Summit's Managing Director, Gower He, commented:

"The September Quarter was an outstanding period for Summit, ongoing exploration fieldwork in July uncovered previously unknown pegmatite outcrops and Garimpeiro workings, and we now realise that the system is substantially larger and more prospective than we had originally understood. New discoveries of pegmatites running parallel to known systems position us well for exciting future growth."

"Further assay results were highly encouraging, showing significant Partial Rare Earth Oxides from surface pegmatite hand samples. Notably, the acquisition of several tenements during August and September substantially expanded our holdings, further reinforcing our footprint in this highly prospective region."

"In September, we achieved a milestone with the best grades to date from hand sample results from our newly acquired Mining Lease at Equador North. The central and southern parts of Equador continue to return good results for both niobium and tantalum. Bulk sampling collection has been completed, and metallurgical testing of the will be completed in Australia, which we expect will greatly increase the prospectivity of our project."

"I would like to thank all shareholders for their continued support during the Quarter and we look forward to updating shareholders as we progress our projects towards the end of 2024."

Summit Minerals Limited (“Summit” or the “Company”) (ASX:SUM) is pleased to provide an overview of activities for the period ending 30 September 2024 (“Quarter”, “Reporting Period”).

Operations Report

Equador Project

Further Outstanding Assays Increases Prospectivity

During the Quarter, Summit announced that ongoing exploration field work uncovered previously unknown Pegmatite outcrops and Garimpeiro’s (artisanal workings) across the recently acquired Equador Nb-Ta-REE Project. In addition, further high-grade assay results continue to confirm the prospectivity of the project.

The addition of new pegmatite discoveries running parallel to the known pegmatites indicated a much larger prospective system than what was previously understood and has greatly increased the prospectivity of the Equador Project.

Further assay highlights including Partial Rare Earth Oxides (PREO) from surface pegmatite hand sample program includes:

- 19.95% Nb₂O₅, 38.70% Ta₂O₅ and 4090 ppm PREO (SUMSS043)
- 21.22% Nb₂O₅, 39.15% Ta₂O₅ and 4120 ppm PREO (SUMSS045)
- 18.80% Nb₂O₅, 40.312% Ta₂O₅ and 3900 ppm PREO (SUMSS046)

The increased knowledge base for the distribution, strike length and direction of the Niobium and Tantalum hosting pegmatites across the Equador Project has enabled a more detailed mapping of the interpreted Pegmatite trend lines.

Newly Acquired Mining Lease Returns Highest Grade Niobium Assays to Date

During the Quarter, the newly acquired Mining Lease at Equador North returned the highest-grade hand sample results to date, including:

- 64.61% Nb₂O₅, 10.56% Ta₂O₅ and 2,830 ppm PREO (SUMSS081)
- 62.42% Nb₂O₅, 11.82% Ta₂O₅ and 38,440 ppm PREO (SUMSS099)
- 61.09% Nb₂O₅, 6.86% Ta₂O₅ and 15,430 ppm PREO (SUMSS080)
- 50.47% Nb₂O₅, 12.00% Ta₂O₅ and 87,970 ppm PREO (SUMSS082)
- 45.89% Nb₂O₅, 19.36% Ta₂O₅ and 11,720 ppm PREO (SUMSS078)
- 44.60% Nb₂O₅, 21.10% Ta₂O₅ and 3,690 ppm PREO (SUMSS063)
- 43.97% Nb₂O₅, 23.38% Ta₂O₅ and 12,840 ppm PREO (SUMSS079)
- 42.09% Nb₂O₅, 7.19% Ta₂O₅ and 11,820 ppm PREO (SUMSS060)
- 36.64% Nb₂O₅, 15.98% Ta₂O₅ and 25,400 ppm PREO (SUMSS061)

Equador central and southern areas continued to show potential with further promising Niobium and Tantalum results:

