Note 1 — Organization and Basis of Presentation

Noble Corporation plc, a public limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales (“Noble”, the “Company”, or “we”), is a leading offshore drilling contractor for the oil and gas industry. We provide contract drilling services to the international oil and gas industry with our global fleet of mobile offshore drilling units. Noble and its predecessors have been engaged in the contract drilling of oil and gas wells since 1921. As of the filing date of this report, our fleet of 31 drilling rigs consisted of 18 floaters and 13 jackups.

We report our contract drilling operations as a single reportable segment, Contract Drilling Services, which reflects how we manage our business. The mobile offshore drilling units comprising our offshore rig fleet operate in a global market for contract drilling services and are often redeployed to different regions due to changing demands of our customers, which consist primarily of large, integrated, independent and government-owned or controlled oil and gas companies throughout the world.

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of Noble have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the US Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as they pertain to Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Accordingly, certain information and disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. The unaudited financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis and reflect all adjustments that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair statement of the financial position and results of operations for the interim periods, on a basis consistent with the annual audited consolidated financial statements. All such adjustments are of a recurring nature. The December 31, 2023, Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet presented herein is derived from the December 31, 2023, audited consolidated financial statements. These interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023, filed by Noble. The results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

Note 2 — Acquisitions

Proposed Merger with Diamond Offshore Drilling

On June 9, 2024, Noble entered into an agreement and plan of merger (the “Diamond Merger Agreement”) with Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc. (“Diamond”), Dolphin Merger Sub 1, Inc., and Dolphin Merger Sub 2, Inc., under which Noble will acquire Diamond in a stock plus cash transaction (the “Diamond Transaction”). Pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Diamond Merger Agreement, Diamond shareholders will receive 0.2316 shares of Noble, plus cash consideration of $5.65 per share for each share of Diamond stock, representing a premium of 11.4% to Diamond’s closing share price on June 7, 2024. Upon closing of the Diamond Transaction, Diamond shareholders are expected to own approximately 14.5% of Noble’s outstanding shares. Noble intends to fund the cash portion of the Diamond Transaction through new debt financing, which Noble has secured through a $600.0 million committed bridge financing facility.

The Diamond Transaction has been unanimously approved by the board of directors of each company. The Diamond Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights, including, but not limited to, each party’s right to terminate the Diamond Merger Agreement in the event that the Diamond Transaction has not been consummated on or before June 9, 2025 (the “End Date”); except that the End Date will automatically be successively extended to December 9, 2025, and June 9, 2026, if all required applicable regulatory approvals have not been obtained by what would otherwise be the End Date but all other conditions to closing have been satisfied. At 11:59 ET on July 24, 2024, the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 expired in connection with the pending merger. Completion of the Diamond Transaction is subject to the satisfaction of the remaining customary closing conditions, including approval by Diamond’s stockholders and the receipt of informal clearance by the Australian Competition & Consumer Commission. A special meeting of Diamond stockholders to vote on the transaction is currently scheduled for 8:30 a.m. CDT on August 27, 2024.

Note 3 — Accounting Pronouncements

Accounting Standards Adopted

There have been no new accounting standards adopted during the current quarter.

NOBLE CORPORATION plc AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unless otherwise indicated, dollar and share amounts in tables are in thousands, except per share data)

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2023-09 ("ASU 2023-09"), Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures, which requires, among other things, the following for public business entities: (i) enhanced disclosures of specific categories of reconciling items included in the rate reconciliation, as well as additional information for any of these items meeting certain qualitative and quantitative thresholds, (ii) disclosure of the nature, effect, and underlying causes of each individual reconciling item disclosed in the rate reconciliation and the judgment used in categorizing them if not otherwise evident, and (iii) enhanced disclosures for income taxes paid, which includes federal, state, and foreign taxes, as well as for individual jurisdictions over a certain quantitative threshold. The amendments in ASU 2023-09 eliminate the requirement to disclose the nature and estimate of the range of the reasonably possible change in unrecognized tax benefits for the 12 months after the balance sheet date. The provisions of ASU 2023-09 are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2024; early adoption is permitted. The Company continues to evaluate the potential impact of this pronouncement.

In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-07 ("ASU 2023-07"), Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures, which requires, among other things, the following: (i) enhanced disclosures about significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker and included in a segment's reported measure of profit or loss, (ii) disclosure of the amount and description of the composition of other segment items, as defined in ASU 2023-07, by reportable segment, and (iii) reporting the disclosures about each reportable segment's profit or loss and assets on an annual and interim basis. The provisions of ASU 2023-07 are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024; early adoption is permitted. The Company continues to evaluate the potential impact of this pronouncement.

