash on hand of $2,966 and working capital deficit of $3,583,789. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, the net income was $6,664,678 of which $5,460,066 was from the gain from write off of debt and a gain $1,683,018 was from the change in derivative liabilities and net cash used in operating activities was $180,648.

The Company has incurred significant losses since its inception and has not demonstrated an ability to generate sufficient revenues from the sales of its products or services to achieve profitable operations. There can be no assurance that profitable operations will ever be achieved, or if achieved, could be sustained on a continuing basis. In making this assessment we performed a comprehensive analysis of our current circumstances including: our financial position, our cash flows and cash usage forecasts for the twelve months ended December 31, 2024, and our current capital structure including equity-based instruments and our obligations and debts.

The Company expects to continue to incur significant losses from operations and have negative cash flows from operating activities for the near-term. These losses could be significant as the Company has not yet generated revenues, but has continuing operating expenses including, but not limited to, compensation costs, professional fees, software development costs and regulatory fees.

The Company's primary source of operating funds has been from cash proceeds from the sale of common stock and the issuances of promissory notes and other debt. The Company has experienced net losses from operations since inception, but it expects these conditions to improve in the future as it develops its business model. The Company had an accumulated deficit of $30,340,935 at June 30, 2024 and requires additional financing to fund future operations.

Management's current business plan is primarily to: (i) pursue additional capital raising opportunities, (ii) continue to explore and execute prospective partnering ; and (iii) identify unique market opportunities that represent potential positive short-term cash flow.

The Company's existence is dependent upon management's ability to develop profitable operations and to obtain additional funding sources. There can be no assurance that the Company's financing efforts will result in profitable operations or the resolution of the Company's liquidity problems.

If the Company does not obtain additional capital, the Company will be required to reduce the scope of its business development activities or cease operations. The Company continues to explore obtaining additional capital financing and the Company is closely monitoring its cash balances, cash needs, and expense levels.

These factors create substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within the twelve-month period subsequent to the date that these financial statements are issued. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

Note 3 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Business Segments and Concentrations

The Company uses the "management approach" to identify its reportable segments. The management approach requires companies to report segment financial information consistent with information used by management for making operating decisions and assessing performance as the basis for identifying the Company's reportable segments. The Company manages its business as one reportable segment.

Organization

Raadr, Inc. (the "Company") was organized March 29, 2006 (Date of Inception) under the laws of the State of Nevada, as White Dental Supply, Inc. On December 27, 2012, the Company formed two wholly owned subsidiaries, Choice One Mobile, Inc. and PITOOEY! Mobile, Inc., under the laws of the State of Nevada. On January 7, 2013, the Board of Directors of the Company authorized and a majority of the stockholders of the Company ratified, by written consent, resolutions to change the name of the Company to PITOOEY!, Inc. The name change was effective with the State of Nevada February 7, 2013. On February 6, 2013, the Company formed a wholly owned subsidiary, Rockstar Digital, Inc., under the laws of the State of Nevada. On October 31, 2013, the Company, as part of its settlement agreement with the employees of Rockstar Digital, ceased operations of its wholly owned subsidiary, Rockstar Digital, Inc. On July 29, 2015, the Company changed their name to Raadr, Inc. The name change was effective with the State of Nevada on July 29, 2015.

Business

The Company offers a unique software tool in www.raadr.com that allows individuals to monitor social media activity online. As the digital world of the 21st Century continues to evolve, parents, guardians, and children are faced with challenges and threats not just in the real world, but in the omnipresent realm of Social Media as well. PITOOEY! INC., makers of the proprietary technology application RAADR© have developed a web based tool that provides families with peace of mind when it comes to knowing that children are safe from bullying and predatory behavior unfortunately so prevalent today.
By customizing their own unique monitoring and alert settings, parents and guardians can be alerted when their children's Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and other pertinent social media platforms under scrutiny become posted with inappropriate language. By utilizing customized keywords chosen by the user that are added to an already existing database, parents and guardians can carry a sense of assuredness that the youth they love and are responsible for are safe and acting in a fun, yet appropriate manner.

Use of Estimates and Assumptions

Preparing financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates, and those estimates may be material.

