Item 1. Text of Proposed Rule Change

a) BOX Exchange LLC (the "Exchange") proposes to amend the Fee Schedule on the BOX Options Market LLC ("BOX") facility. While changes to the fee schedule pursuant to this proposal will be effective upon filing, the changes will become operative on June 1, 2023. The text of the proposed changes is attached as Exhibit 5.

- b) Not applicable to application of any other Exchange rule.
- c) Not applicable.

Item 2. Procedures of the Self-Regulatory Organization

The proposed rule change was approved by officers of the Exchange pursuant to authority delegated by the Exchange Board of Directors ("Board"). No further action is necessary for the filing of the proposed rule change.

Please refer questions and comments on the proposed rule change to Alanna Barton, General Counsel for the Exchange, at (617) 235-2239.

Item 3. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

a) Purpose

The Exchange recently adopted a new data product on BOX known as the Intraday Open-Close Data Report. When the Exchange established the Intraday Open-Close Data Report data, it did not include ad-hoc requests for the Intraday Open-Close historical data. Since establishing the Intraday Open-Close Data Report, Participants and non-Participants have expressed interest in ad-hoc historical requests for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report. As such, the Exchange now proposes to offer ad-hoc historical requests for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report and adopt fees for this data.

Specifically, the Exchange proposes to assess a $1,000 fee per request per month for the historical data.

Similar to the ad-hoc requests for the End-of-Day Open Close Data Report, ad-hoc requests for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report can be for any number of months beginning with January 2018 for which the data is available.² The proposed fee will apply to both Participants and non-Participants. The Exchange notes that another exchange provides similar data that may be purchased on an ad-hoc basis and is similarly priced.³

By way of background, the Exchange currently offers the Intraday Open-Close

Data Report to Participants and non-Participants, which is a volume summary file for trading activity on BOX. The Exchange notes that the file contains proprietary BOX trade data and does not include trade data from any other exchanges. It is also a historical data product and not a real time data feed. The Intraday Open-Close Data Report is produced and updated every 10 minutes during the trading day. Data is captured in "snapshots" taken every 10 minutes throughout the trading day and available to subscribers within five minutes of the conclusion of each 10-minute period. Each update will represent combined data captured from the current "snapshot" and all previous "snapshots" and thus will provide open-close data on an aggregate basis. The Intraday Open-Close Data

² For example, a Participant or non-Participant that requests historical Intraday Open-Close Data for the months of January 2018 and February 2018, would be assessed a total of $2,000. Participants and non-Participants are permitted to make ad-hoc requests for any number of days within a month for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report. For example, a Participant or non-Participant may make an ad-hoc request for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report from May 1st to May 20th. The accounting will be prorated based on the number of trading days in the month versus the number of trading days received. The Participant or non-Participant will be charged for the request on a prorated basis. The Exchange is proposing to allow ad-hoc requests for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report for any month starting January 2018, as this is what is currently offered for End-of-Day historical data requests. The Exchange notes that it may make historical data prior to January 2018 available in the future and that such historical data would be available to all Participants or non-Participants.

³ See Miami International Securities Exchange, LLC ("MIAX") Fee Schedule. MIAX assesses $1,000 per request per month for the Intra-Day Ad-Hoc Request for historical data.

Report aggregates the volume by origin (Public Customer, Professional Customer, Broker Dealer, and Market Maker), buying/selling, and opening/closing criteria. Public Customer and Professional Customer volume is further broken down into trade size buckets (less than 100 contracts, 100-199 contracts, greater than 199 contracts). Ad-hoc requests for Intraday Open-Close Data Report will provide the same information for a requested historical time period for any number of months beginning with January 2018.⁴

This product is offered to Participants on a completely voluntary basis in that the Exchange is not required by any rule or regulation to make this data available and potential subscribers may purchase the Intraday Open-Close Data Report or make ad-hoc requests for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report only if they voluntarily choose to do so. It is a business decision of each potential subscriber whether to subscribe to the Intraday Open-Close Data Report and/or make ad-hoc requests for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report.

b) Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that the proposal is consistent with the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act,⁵ in general, and Section 6(b)(4) and 6(b)(5) of the Act,⁶ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among BOX Participants and other persons using its facilities and does not unfairly discriminate between customers, issuers, brokers or dealers. The Exchange also believes that its proposed changes to its Fee Schedule concerning fees for the Intraday Ad-hoc Open-Close Data Report is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act,⁷ in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(4) of the Act,⁸ in particular, in that it is an equitable allocation of dues, fees and other charges among its Participants and other recipients of Exchange data.