As of June 30, 2024, Noble had approximately 142.9 million A ordinary shares, par value $0.00001 per share (“Ordinary Shares”) outstanding as compared to approximately 140.8 million Ordinary Shares outstanding at December 31, 2023. In addition, as of June 30, 2024, 1.0 million Tranche 1 Warrants, 1.1 million Tranche 2 Warrants, and 2.8 million Tranche 3 Warrants (each as defined herein) were outstanding and exercisable. We also have 5.2 million Ordinary Shares authorized and reserved for issuance pursuant to equity awards under the Noble Corporation plc 2022 Long-Term Incentive Plan.

Our most recent quarterly dividend payment to shareholders, totaling approximately $57.2 million (or $0.40 per share), was declared on May 6, 2024, and paid on June 27, 2024, to shareholders of record at close of business on June 6, 2024.

On June 10, 2024, Noble’s Board of Directors declared an interim quarterly cash dividend on our Ordinary Shares of $0.50 per share for the third quarter of 2024. This dividend is in addition to the $0.40 per share dividend previously announced which was paid on June 27, 2024, to shareholders of record at close of business on June 6, 2024. The $0.50 dividend is expected to be paid on September 26, 2024, to shareholders of record at close of business on September 12, 2024. As of June 30, 2024, we had dividends accrued of $71.5 million included in “Other current liabilities.”

The declaration and payment of dividends require authorization of the Board of Directors, provided that such dividends on issued share capital may be paid only out of the Company’s “distributable reserves” as determined by reference to relevant statutory accounts in accordance with English law. The Company is not permitted to pay dividends out of share capital, which includes share premiums. The payment of future dividends will depend on our results of operations, financial condition, cash requirements, future business prospects, the availability of sufficient distributable reserves, contractual and indenture restrictions, and other factors deemed relevant by the Board of Directors.

Share Repurchases

Under law, the Company is only permitted to purchase its own Ordinary Shares by way of an “off-market purchase” pursuant to a contract approved by shareholders. Such purchases may be paid for only out of Noble’s “distributable reserves” as determined by reference to relevant statutory accounts in accordance with law. As of the date of this report, we have shareholder authority to repurchase up to 15% per annum of the issued share capital of the Company as of the beginning of each fiscal year for a five-year period (subject to an overall aggregate maximum of 20,601,161 Ordinary Shares). During the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, we did not repurchase any of our Ordinary Shares. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, we repurchased 1.6 million and 1.8 million of our Ordinary Shares, respectively, which were subsequently cancelled.

Warrants

The tranche 1 warrants (the “Tranche 1 Warrants”) are exercisable for one Ordinary Share per warrant at an exercise price of $19.27 per warrant, the tranche 2 warrants (the “Tranche 2 Warrants”) are exercisable for one Ordinary Share per warrant at an exercise price of $23.13 per warrant, and the tranche 3 warrants (the “Tranche 3 Warrants”) are exercisable for one Ordinary Share per warrant at an exercise price of $124.40 per warrant.

Note 5 — Property and Equipment

Property and equipment, at cost, for Noble consisted of the following:

	June 30, 2024	December 31, 2023
Drilling equipment and facilities	$ 4,471,409	$ 4,338,229
Construction in progress	337,876	210,759
Other	44,713	42,948
Property and equipment, at cost	$ 4,853,998	$ 4,591,936

Capital additions, including capitalized interest, during the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, totaled $151.7 million and $115.9 million, respectively, and during the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, totaled $266.6 million and $170.9 million, respectively.

During the second quarter of 2024, we sold the Noble Explorer for total proceeds of $25.0 million, $21.5 million of which was received in the fourth quarter of 2023, resulting in a pre-tax gain of $17.4 million.

Note 6 — Debt

Amended and Restated Senior Secured Revolving Credit Agreement

In April 2023, Noble entered into the Amended and Restated Senior Secured Revolving Credit Agreement, dated April 18, 2023, and as amended on June 24, 2024 (the “2023 Revolving Credit Agreement”), by and among Noble Finance II LLC (“Noble Finance II”), Noble International Finance Company, and Noble Drilling A/S, as borrowers, the lenders and issuing banks party thereto from time to time and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, collateral agent, and security trustee (the 2023 Revolving Credit Agreement and the facility thereunder, the “2023 Revolving Credit Facility”). The 2023 Revolving Credit Facility provides for commitments of $550.0 million with maturity in 2028. The guarantors (the “Guarantors”) under the 2023 Revolving Credit Facility are the same subsidiaries of Noble Finance II that are or will be guarantors of the 2030 Notes (as defined below). As of June 30, 2024, we had $35.0 million borrowings outstanding and $23.2 million of letters of credit issued under the 2023 Revolving Credit Agreement.

8.000% Senior Notes due 2030

In April 2023, Noble Finance II, a wholly owned subsidiary of Noble, issued the $600.0 million in aggregate principal amount of its 8.000% Senior Notes due 2030 (the “2030 Notes”). The 2030 Notes were issued pursuant to an indenture, dated April 18, 2023, among Noble Finance II, the Guarantors, and U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, as trustee.