Changes in estimates are recorded in the period in which they become known. The Company bases its estimates on historical experience and other assumptions, which include both quantitative and qualitative assessments that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Significant estimates during the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, include, allowance for doubtful accounts and other receivables, inventory reserves and classifications, valuation of loss contingencies, valuation of stock-based compensation, estimated useful lives related to property and equipment, impairment of intangible assets, implicit interest rate in right-of-use operating leases, uncertain tax positions, and the valuation allowance on deferred tax assets.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company has a limited operating history and has not generated revenues from our planned principal operations.
The Company's business and operations are sensitive to general business and economic conditions in the U.S. and worldwide. These conditions include short-term and long-term interest rates, inflation, fluctuations in debt and equity capital markets and the general condition of the U.S. and world economy. A host of factors beyond the Company's control could cause fluctuations in these conditions, including the political environment and acts or threats of war or terrorism. Adverse developments in these general business and economic conditions, including through recession, downturn or otherwise, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial condition and the results of its operations.

The Company currently has limited sales and marketing and/or distribution capabilities. The Company has limited experience in developing, training or managing a sales force and will incur substantial additional expenses if we decide to market any of our current and future products. Developing a marketing and sales force is also time consuming and could delay launch of our future products. In addition, the Company will compete with many companies that currently have extensive and well-funded marketing and sales operations. Our marketing and sales efforts may be unable to compete successfully against these companies. In addition, the Company has limited capital to devote sales and marketing.

The Company's industry is characterized by rapid changes in technology and customer demands. As a result, the Company's products may quickly become obsolete and unmarketable. The Company's future success will depend on its ability to adapt to technological advances, anticipate customer demands, develop new products and enhance our current products on a timely and cost-effective basis. Further, the Company's products must remain competitive with those of other companies with substantially greater resources. The Company may experience technical or other difficulties that could delay or prevent the development, introduction or marketing of new products or enhanced versions of existing products. Also, the Company may not be able to adapt new or enhanced products to emerging industry standards, and the Company's new products may not be favorably received. We also may not have the capital resources to further the development of existing and/or new ones

Cash

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid instruments with a maturity of six months or less at the purchase date and money market accounts to be cash equivalents.

At June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, the Company did not have any cash equivalents.

The Company is exposed to credit risk on its cash and cash equivalents in the event of default by the financial institutions to the extent account balances exceed the amount insured by the FDIC, which is $250,000.

At June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, the Company did not experience any losses on cash balances in excess of FDIC insured limits.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company accounts for financial instruments under Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements. ASC 820 provides a framework for measuring fair value and requires disclosures regarding fair value measurements. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, based on the Company's principal or, in absence of a principal, most advantageous market for the specific asset or liability.

The Company uses a three-tier fair value hierarchy to classify and disclose all assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis, as well as assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis, in periods subsequent to their initial measurement. The hierarchy requires the Company to use observable inputs when available, and to minimize the use of unobservable inputs, when determining fair value.

The three tiers are defined as follows:

- Level 1 – Observable inputs that reflect quoted market prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Level 2 – Observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are observable either directly or indirectly in the marketplace for identical or similar assets and liabilities; and

- Level 3 – Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market data, which require the Company to develop its own assumptions.

The determination of fair value and the assessment of a measurement's placement within the hierarchy requires judgment. Level 3 valuations often involve a higher degree of judgment and complexity. Level 3 valuations may require the use of various cost, market, or income valuation methodologies applied to unobservable management estimates and assumptions. Management's assumptions could vary depending on the asset or liability valued and the valuation method used. Such assumptions could include estimates of prices, earnings, costs, actions of market participants, market factors, or the weighting of various valuation methods. The Company may also engage external advisors to assist us in determining fair value, as appropriate. Although the Company believes that the recorded fair value of our financial instruments is appropriate, these fair values may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. The Company's financial instruments, including cash, accounts payable and accrued expenses, and convertible notes payable, are carried at historical cost. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, the derivative liabilities are considered a level 2 item; see Note 4.

ASC 825-10 "Financial Instruments" allows entities to voluntarily choose to measure certain financial assets and liabilities at fair value ("fair value option"). The fair value option may be elected on an instrument-by-instrument basis and is irrevocable unless a new election date occurs. If the fair value option is elected for an instrument, unrealized gains and losses for that instrument should be reported in earnings at each subsequent reporting date. The Company did not elect to apply the fair value option to any outstanding financial instruments.

