FROST INSURANCE NAMES NEW TARRANT COUNTY MARKET PRESIDENT

FORT WORTH, Jan. 3, 2022 — Frost Insurance announced today that Jim Dickenson, who has been with the company 17 years, has been named the market president for the Tarrant County region. Dickenson has served as a senior vice president with Frost Insurance in Tarrant County.

As market president, Dickenson will be responsible for developing new client relationships and managing Frost Insurance's existing business, leading the company's efforts to become the premier insurance and risk management provider in the Tarrant County area. Prior to joining Frost insurance in 2004, Dickenson spent 16 years in the claims and underwriting division at Chubb.

Dickenson will work with the current market president, John Wilson, as he transitions into a much-deserved retirement. Wilson has been with Frost insurance since 2001, when he sold his insurance agency, established in 1981, to Frost.