The 2030 Notes are unconditionally guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by the Guarantors and will be unconditionally guaranteed on the same basis by certain of Noble Finance II’s future subsidiaries that guarantee certain indebtedness of Noble Finance II and the Guarantors, including the 2023 Revolving Credit Facility.

The 2030 Notes will mature on April 15, 2030, and interest on the 2030 Notes is payable semi-annually in arrears on each April 15 and October 15, commencing October 15, 2023, to holders of record on the April 1 and October 1 immediately preceding the related interest payment date, at a rate of 8.000% per annum.

The indenture governing the 2030 Notes contains a covenant that requires Noble Finance II to furnish to holders of the 2030 Notes certain financial information relating to Noble Finance II and its restricted subsidiaries. The obligation to furnish such information may be satisfied by providing financial information of Noble along with a description of the differences between such information and the financial information of Noble Finance II and its restricted subsidiaries on a standalone basis. As a result of Noble conducting substantially all of its business through Noble Finance II, the financial position and results of operations for Noble Finance II are the same as the information presented for Noble in all material respects. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, Noble Finance II’s operating income (loss) was $22.8 million and $33.8 million higher, respectively, than that of Noble. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, Noble Finance II’s operating income (loss) was $16.3 million and $30.8 million higher, respectively, than that of Noble. The operating income (loss) difference is primarily a result of expenses related to corporate legal costs and administration charges attributable to Noble for operations support and stewardship-related services.

Second Lien Notes

On February 5, 2021, pursuant to the Backstop Commitment Agreement, dated October 12, 2020, among the Debtors and the backstop parties thereto, Noble Cayman and Noble Finance Company consummated the Rights Offering of the Second Lien Notes and associated Noble Cayman Shares at an aggregate subscription price of $200.0 million.

On April 18, 2023, we redeemed the remaining balance of approximately $173.7 million aggregate principal amount of outstanding Second Lien Notes using a portion of the proceeds from the offering of the 2030 Notes, and recognized a loss of approximately $25.7 million.

DNB Credit Facility and New DNB Credit Facility

On October 3, 2022 (the “Closing Date”) the merger, pursuant to a Business Combination Agreement, dated November 10, 2021, as amended (the “Business Combination”) by and among Noble, the Drilling Company of 1972 A/S, a Danish public limited liability company (“Maersk Drilling”) and the other parties thereto, became effective and Noble guaranteed the Term and Revolving Facilities Agreement dated December 6, 2018, by and among Maersk Drilling, the rig owners and material intragroup charterers party thereto and DNB Bank ASA as agent (as amended from time to time, the “DNB Credit Facility”) and on December 22, 2022, it was terminated and replaced with the New DNB Credit Facility. On April 18, 2023, we repaid the $347.5 million of outstanding borrowings under the New DNB Credit Facility using a portion of the proceeds from the offering of the 2030 Notes, and recognized a loss of approximately $0.7 million.

DSF Credit Facility

The Company guaranteed the DSF Credit Facility in connection with the Business Combination, and it was repaid in full on February 23, 2023, using cash on hand.

Fair Value of Debt

Fair value represents the amount at which an instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties. The estimated fair value of our debt instruments was based on the quoted market prices for similar issues or on the current rates offered to us for debt of similar remaining maturities (Level 2 measurement). The fair values of each of the Revolving Credit Facility, the New DNB Credit Facility and the DSF Credit Facility approximates its respective carrying amount as its interest rate is variable and reflective of market rates.

The following table presents the carrying value, net of unamortized debt issuance costs and discounts or premiums, and the estimated fair value of our total debt, not including the effect of unamortized debt issuance costs, respectively:

	June 30, 2024		December 31, 2023

Total	$ 660,710	$ 606,180	$ 1,273,135	$ 1,181,470

Contract Balances

Accounts receivable are recognized when the right to the consideration becomes unconditional based upon contractual billing schedules. Payment terms on invoiced amounts are typically 30 to 60 days. Customer contract assets and liabilities generally consist of deferred revenue and contract costs resulting from past transactions related to the provision of services under contracts with customers. Current contract asset and liability balances are included in "Prepaid expenses and other current assets" and "Other current liabilities," respectively, and noncurrent contract assets and liabilities are included in "Other assets" and "Other liabilities," respectively, on our Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. Off-market customer contract assets and liabilities have been recognized in connection with our emergence from Chapter 11 and the Business Combination with Maersk Drilling and are included in "Intangible assets" and "Noncurrent contract liabilities," respectively.

Contract Costs

Certain direct and incremental costs incurred for upfront preparation, initial rig mobilization and modifications are costs of fulfilling a contract and are recoverable. These recoverable costs are deferred and amortized ratably to contract drilling expense as services are rendered over the initial term of the related drilling contract. Certain of our contracts include capital rig enhancements used to satisfy our performance obligations.

