Milan Laser Hair Removal Bares Its Brand at Miami Swim Week® The Shows

Models and fashionistas alike learned about laser hair removal and celebrated beauty in all forms.

Omaha, NE (July 8, 2024) — Nothing complements a swimsuit quite like smooth skin. That's why Milan Laser Hair Removal was a natural pick to sponsor Miami Swim Week® The Shows, the largest global swim festival with over 50 events, 100+ designers, and 20+ satellite locations.

Bold, vibrant colors, artful innovations, and captivating cut-outs dominated the runways during the four-day event that featured top and emerging global swimwear designers. To celebrate, Milan Laser hosted exclusive events and giveaways in its Bare Bungalow throughout the event.

Influencers and fashion editors dropped by Milan's Bare Bungalow for photo ops, meet and greets with brand ambassadors, and a chance to win free unlimited laser hair removal for life. Models got to pop in between shows, and attendees cooled down while learning about laser hair removal and scoring some coveted Milan swag.

Milan Laser was in the spotlight during the event's Sunset Soiree as well as NEXT Impact Panel, "Transforming Your Brand by Creating a Culture Around Wellness and Values", featuring Milan's Chief Marketing Officer Sheila Ullery.

Milan Laser is the go-to destination for anyone wanting the best swimsuit accessory — hair-free skin! Plus, every purchase includes unlimited treatments for life with no touch-up fees, ever. With over 350 locations nationwide, its expert medically-backed team is dedicated to providing safe, effective treatments for all skin tones.

"At Milan Laser, we help our clients become the most confident versions of themselves," said Ullery. "Milan is excited to be part of an event that lets everyone experience beauty and confidence."

Core to Milan Laser's brand, Miami Swim Week® celebrates diversity and inclusion. All body types and backgrounds are encouraged to look and feel their best with nothing standing in their way—especially not unwanted hair!