In adopting Regulation NMS, the Commission granted self-regulatory organizations ("SROs") and broker-dealers increased authority and flexibility to offer new and unique market data to the public. It was believed that this authority would expand the amount of data available to consumers, and also spur innovation and competition for the provision of market data. Particularly, the Intraday Open-Close Data Report further broadens the availability of U.S. option market data to investors consistent with the principles of Regulation NMS. The data product also promotes increased transparency through the dissemination of the Intraday Ad-hoc Open-Close Data Report. Particularly, information regarding opening and closing activity across different option series during the trading day may indicate investor sentiment, which may allow market participants to make better informed trading decisions throughout the day. Subscribers to the data may also be able to enhance their ability to analyze option trade and volume data and create and test trading models and analytical strategies. The Exchange believes the Intraday Open-Close Data Report provides a valuable tool that subscribers can use to gain comprehensive insight into the trading activity in a particular series, but also emphasizes such data is not necessary for trading and completely optional. Moreover, another exchange offers a similar data product. This proposal seeks to respond to Participant requests for ad-hoc Intraday Open-Close data and adopt a fee of $1,000 per request per month for such requests.

The Exchange operates in a highly competitive environment. Indeed, there are currently 16 registered options exchanges that trade options. Based on publicly available information, for the month of March 2023, no single options exchange had more than approximately 16% of the equity options market share and the Exchange represented only approximately 6.19% of the equity options market share for the month of May 2023. 10 The Commission has repeatedly expressed its preference for competition over regulatory intervention in determining prices, products, and services in the securities markets. Particularly, in Regulation NMS, the Commission highlighted the importance of market forces in determining prices and SRO revenues and, also, recognized that current regulation of the market system "has been remarkably successful in promoting market competition in its broader forms that are most important to investors and listed companies."11 Making similar data products available to market participants fosters competition in the marketplace, and constrains the ability of exchanges to charge supracompetitive fees. In the event that a market participant views one exchange's data product as more or less attractive than the competition they can and do switch between similar products.

The Exchange believes the proposed fee is reasonable as the proposed fee is similar to a fee currently assessed by another exchange that provides a similar data product. ¹² Further, the Exchange notes that an ad-hoc request for the Intraday Day Open-Close Data Report is entirely optional and if a market participant views another exchange's data as more attractive than the proposed Intraday Open-Close data product, then such market participant can choose not to purchase BOX's data and instead purchase another exchange's data product, which offer similar data points, albeit based on that other market's trading activity.

The Exchange also believes that its proposal to respond to market participant requests and adopt fees for ad-hoc requests for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report is reasonable as this would further support the current offering of the Intraday Open-Close Data Report that is designed to aid investors by providing insight into trading on BOX. The proposed ad-hoc requests for Intraday Open-Close Data Report would provide interested options market participants with valuable information about opening and closing transactions executed on BOX, similar to other historical trade data products offered by competing options exchanges. In turn, this data would assist market participants in gauging investor sentiment and trading activity, resulting in potentially better-informed trading decisions. As noted above, users may also use such data to create and test trading models and analytical strategies.

Providing market data, such as the Intraday Open-Close Data Report, is also a means by which exchanges compete to attract business. Subscribers that receive the Intraday Open-Close Data Report in response to an ad hoc request, may use such data to evaluate the usefulness of BOX's Intraday Open-Close Data Report and decide, based on that data, whether to subscribe to the Intraday Open-Close Data Report on a monthly basis. To the extent that the Exchange is successful in attracting subscribers for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report through this proposal, it may earn trading revenues and further enhance the value of its data products. If the market deems the proposal to be unfair or inequitable, firms can diminish or discontinue their use of the data and/or avail themselves of similar products offered by other exchanges. 13

The Exchange believes the proposed fee is equitable and not unfairly discriminatory as the fee would apply equally to all users who choose to purchase the historical data. The Exchange's proposed fee would not differentiate between subscribers that purchase the ad-hoc Intraday Open-Close Data Report and is set at a modest level that would allow any interested Participant or non-Participant to purchase such data based on their business needs.