Off-market Customer Contract Assets and Liabilities

Upon emergence from Chapter 11 the Company recognized fair value adjustments of $113.4 million related to intangible assets for certain favorable customer contracts, which were fully amortized as of August 2023. In addition, in connection with the Business Combination with Maersk Drilling, the Company recognized additional fair value adjustments of $23.0 million. These intangible assets will be amortized as a reduction of contract drilling services revenue from the Closing Date through the remainder of the contracts.

In connection with the Business Combination with Maersk Drilling, the Company recognized a fair value adjustment of $237.7 million related to certain unfavorable customer contracts acquired. These liabilities will be amortized as an increase to contract drilling services revenue from the Closing Date through the remainder of the contracts.

Note 8 — Income Taxes

At June 30, 2024, the Company had deferred tax assets of $248.8 million, net of valuation allowance. Additionally, the Company also had deferred tax liabilities of $7.8 million, inclusive of a valuation allowance of $18.5 million.

During the three months ended June 30, 2024, the Company recognized additional discrete deferred tax benefits of $63.1 million related to releases and adjustments of valuation allowance for deferred tax benefits in Guyana and Luxembourg.

During the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company recognized additional discrete deferred tax benefits of $81.6 million related to releases and adjustments of valuation allowance for deferred tax benefits in Guyana, Nigeria, Switzerland, and Luxembourg.

During the three months ended June 30, 2023, the Company recognized additional discrete deferred tax benefits of $50.7 million related to releases and adjustments of valuation allowance for deferred tax benefits in Guyana, Norway, Switzerland, and Luxembourg.

During the six months ended June 30, 2023, the Company recognized additional deferred tax benefits of $84.6 million, $3.9 million, and $7.2 million in Guyana, Norway, and Switzerland, respectively.

In deriving the above net deferred tax benefits, the Company relied on sources of income attributable to the projected taxable income for the period covered by the Company's relevant existing drilling contracts based on the assumption that the relevant rigs will be owned by the relevant rig owners during the relevant existing drilling contract periods. Given the mobile nature of the Company's assets, we are not able to reasonably forecast the jurisdictions in which taxable income from future drilling contracts may arise. We also have limited objective positive evidence in historical periods. Accordingly, in determining the amount of additional deferred tax assets to recognize, we did not consider projected book income beyond the conclusion of existing drilling contracts. As new drilling contracts are executed or as current contracts are extended, we will reassess the amount of deferred tax assets that are realizable. Finally, once we have established sufficient objective positive evidence for historical periods, we may consider reliance on forecasted taxable income from future drilling contracts.

(Unless otherwise indicated, dollar and share amounts in tables are in thousands, except per share data)

At June 30, 2024, the reserves for uncertain tax positions totaled $183.6 million (net of related tax benefits of $0.1 million). At December 31, 2023, the reserves for uncertain tax positions totaled $202.3 million (net of related tax benefits of $0.1 million).

It is reasonably possible that our existing liabilities related to our reserve for uncertain tax positions may fluctuate in the next 12 months primarily due to the completion of open audits or the expiration of statutes of limitation.

During the three months ended June 30, 2024, our tax provision included tax benefits of $63.1 million mainly related to releases of valuation allowance for deferred tax benefits in Luxembourg. Such tax benefits are offset by tax expenses related to recurring quarterly accruals of $57.8 million mostly in Guyana, Luxembourg, Switzerland, and Nigeria.

During the six months ended June 30, 2024, our tax provision included tax benefits of $81.6 million related to releases and adjustments of valuation allowance for deferred tax benefits in Nigeria, Switzerland, and Luxembourg. Such tax benefits are offset by tax expenses related to a net increase in uncertain tax positions of $6.9 million and recurring quarterly accruals of $59.3 million mostly in Guyana, Luxembourg, Switzerland, and Nigeria.

The OECD, which represents a coalition of member countries, issued various white papers addressing Tax Base Erosion and Jurisdictional Profit Shifting. The recommendations in these white papers are generally aimed at combating what they believe is tax avoidance. Numerous jurisdictions in which we operate have been influenced by these white papers as well as other factors and are increasingly active in evaluating changes to their tax laws. In addition, the OECD has advanced reforms focused on global profit allocation and implementing a global minimum tax rate of at least 15% for large multinational corporations on a jurisdiction-by-jurisdiction basis, known as "Pillar Two." On October 8, 2021, the OECD announced an accord endorsing and providing an implementation plan for Pillar Two agreed upon by 136 nations. On December 15, 2022, the European Council formally adopted a European Union directive on the implementation of the plan by January 1, 2024. Numerous countries, including the UK, have enacted legislation implementing Pillar Two effective January 1, 2024. While we continue to review additional guidance and regulations as they become available, we do not currently believe the impact of this legislation will result in a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial statements.

Note 9 — Employee Benefit Plans

Pension costs (gain) include the following components:

Recognized net actuarial (gain) loss	49	—	122	(115)
Net pension benefit cost (gain)	$ (48)	$ (246)	$ 287	$ (409)

During the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, we made no contributions to our pension plans. Effective December 31, 2016, employees and alternate payees accrue no future benefits under the US plans and, as such, Noble recognized no service costs with the plans for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023.