Leases

We determine if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Operating leases are included in operating lease right-of-use ("ROU") assets, operating lease liabilities – current and operating lease liabilities - noncurrent on the balance sheets. The initial lease liability is equal to the future fixed minimum lease payments discounted using the Company's incremental borrowing rate, on a secured basis. The initial measurement of the right-of-use asset is equal to the initial lease liability plus any initial direct costs.

ROU assets represent our right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liabilities represent our obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Operating lease ROU assets and liabilities are recognized at commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term.

Derivative Liabilities

The Company analyzes all financial instruments with features of both liabilities and equity under FASB ASC Topic No. 480, ("ASC 480"), "Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity" and FASB ASC Topic No. 815, ("ASC 815") "Derivatives and Hedging". Derivative liabilities are adjusted to reflect fair value at each reporting period, with any increase or decrease in the fair value recorded in the results of operations (other income/expense) as a gain or loss on the change in fair value of derivative liabilities. The Company uses a binomial pricing model to determine fair value of these instruments.

Upon conversion or repayment of a debt instrument in exchange for shares of common stock, where the embedded conversion option has been bifurcated and accounted for as a derivative liability (generally convertible debt and warrants), the Company records the shares of common stock at fair value, relieves all related debt, derivative liabilities, and any remaining unamortized debt discounts, and where appropriate recognizes a net gain or loss on debt extinguishment (debt based derivative liabilities). In connection with any extinguishments of equity based derivative liabilities (typically warrants), the Company records an increase to additional paid-in capital for any remaining liability balance extinguished.

Equity instruments that are initially classified as equity that become subject to reclassification under ASC Topic 815 are reclassified to liabilities at the fair value of the instrument on the reclassification date.

At June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, the Company had $933,933 and $2,616,951, respectively of derivative liabilities.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income tax using the asset and liability method prescribed by ASC 740, "Income Taxes". Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates that will be in effect in the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. The Company records a valuation allowance to offset deferred tax assets if based on the weight of available evidence, it is more-likely-than-not that some portion, or all, of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The effect on deferred taxes of a change in tax rates is recognized as income or loss in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company follows the accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes using the provisions of ASC 740 "Income Taxes". Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not the position will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities.

At June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, the Company had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to uncertain income tax positions in other expense. No interest and penalties related to uncertain income tax positions were recorded for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising costs are included as a component of general and administrative expense in the statements of operations.

The Company recognized $0 in marketing and advertising costs during the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for our stock-based compensation under ASC 718 "Compensation – Stock Compensation" using the fair value-based method. Under this method, compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the value of the award and is recognized over the service period, which is usually the vesting period. This guidance establishes standards for the accounting for transactions in which an entity exchanges its equity instruments for goods or services. It also addresses transactions in which an entity incurs liabilities in exchange for goods or services that are based on the fair value of the entity's equity instruments or that may be settled by the issuance of those equity instruments.

The Company uses the fair value method for equity instruments granted to non-employees and uses the Black-Scholes model for measuring the fair value of options.

The fair value of stock-based compensation is determined as of the date of the grant or the date at which the performance of the services is completed (measurement date) and is recognized over the vesting periods.

When determining fair value of stock options, the Company considers the following assumptions in the Black-Scholes model:

- Exercise price,
- Expected dividends,
- Expected volatility,
- Risk-free interest rate; and
- Expected life of option

Basic and Diluted Earnings (Loss) per Share

Basic earnings per share is calculated using the two-class method and is computed by dividing net earnings available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding and certain other shares committed to be, but not yet issued. Net earnings available to common shareholders represent net earnings to common shareholders reduced by the allocation of earnings to participating securities. Losses are not allocated to participating securities. Common shares outstanding and certain other shares committed to be, but not yet issued, include restricted stock and restricted stock units ("RSUs") for which no future service is required.

Diluted earnings per share is calculated under both the two-class and treasury stock methods, and the more dilutive amount is reported. Diluted earnings per share is computed by taking the sum of net earnings available to common shareholders, dividends on preferred shares and dividends on dilutive mandatorily redeemable convertible preferred shares, divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding and certain other shares committed to be, but not yet issued, plus all dilutive common stock equivalents outstanding during the period (stock options, warrants, convertible preferred stock, and convertible debt).