The Exchange reiterates that the decision as to whether or not to purchase the adhoc Intraday Open-Close Data Report is entirely optional for all potential subscribers.

Indeed, no market participant is required to purchase the ad-hoc Intraday Open-Close Data Report, and the Exchange is not required to make the ad-hoc Intraday Open-Close Data Report available to all investors. Rather, the Exchange is voluntarily making the adhoc Intraday Open-Close Data Report available, as requested by customers, and market participants may choose to receive (and pay for) this data based on their own business needs. Potential purchasers may request the data at any time if they believe it to be valuable or may decline to purchase such data.

Item 4. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. Rather, the Exchange believes that the proposal will promote competition by permitting the Exchange to sell a data product similar to those offered by another competitor options

¹³ Id.

exchange. ¹⁴ The Exchange also does not believe the proposed fees would cause any unnecessary or in appropriate burden on intermarket competition as other exchanges are free to introduce their own comparable data product and lower their prices to better compete with the Exchange's offering. The Exchange does not believe the proposed rule change would cause any unnecessary or inappropriate burden on intramarket competition.

Particularly, the proposed fee applies uniformly to any purchaser, in that it does not differentiate between subscribers that purchase Intraday Open-Close Data Report. The proposed fees are set at a modest level that would allow any interested Participant or non-Participant to purchase such data based on their business needs.

Finally, the Exchange notes that it operates in a highly competitive market in which market participants can readily favor competing venues. In such an environment, the Exchange must continually review, and consider adjusting, its fees to remain competitive with other exchanges. For the reasons described above, the Exchange believes that the proposed rule change reflects this competitive environment.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange recently adopted a new data product on BOX known as the Intraday Open-Close Data Report. It is a business decision of each potential subscriber whether to subscribe to the Intraday Open-Close Data Report and/or make ad-hoc requests for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that the proposal is consistent with the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act, 9 in general, and Section 6(b)(4) and 6(b)(5) of the Act, 10 in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among BOX Participants and other persons using its facilities and does not unfairly discriminate between customers, issuers, brokers or dealers. The Exchange also believes that its proposed changes to its Fee Schedule concerning fees for the Intraday Ad-hoc Open-Close Data Report is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act, 11 in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(4) of the Act, 12 in particular, in that it is an equitable allocation of dues, fees and other charges among its Participants and other recipients of Exchange data.

In adopting Regulation NMS, the Commission granted self-regulatory organizations ("SROs") and broker-dealers increased authority and flexibility to offer new and unique market data to the public. It was believed that this authority would expand the amount of data available to consumers, and also spur innovation and competition for the provision of market data. Particularly, the Intraday Open-Close Data Report further broadens the availability of U.S. option market data to investors consistent with the principles of Regulation NMS. The data product also promotes increased transparency through the dissemination of the Intraday Ad-hoc Open-Close Data Report. Particularly, information regarding opening and closing activity across different option series during the trading day may indicate investor sentiment, which may allow market participants to make better informed trading decisions throughout the day. Subscribers to the data may also be able to enhance their ability to analyze option trade and volume data and create and test trading models and analytical strategies. The Exchange believes the Intraday Open-Close Data Report provides a valuable tool that subscribers can use to gain comprehensive insight into the trading activity in a particular series, but also emphasizes such data is not necessary for trading and completely optional. Moreover, another exchange offers a similar data product. 13 This proposal seeks to respond to Participant requests for ad-hoc Intraday Open-Close data and adopt a fee of $1,000 per request per month for such requests.