Note 10 — Commitments and Contingencies

Tax Matters

Audit claims of approximately $84.3 million attributable to income and other business taxes remain outstanding and are under continued objection by Noble. Such audit claims are attributable to Mexico related to tax years 2007 and 2009, Guyana related to tax years 2018 to 2021, Saudi Arabia related to tax years 2015 to 2019, Nigeria related to tax years 2011 to 2019, Ghana related to tax years 2011 to 2017, and Egypt related to tax years 2012 to 2016. We intend to vigorously defend our reported positions and currently believe the ultimate resolution of the audit claims will not have a material adverse effect on our condensed consolidated financial statements. This remains under continued monitoring and evaluation on a quarterly basis as facts change and as audits and/or litigation continue to progress.

We operate in numerous countries throughout the world and our tax returns filed in those jurisdictions are subject to review and examination by tax authorities within those jurisdictions. We recognize uncertain tax positions that we believe have a greater than 50% likelihood of being sustained upon challenge by a tax authority. We cannot predict or provide assurance as to the ultimate outcome of any existing or future assessments.

Hurricane Ida Personal Injury Claims

In preparation for Hurricane Ida in the US Gulf of Mexico in August 2021, the Noble Globetrotter II successfully secured the well it was drilling and detached from the blowout preventer without incident. Due to the environmental conditions, a number of crew members were treated for injuries and released from medical care. We have had multiple parties, some of which are subject to a third-party contractual indemnity to our benefit, who have filed answers to the Limitation of Liability Action in the United States District Court Western District of Louisiana, seeking damages related to physical and emotional harm allegedly suffered as a result of the Hurricane Ida incident. We are in the discovery phase and we intend to defend ourselves vigorously against these claims, although there is inherent risk in litigation, and we cannot predict or provide assurance as to the ultimate outcome of this lawsuit. As claims progress, the Company's estimated loss could change from time to time, and any such change individually or in the aggregate could be material. We have insurance for such claims with a deductible of $5.0 million, in addition to contractual indemnity owed to us for a portion of the third-party claims. Timing differences are likely to exist between any losses incurred and the recognition and receipt of insurance proceeds reflected in the Company's financial statements. Costs, as well as insurance recoveries, are presented in "Hurricane losses and (recoveries), net" on the Condensed Consolidated Statement of Operations.

Letters of Credit and Surety bonds

As of June 30, 2024, we had $23.2 million of letters of credit issued under the 2023 Revolving Credit Facility and an additional $112.7 million in letters of credit and surety bonds issued under bilateral arrangements which guarantee our performance as it relates to our drilling contracts, contract bidding, tax appeals, customs duties, and other obligations in various jurisdictions. We expect to comply with the underlying performance requirements and we expect obligations under these letters of credit and surety bonds will not be called.

Other Contingencies

We have entered into agreements with certain of our executive officers, as well as certain other employees. These agreements generally provide for certain compensation and other benefits if the employee is terminated without cause or if the employee resigns for good reason (within the meaning set forth in the agreements). In addition, certain of these agreements contain provisions that are triggered upon a change of control of Noble (within the meaning set forth in the agreements) and a termination of employment without cause or if the employee resigns for good reason in connection with a change of control. The agreements initially have three-year terms and automatically extend, unless either party provides notice not to extend, and provide for certain compensation and other benefits depending on the circumstances.

We are a defendant in certain claims and litigation arising out of operations in the ordinary course of business, including other personal injury claims, the resolution of which, in the opinion of management, will not be material to our financial position, results of operations, or cash flows. There is inherent risk in any litigation or dispute and no assurance can be given as to the outcome of these claims.

Note 11 — Supplemental Financial Information

Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets Information

Noble's restricted cash balance as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, was $5.6 million and $7.0 million, respectively. All restricted cash is recorded in "Prepaid expenses and other current assets."

