

- Translation -

AAI 011 - 2024

12 November 2024

Subject Warning the public not to fall for false claims of using Asian Alliance International PLC. name, Image (logo) including images of the directors impersonating investor to invest through fake websites

Attention Director and Manager
The Stock Exchange of Thailand

As it appears in social media that Asian Alliance International Public Company Limited (“the Company”), the logo of the Company, and directors’ images have been used to impersonating investors on websites or social media such as Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, and others to invest in the Company, the Company has found that those are fake Websites used to commit fraud.

Therefore, the Company would like to notify the public not to fall for those false claims. Additionally, the Company would like to inform that the Company has no involvement in any of the above activities and will take legal action against those who falsely claim and the publishers according to the law.

In this regard, everyone is requested to follow public relations information or news from the Company's official website www.asianalliance.co.th only.

Please be informed accordingly.

Respectfully yours,
Investors’ Relation Department