The Exchange operates in a highly competitive environment. Indeed, there are currently 16 registered options exchanges that trade options. Based on publicly available information, for the month of March 2023, no single options exchange had more than approximately 16% of the equity options market share and the Exchange represented only approximately 6.19% of the equity options market share for the month of May 2023. ¹⁴ The Commission has repeatedly expressed its preference for competition over regulatory intervention in determining prices, products, and services in the securities markets. Particularly, in Regulation NMS, the Commission highlighted the importance of market forces in determining prices and SRO revenues and, also, recognized that current regulation of the market system "has been remarkably successful in promoting market competition in its broader forms that are most important to investors and listed companies." ¹⁵ Making similar data products available to market participants fosters competition in the marketplace, and constrains the ability of exchanges to charge supracompetitive fees. In the event that a market participant views one exchange's data product as more or less attractive than the competition they can and do switch between similar products.

The Exchange believes the proposed fee is reasonable as the proposed fee is similar to a fee currently assessed by another exchange that provides a similar data product. ¹⁶ Further, the Exchange notes that an ad-hoc request for the Intraday Day Open-Close Data Report is entirely optional and if a market participant views another exchange's data as more attractive than the proposed Intraday Open-Close data product, then such market participant can choose not to purchase BOX's data and instead purchase another exchange's data product, which offer similar data points, albeit based on that other market's trading activity.

The Exchange also believes that its proposal to respond to market participant requests and adopt fees for ad-hoc requests for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report is reasonable as this would further support the current offering of the Intraday Open-Close Data Report that is designed to aid investors by providing insight into trading on BOX. The proposed ad-hoc requests for Intraday Open-Close Data Report would provide interested options market participants with valuable information about opening and closing transactions executed on BOX, similar to other historical trade data products offered by competing options exchanges. In turn, this data would assist market participants in gauging investor sentiment and trading activity, resulting in potentially better-informed trading decisions. As noted above, users may also use such data to create and test trading models and analytical strategies.

Providing market data, such as the Intraday Open-Close Data Report, is also a means by which exchanges compete to attract business. Subscribers that receive the Intraday Open-Close Data Report in response to an ad hoc request, may use such data to evaluate the usefulness of BOX's Intraday Open-Close Data Report and decide, based on that data, whether to subscribe to the Intraday Open-Close Data Report on a monthly basis. To the extent that the Exchange is successful in attracting subscribers for the Intraday Open-Close Data Report through this proposal, it may earn trading revenues and further enhance the value of its data products. If the market deems the proposal to be unfair or inequitable, firms can diminish or discontinue their use of the data and/or avail themselves of similar products offered by other exchanges.¹⁷

The Exchange believes the proposed fee is equitable and not unfairly discriminatory as the fee would apply equally to all users who choose to purchase the historical data. The Exchange's proposed fee would not differentiate between subscribers that purchase the ad-hoc Intraday Open-Close Data Report and is set at a modest level that would allow any interested Participant or non-Participant to purchase such data based on their business needs.

The Exchange reiterates that the decision as to whether or not to purchase the ad-hoc Intraday Open-Close Data Report is entirely optional for all potential subscribers. Indeed, no market participant is required to purchase the ad-hoc Intraday Open-Close Data Report, and the Exchange is not required to make the ad-hoc Intraday Open-Close Data Report available to all investors. Rather, the Exchange is voluntarily making the ad-hoc Intraday Open-Close Data Report available, as requested by customers, and market participants may choose to receive (and pay for) this data based on their own business needs. Potential purchasers may request the data at any time if they believe it to be valuable or may decline to purchase such data.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. Rather, the Exchange believes that the proposal will promote competition by permitting the Exchange to sell a data product similar to those offered by another competitor options exchange. ¹⁸ The Exchange also does not believe the proposed fees would cause any unnecessary or in appropriate burden on intermarket competition as other exchanges are free to introduce their own comparable data product and lower their prices to better compete with the Exchange's offering. The Exchange does not believe the proposed rule change would cause any unnecessary or inappropriate burden on intramarket competition. Particularly, the proposed fee applies uniformly to any purchaser, in that it does not differentiate between subscribers that purchase Intraday Open-Close Data Report. The proposed fees are set at a modest level that would allow any interested Participant or non-Participant to purchase such data based on their business needs.

Finally, the Exchange notes that it operates in a highly competitive market in which market participants can readily favor competing venues. In such an environment, the Exchange must continually review, and consider adjusting, its fees to remain competitive with other exchanges. For the reasons described above, the Exchange believes that the proposed rule change reflects this competitive environment.