Item 2. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion is intended to assist you in understanding our financial position at June 30, 2024, and our results of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023. The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and related notes contained in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023 (the “Form 10-K”), filed by Noble Corporation plc, a public limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales (“Noble”) and our other filings with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). References in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q to “Noble,” the “Company,” “we,” “us,” “our” and words of similar meaning refer collectively to Noble and its consolidated subsidiaries.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q includes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and Section 21E of the Exchange Act, as amended. All statements other than statements of historical facts included in this report or in the documents incorporated by reference, are forward looking statements, including those regarding expected financial performance, revenues, expected utilization, and fleet status, stacking of rigs, effects of new rigs on the market revenues, operating expenses, cash flows, contract status, tenders, terms and duration, dayrates, termination and extensions, contract backlog, the availability, delivery, mobilization, stacking or reactivation, contract commencement, relocation or other movement of rigs and the timing thereof, contract claims, capital expenditures, insurance maintenance and renewals, access to financing, rig demand, peak oil, the offshore drilling market, oil prices, production levels among members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (“OPEC”) and other oil and gas producing nations (together with OPEC, “OPEC+”), and any expectations we may have with respect thereto, our future financial position, business strategy, impairments, repayment of debt, credit ratings, liquidity, borrowings under any credit facilities or other instruments, sources of funds, cost inflation, planned acquisitions or divestitures of assets, governmental regulations and permitting, taxes and tax rates, indebtedness covenant compliance, dividends and distributable reserves, share repurchases, progress, plans and goals related to environmental, social, and governance matters; the outcome of tax disputes; assessments and settlements; and expense management, the outcome of any dispute, litigation, audit or investigation, plans, foreign currency requirements, results of joint ventures, general economic, market, including inflation and recessions, trends and outlook; general political conditions, including political tensions, conflicts and war, timing for compliance with any new regulations the benefits or results of acquisitions or dispositions (including the Business Combination (as defined herein) and the Diamond Transaction (as defined herein), our plans, objectives, expectations, and intentions related to the Business Combination and Diamond Transaction). Forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties, and assumptions, and actual results may differ materially from any future results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. When used in this report or in the documents incorporated by reference, the words “anticipate,” “believe,” “continue,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “might,” “on track,” “plan,” “possible,” “potential,” “predict,” “project,” “should,” “would,” “shall,” “target,” “will,” and similar expressions are intended to be among the terms that identify forward-looking statements. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot assure you that such expectations will prove to be correct. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and we undertake no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statement for any reason, except as required by law. The expectations expressing in forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, which include, but are not limited to: a decline in the price of oil or gas, reduced demand for oil and gas products and increased regulation of drilling and production, price competition and cyclical in the offshore drilling industry, offshore rig supply, dayrates and demand for rigs, contract duration, renewal, terminations and repricing, national oil companies and governmental clients, contract backlog, risks related to the recently announced Diamond Transaction, including the risk that the transaction will not be completed on the timeline or terms currently contemplated, risks related to the ability to obtain any necessary consents or approvals, the risk that the benefits of the transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected, the risk that the costs of the acquisition will be significant and the risk that management attention will be diverted to transaction-related issues, customer and geographic concentration, operational hazards and risks, labor force unionization, labor interruptions and labor regulations, major natural disasters, catastrophic events, acts of war, terrorism or social unrest, pandemic, or other similar event, joint ventures as well as investments in associates, international operations and related mobilization and demobilization of rigs, operational interruptions, delays, upgrades, refurbishment and repair of rigs and any related delays and cost overruns or reduced payment of dayrates, impacts of inflation, renewal of insurance, protection of sensitive information, operational technology systems and critical data, the ability to attract and retain skilled personnel or the increased cost in doing so, supplier capacity constraints or shortages in parts or equipment, supplier production disruptions, supplier quality and sourcing issues or price increases, future mergers, acquisitions or dispositions of businesses or assets or other strategic transactions, hurricanes and windstorm damage, responding to energy rebalancing, non-performance of suppliers or third-party subcontractors, risks related to the Business Combination and the related integration and compliance with laws and regulations, increasing attention to environmental, social and governance matters, including climate change, compliance with anti-bribery or anti-corruption, international trade laws and regulations, litigation, our ability to maintain effective disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, impairments on property and equipment, including rigs and related capital spares, operating and financial restrictions and maintenance of covenants in our debt financing, tax disputes or tax challenges, that could cause actual plans or results to differ materially from those included in any forward-looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from those expressed as a result of various factors and could, among other impacts, impact our ability to repurchase shares and declare and pay dividends such that we suspend our share repurchase program and reduce, suspend, or totally eliminate dividend payments in the future. These factors include those “Risk Factors” referenced or described in Part II, Item 1A “Risk Factors” of this Form 10-Q, Part I, Item 1A. “Risk Factors” of our Form 10-K, and in our other filings with the SEC. We cannot control such risk factors and other uncertainties, and in many cases, we cannot predict the risks and uncertainties that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements. You should consider these risks and uncertainties when you are evaluating us. Future quarterly dividends and other shareholder returns will be subject to, amongst other things, approval by the Board of Directors, and may be modified as market conditions dictate.

Executive Overview

Noble is a leading offshore drilling contractor for the oil and gas industry. As of the filing date of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, Noble performs, through its subsidiaries, contract drilling services with a fleet of 31 drilling rigs, consisting of 18 floaters and 13 jackups focused largely on ultra-deepwater and high-specification jackup drilling opportunities in both established and emerging regions worldwide. We typically employ each drilling unit under an individual contract, and many contracts are awarded based upon a competitive bidding process.

We report our contract drilling operations as a single reportable segment, Contract Drilling Services, which reflects how we manage our business. The mobile offshore drilling units comprising our offshore rig fleet operate in a global market for contract drilling services and are often redeployed to different regions due to changing demands of our customers, which consist primarily of large, integrated, independent and government-owned or controlled oil and gas companies throughout the world.