- 35.52% Nb₂O₅, 30.57% Ta₂O₅ and 1,930 ppm PREO (SUMSS095)
- 23.94% Nb₂O₅, 20.41% Ta₂O₅ and 62,510 ppm PREO (SUMSS071)
- 20.10% Nb₂O₅, 39.64% Ta₂O₅ and 1,540 ppm PREO (SUMSS070)

Furthermore, metallurgical Test Work is underway to fast-track the pathway to production. The Bulk sampling program collected 14 individual samples of up to 80kg of material each, which were specifically taken from various locations and depositional terranes across both tenements at the Equador Project to form a representative sample base for the metallurgical test program.

The metallurgical test program will consist of an in-depth analysis of the samples at different size fractions to optimise the second phase of testing that will consist of generally followed industry standard separation techniques of spirals and shaker tables to create an economic concentrate containing both niobium and tantalum. This program is expected to take a few months to complete.

Previous artisanal alluvial mining in the area has shown a quality concentrate can be produced and sold internationally. Summit's metallurgical test program will aim to allow the Company to generate an indicative flow sheet to produce an economic concentrate, thereby validating the potential economic viability of the Project.

Acquisition of New Tenements

In August, Summit successfully acquired 6 new tenements, in the Paraiba and Rio Norte States of Brazil, increasing its land holding in the region by 1,555 Hectares.

The newly acquired land is situated directly north and south of the Equador Niobium and Tantalum Project, as well as west of the Juazeirinho Niobium Project. These tenements have the potential to host pegmatites with geological similarities to the existing area (refer to Figure 3 below).

28 October 2024

Once formal Government approval has been received, Summit intends to commence initial exploration works on the tenements immediately thereafter.

Tenement 848283/1999 ("Equador North") is located directly north of the current Equador tenement with the recently discovered western pegmatite trend lines expected to continue into the new tenement extending the prospective strike length of the Equador Project.

In September, Summit further expanded the Equador Niobium and Tantalum Project with the acquisition of a new strategic tenement.

The newly acquired land includes one 2km² tenement (848158/2010), situated directly east and north of the Equador Niobium and Tantalum Project. The tenement has existing outcropping pegmatites plus several small-scale artisanal mines that are known to be associated with Niobium and Tantalum occurrences.

The "Equador North" area consists of an existing granted mining lease with previous feldspar mining activities having been conducted on it. Feldspar is the primary host rock of the Niobium and Tantalum at the Equador Project and when the feldspar contains these minerals it is normally stockpiled as waste as clean feldspar is preferred for the ceramics industry. The large feldspar dominant pegmatites seen at the Equador Project are zonal with a clean feldspar core and a thick mineralised zone on each outer contact margin.

LiDAR Survey Further Enhances Prospectivity

During the Reporting Period, Summit announced completion of the Light Detection and Ranging (“LiDAR”) imaging survey across its 100% owned Equador and Juazeirinho Niobium and Rare Earth Elements (“REE”) Projects.

The LiDAR survey has enabled the company to view the tenement areas in very high-resolution imagery that allows detailed mapping and identification of the pegmatite trends that span across the tenements. The LiDAR surveys have also provided a detailed 3D topography image of the landforms and is sensitive enough to identify historic artisanal workings that are used to not only assist in the mapping of the pegmatite trends, but also provide easy access to sample the pegmatite at depth.

Preliminary interpretation of the LiDAR imagery has already highlighted additional pegmatite outcrops that run across the Equador Project, in addition to historic artisanal working locations that had not been previously identified. Detailed mapping of the Project areas continues.

The LiDAR survey has already generated multiple new exploration targets from the preliminary interpretation and these new areas have been forwarded on to the ground team to investigate and sample. This imagery plus the topography model will provide a highly detailed base that we will leverage to finalise the upcoming bulk sampling and drilling programs, for which the permitting process is nearing completion. While this process continues, the Company is performing other exploration and mapping work in parallel.