Preferred shares and unvested share-based payment awards that contain nonforfeitable rights to dividends or dividend equivalents (whether paid or unpaid) are participating securities and, therefore, are included in the earnings allocation in computing earnings per share under the two-class method of earnings per share.

Unvested shares of common stock are excluded from the denominator in computing net loss per share.

Restricted stock and RSUs granted as part of share-based compensation contain nonforfeitable rights to dividends and dividend equivalents, respectively, and therefore, prior to the requisite service being rendered for the right to retain the award, restricted stock and RSUs meet the definition of a participating security. RSUs granted under an executive compensation plan are not considered participating securities as the rights to dividend equivalents are forfeitable.

Related Parties

Parties are considered to be related to the Company if the parties, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control, are controlled by, or are under common controlwith the Company. Related parties also include principal owners of the Company, its management, members of the immediate families of principal owners of the Company and its management and other parties with which the Company may deal with if one party controls or can significantly influence the management or operating policies of the other to an extent that one of the transacting parties might be prevented from fully pursuing its ownseparate interests.

On June 3, 2021 the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with and individual to be t President, Secretary, Treasurer, Interim Chief Financial Officer and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The term of the agreement is for three years with compensation at $180,000 per year.

Recent Pronouncements

Management does not believe that any other recently issued, but not yet effective, authoritative guidance, if currently adopted, would have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statement presentation or disclosures.

Convertible Promissory Notes

Commencing in December 2015 and through June 2018, the Company issued various convertible promissory notes to third parties in the amount of $276,838 to be used for operations. In addition, these convertible promissory notes include various default provisions in which increase the interest rate to rates ranging from 12% to 35% and at times the principal balance at rates ranging from 5% to 50%. Additionally, most convertible promissory notes have prepayment penalties in which range from 15% to 50%.

In April, 2020, a total of $90,000 in convertible notes were received. The notes bear an interest rate of 10% and mature on April 1, 2021. The notes are convertible into common stock based upon a 50% discount to the lowest traded price within the 20 trading days preceding the conversion. The note contains various prepayment and default provisions, similar to those disclosed above.

On July 23, 2020, the Company entered into a convertible note payable with a third party for proceeds of $25,000. The convertible note incurs interest at 20% per annum, is due 180 days from the date of issuance and is convertible upon issuance into shares of the Company's common stock at a 50% discount to the average closing bid price during the preceding 10 trading days. The note contains various prepayment and default provisions, similar to those disclosed above.

During the year ended December 31, 2021, the Company entered into convertible notes payable totaling $329,536. The terms of the notes range from six months to one year, interest ranging from 8-20% and conversion prices with discounts of up to 50% of the lowest bid prices in the ten days prior to conversion.

At various times during the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company entered into convertible notes payable totaling $150,900 receiving proceeds of $126,150. The terms of the notes range from six months to one year, interest ranging from 8% - $20% and conversion prices ranging from $0.00005 - $0.000025.

During the year ended December, 2023, the Company entered into convertible notes payable totaling $927,646 receiving proceeds of $927,646. The terms of the notes range from six months to one year, interest ranging from 8% - 20% and conversion prices with discounts of up to 65% of the average lowest bid prices in the ten days prior to conversion.

During the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company entered into two convertible notes payable totaling $21,250, receiving proceeds of $21,250. The terms of the notes are for six months, interest at 20% and conversion prices with discounts of up to 65% of the average lowest bid prices in the ten days prior to conversion.

In most cases, these convertible promissory notes are convertible upon issuance into a variable number of shares of common stock. Based on the requirements of ASC 815, we determined that a derivative liability was triggered upon issuance due to the variable conversion price. Using the Black-Scholes pricing model, we calculated the derivative liability upon issuance and recorded the fair market value of the derivative liability as a discount to the convertible promissory notes. When a derivative liability associated with a convertible note is in excess of the face value of the convertible note, the excess of fair value of derivative is charged to the statement of operations. The derivative liability is required to be revalued at each conversion event and at each reporting period. The Company doesn't account for the derivative liability until the convertible promissory note is convertible.