Recent Events

Diamond Transaction. On June 9, 2024, Noble entered into an agreement and plan of merger (the “Diamond Merger Agreement”) with Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc. (“Diamond”), Dolphin Merger Sub 1, Inc., and Dolphin Merger Sub 2, Inc., under which Noble will acquire Diamond in a stock plus cash transaction (the “Diamond Transaction”). Pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Diamond Merger Agreement, Diamond shareholders will receive 0.2316 shares of Noble, plus cash consideration of $5.65 per share for each share of Diamond stock, representing a premium of 11.4% to Diamond’s closing share price on June 7, 2024. Upon closing of the Diamond Transaction, Diamond shareholders are expected to own approximately 14.5% of Noble’s outstanding shares. Noble intends to fund the cash portion of the Diamond Transaction through new debt financing, which Noble has secured through a $600.0 million committed bridge financing facility.

The Diamond Transaction has been unanimously approved by the board of directors of each company. The Diamond Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights, including, but not limited to, each party’s right to terminate the Diamond Merger Agreement in the event that the Diamond Transaction has not been consummated on or before June 9, 2025 (the “End Date”); except that the End Date will automatically be successively extended to December 9, 2025, and June 9, 2026, if all required applicable regulatory approvals have not been obtained by what would otherwise be the End Date but all other conditions to closing have been satisfied. At 11:59 ET on July 24, 2024, the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 expired in connection with the pending merger. Completion of the Diamond Transaction is subject to the satisfaction of the remaining customary closing conditions, including approval by Diamond’s stockholders and the receipt of informal clearance by the Australian Competition & Consumer Commission. A special meeting of Diamond stockholders to vote on the transaction is currently scheduled for 8:30 a.m. CDT on August 27, 2024.

Also, on June 10, 2024, Noble’s Board of Directors approved an interim quarterly cash dividend on our Ordinary Shares of $0.50 per share for the third quarter of 2024. This dividend is in addition to the $0.40 per share dividend previously announced which was paid on June 27, 2024, to shareholders of record at close of business on June 6, 2024. The $0.50 dividend is expected to be paid on September 26, 2024, to shareholders of record at close of business on September 12, 2024. The Company intends to continue to pay dividends on a quarterly basis, and the third quarter dividend represents $2.00 per share on an annualized basis.

Voluntary Delisting. On July 18, 2024, Noble announced its intention to voluntarily delist from NASDAQ Copenhagen (“NASDAQ”). Noble will remain traded on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”), as Noble’s primary listing exchange. Noble anticipates such delisting will be effective in late 2024 or early 2025. Noble has not filed, and has not yet determined when it will file, a formal delisting request with NASDAQ.

Market Outlook

In recent years, oil prices have generally remained at levels that are supportive of offshore exploration and development activity and global rig demand is increasing. This increasing demand has been caused by the combination of growing confidence in commodity prices, heightened focus on energy security, recent multi-year underinvestment in the development and exploration of hydrocarbons, and relative attractiveness of offshore plays with respect to both cost and carbon emissions. This increase had a positive impact on dayrates for certain of our rig classes.

The global rig supply has come down from historic highs as Noble and other offshore drilling contractors have retired less capable and idle assets. Concurrently, the incoming supply of newbuild offshore drilling rigs has diminished materially, with several newbuild rigs stranded in shipyards. However, we expect many of these stranded newbuild rigs may continue to make their way into the global market over the next few years.

Although the market outlook in our business varies by geographical region and water depth, we remain encouraged by the outlook in the ultra-deepwater floater market, with overall demand having increased from 2020 lows. However, within this ultra-deepwater market, our customers continue to focus on our highest specification floaters, which represents the majority of our floater fleet. Assuming current market fundamentals, continued customer prioritization towards these highest specification floaters is likely to result in lower utilization for our lower specification drillships and our semi-submersibles. We have also observed an overall demand increase in the global jackup market, with the Middle East being the largest component of this increase. While we remain encouraged about the increasing overall rig demand, to the extent global macroeconomic concerns become more prevalent and produce downward pressure on oil and gas prices, we could experience downward pressure on overall rig demand for both floaters and jackups.

As of the date of this report, the majority of our jackup fleet is positioned in the North Sea. While we are starting to see some increased tender activity in the UK North Sea, overall activity levels in this region remain subdued compared to historical levels. The Norway ultra-harsh environment jackup market is similar, where current activity also remains below historical levels, despite the market being attractive to operators given it is characterized by low-cost and low-emission barrels.

Returning to the broader offshore drilling market, while the length of contract terms has started to moderately increase, the overall market remains characterized by generally shorter-term contracts. This leads to an increased number of rig contract start-ups, both with different customers and among different regions. These rig contract start-ups and other shipyard projects may result in incremental resources and costs and, in certain cases, may delay delivery of the applicable rig which may trigger applicable late delivery clauses. Additionally, shorter-term contracts have resulted in, and are likely to continue to result in, lower overall utilization for our fleet driven by more idle time between contracts.