Derivative Liabilities

During the periods ended June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, the range of inputs used to calculate the derivative liability were as follows:

	June 30, 2024	December 31, 2023
Exercise price per share	$ 0.000065	$ 0.000358
Expected life (years)	1.00	0.75
Risk-free interest rate	5.09%	4.15%
Expected volatility	1701%	1701%

Debentures with Warrants

At various dates in 2014 and 2013, the Company issued debentures with warrants totaling $327,664. These debentures contain interest rates ranging from 8% to 20% and matured at various times from July 2014 through July 2015. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, these notes were in technical default. The warrants issued with these debentures contain an exercise price of $2,500 per share and expired three years from the date of issuance. As of June 30, 2024, the Company has determined that the debt exceeds the statute of limitations for collection and as such as written off the amount owed and it is included in the gain from write off of debt.

Notes Issued Under an Investment Agreement

On April 29, 2013, the Company entered into an Investment Agreement, in which an investor agreed to purchase debentures up to a total principal amount of $1,100,000. This commitment was increased to $2,000,000 based on an agreement modification entered into on December 2, 2013. Each debenture will accrue interest on the unpaid principal of each individual debenture at the rate of 8% per year from the date each debenture is issued until paid. Maturity dates of the debentures issued range from April 2014 through May 2015. In March 2021, the holder transferred $472,431 in principal and $299,456 in accrued interest to a third party for which the Company entered into a new convertible note, see above. As of December 31, 2023, respectively, the principal balance owed on these debentures was $69,333, plus accrued interest. As of June 30, 2024, the Company has determined that the debt exceeds the statute of limitations for collection and as such as written off the amount owed and it is included in the gain from write off of debt.

Promissory Notes

On July 25, 2012, the Company entered into an Intellectual Property Assignment Agreement. In accordance with the terms and conditions contained therein, the Company has agreed to pay the Seller $8,000 in two installments: The first payment of $4,000 was due July 25, 2013, and second payment of $4,000 was due July 25, 2014. The note is currently in default due to non-payment. During the year ended December 31, 2013, the Company issued a $50,000 promissory note bearing interest at 10% and due on May 31, 2014. The note is payable in monthly payments of principal and interest. As of December 31, 2023 the remaining principal balance of $10,606, is past due and in default. As of June 30, 2024, the Company has determined that the debt exceeds the statute of limitations for collection and as such as written off the amount owed and it is included in the gain from write off of debt.

In June 2015, the Company received $20,000 in proceeds from convertible notes payable. The notes are convertible, only at the Company's option, for a minimum of $40,000 in common stock based upon the closing stock price on the date of conversion for a period of one year. In addition, the notes incur interest at 12% per annum and is due June 1, 2016. Since the note is only convertible at the Company's option, the accounting for such will be triggered if the option is exercised.
On July 13, 2020, the Company entered into a $150,000 loan with the Small Business Administration. The note incurs interest at 3.75% per annum with principal and interest due over the period of thirty years. The note is secured by substantially all of the Company’s asset and requires the funds to be used for operational purposes. As of December 31, 2023, the remaining principal balance was $147,500. As of June 30, 2024, the Company has determined that the debt exceeds the statute of limitations for collection and as such as written off the amount owed and it is included in the gain from write off of debt.

During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company issued $209,145 in short-term promissory notes to various parties with interest rates ranging from 20%-50%. The Company also issued approximately $40,000 in short-term promissory notes to various third parties for expenses paid by the third parties on behalf of the Company. These mature on demand or on various dates from April 2022 through September 2022. During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company repaid approximately $37,558 of these promissory notes. As of June 30, 2024, the Company has determined that the debt exceeds the statute of limitations for collection and as such as written off the amount owed and it is included in the gain from write off of debt.

During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company also entered into two 18-month business loan agreements totaling $160,000. The loans require fixed weekly payments of principal and interest totaling $2,897 through November 2023 and have effective interest rates ranging from 34% to 63%. These loans are also secured by substantially all assets of the Company and have various default provisions as defined within the agreement, whereby the debt can be called immediately. As certain of these default provisions have been triggered, the full amount of the remaining principal balance of the loans of $145,942 as of December 31, 2023 has been presented as current although default has not been called by the lender. Net proceeds of $158,175 were received from these loans. An additional $8,000 was paid to a third party for brokering the deal. The on-issuance discount and additional fees paid were recorded as a discount to the loans and are being amortized over the life of the loan. During the year ended December 31, 2022, all of the discount was amortized to interest. As of June 30, 2024, the Company has determined that the debt exceeds the statute of limitations for collection and as such as written off the amount owed and it is included in the gain from write off of debt.

Note 6 - Commitments and Contingencies

Legal

On February 6, 2013, we formed a wholly owned subsidiary, Rockstar Digital, Inc. ("Rockstar"), under the laws of the State of Nevada. Rockstar was organized to specialize in internet branding through social media marketing, mobile marketing and iPhone ® app development Company. On October 31, 2013, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with certain former employees to assume responsibility for certain payroll taxes of Rockstar Digital, Inc. ("Rockstar") and assign its ownership of Mobile Application and Transition Services intellectual property rights to Rockstar. In addition, the Company agreed to not assert a claim against certain computer equipment (cost of $28,307) in use at Rockstar. The Company agreed to assume liability for any payroll taxes owed on payroll paid by the Company on behalf of Rockstar's employees. The Company estimated this liability at $30,000 which they have recorded in accrued liabilities as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively.

On July 29, 2014, a default judgment was issued against the Company in Circuit Court of the 11th Judicial Circuit in and for Miami-Dade County, Florida. This judgment stems from a legal filing by a consulting firm, with which the Company entered into an agreement for consulting services, on February 20, 2013. On September 25, 2013, the Company cancelled the agreement because it determined that services had not been provided by consulting firm, as promised per the agreed-upon contract terms. In November 2014, we entered into a settlement agreement whereby the Company shall pay the plaintiff $13,246, in monthly installments of $1,472. In addition, the Company issued options to purchase 20 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $8,750 expiring in two years. The Company valued the options on the date of issuance at $21,424 using the Black-Sholes model. The required payments on the settlement have not been made, however, the full amount of the liability has been recorded within accrued liabilities as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

On April 5, 2017, the Circuit Courts within the Twelfth Judicial Circuit of Florida entered an order approving the stipulation of the parties (the "Stipulation") in the matter of Northbridge Financial, Inc. ("NBF") v. Raadr Inc. Under the Stipulation, the Company agreed to issue, as settlement of liabilities owed by the Company to NBF in the aggregate amount of $272,250 (the "Claim Amount") and the following:

(a) In one or more tranches as necessary, 7,000 shares of common stock (the "Initial Issuance") and $27,500 in fees.

(b) Through the Initial Issuance and any required additional issuances, that number of shares of common stock with an aggregate value equal to the Purchase Price (defined under the Stipulation as the market price (defined as the lowest closing bid price of the Company's common stock during the valuation period set forth in the Stipulation) less the product of the Discount (equal to 50%) and the market price.

(c) If at any time during the valuation period the closing bid price of the Company's common stock is below 90% of the closing bid price on the day before an issuance date, the Company will immediately cause to be issued to BF such additional shares as may be required to affect the purposes of the Stipulation.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Stipulation, the number of shares beneficially owned by NBF will not exceed 4.99% of the Company's outstanding common stock.

In connection with the Settlement Shares, the Company relied on the exemption from registration provided by Section 3(a)(10) under the Securities Act.

The Company cannot reasonably estimate the amount of proceeds NBF expects to receive from the sale of these shares which be used to satisfy the liabilities. Thus, the Company accounts for the transaction as the shares are sold and the liabilities are settled. All amounts are included within accounts payable. Shares in which are held by NBF at each reporting period are accounted for as issued but not outstanding. During the year ended December 31, 2017, the Company issued 6,263 shares of common stock in settlement of $219,250 in accounts payable. The Company valued the common stock issued at $847,250 based upon the closing market price of the common stock on the settlement date. The difference between the fair market value of the common stock and accounts payable relieved of $628,000 was recorded as additional interest expense. As of December 31, 2023 amounts payable to NBF included within accounts payable were $53,000. As of June 30, 2024, the Company has determined that the debt exceeds the statute of limitations for collection and as such as written off the amount owed and it is included in the gain from write off of debt.

Note 7 - Stockholders' Deficit

Authorized Shares

As of June 30, 2024, the Company is authorized to issue 15,000,000,000 shares of $0.001 par value common stock and 101,000,000 shares of $0.001 par value preferred stock (of which 20,000,000 have been designated as Series A Preferred Stock, 1,000,000 have been designated as Series E Preferred Stock, and 8,000,000 shares of preferred stock available for the Company to assign or designate such provisions or preferences as may be assigned by the Board of Directors).