The energy transition from hydrocarbons to renewables poses a challenge to the oil and gas sector and our market. Energy rebalancing trends have accelerated in recent years as evidenced by promulgated or proposed government policies and commitments by many of our customers to further invest in sustainable energy sources. Our industry could be further challenged as our customers rebalance their capital investments more towards alternative energy sources. However, at the same time, there continues to be a global dependence on the combustion of hydrocarbons to provide reliable and affordable energy. Low-cost and low-emission barrels are expected to be the most attractive conventional source to meet energy needs, both currently and in the future. Global energy demand is predicted to increase over the coming decades, and we expect that offshore oil and gas will continue to play an important and lasting role in meeting this demand.

We expect inflationary pressures to persist, which has led or may lead to increased costs of services. Additionally, we expect supply chain disruptions to continue, and potentially accelerate, as geopolitical crises, such as the Russia-Ukraine conflict, Middle East conflicts, the Guyana-Venezuela dispute, and their respective regional and global ramifications, have the potential to negatively impact our ability to conduct our day-to-day operations.

Contract Drilling Services Backlog

We maintain a backlog of commitments for contract drilling services. Our contract drilling services backlog reflects estimated future revenues attributable to signed drilling contracts. While backlog did not include any letters of intent as of June 30, 2024, in the past we have included in backlog certain letters of intent that we expect to result in binding drilling contracts. As of June 30, 2024, contract drilling services backlog totaled approximately $4.2 billion, which includes a commitment of approximately 69% of available days for the remainder of 2024.

We calculate backlog for any given unit and period by multiplying the full contractual operating dayrate for such unit by the number of days remaining in the period, and include certain assumptions based on the terms of certain contractual arrangements, discussed in the notes to the table below. The reported contract drilling services backlog does not include amounts representing revenues for mobilization, demobilization and contract preparation, which are not expected to be significant to our contract drilling services revenues, amounts constituting reimbursables from customers or amounts attributable to uncommitted option periods under drilling contracts or letters of intent.

The table below presents the amount of our contract drilling services backlog as of June 30, 2024, and the percent of available operating days committed for the periods indicated:

	Year Ending December 31,
	Total	2024 ⁽¹⁾	2025	2026	2027
	(In thousands)
Contract Drilling Services Backlog
Floaters ⁽²⁾	$3,242,461	$918,341	$1,266,254	$802,338	$255,528
Jackups ⁽³⁾	988,415	256,228	334,404	214,723	183,060
Total	$4,230,876	$1,174,569	$1,600,658	$1,017,061	$438,588
Percent of Available Days Committed ⁽⁴⁾
Floaters		66 %	44 %	29 %	9 %
Jackups		74 %	41 %	18 %	14 %

⁽²⁾ Noble entered into a multi-year Commercial Enabling Agreement (the "CEA") with ExxonMobil in February 2020. Under the CEA, dayrates for the rigs are repriced on March 1 and September 1 each year to the projected market rate at the time the new rate goes into effect, subject to a scale-based discount and a performance bonus that appropriately aligns the interests of Noble and ExxonMobil. Under the CEA, the table above includes awarded and remaining current contract term to June 5, 2027 related to each of the four following rigs: the Noble Tom Madden, Noble Bob Douglas, Noble Don Taylor, and Noble Sam Croft. Under the CEA, ExxonMobil may reassign remaining contract term among rigs, subject to maintaining certain minimum contract term on the rig from which term is removed.

⁽⁴⁾ Percent of available days committed is calculated by dividing the total number of days our rigs are operating under contract for such period by the product of the number of our rigs, including cold-stacked rigs, and the number of calendar days in such period.

The amount of actual revenues earned and the actual periods during which revenues are earned may be materially different than the backlog amounts and backlog periods presented in the table above due to various factors, including, but not limited to, shipyard and maintenance projects, unplanned downtime, the operation of market benchmarks for dayrate resets, achievement of bonuses, weather conditions, reduced standby or mobilization rates, and other factors that result in applicable dayrates lower than the full contractual operating dayrate. In addition, amounts included in the backlog may change because drilling contracts may be varied or modified according to their terms or by mutual consent, or customers may exercise early termination rights contained in some of our drilling contracts or decline to enter into a drilling contract after executing a letter of intent. As a result, our backlog as of any particular date may not be indicative of our actual operating results for the periods for which the backlog is calculated. See Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors – Risks Related to Our Business and Operations – Our current backlog of contract drilling revenue may not be ultimately realized" in our Form 10-K.

As of June 30, 2024, ExxonMobil, Aker BP, and Petrobras represented approximately 41.4%, 16.0%, and 14.5% of our backlog, respectively.

Results of Operations

Results for the Three Months Ended June 30, 2024 and 2023

Net income for the three months ended June 30, 2024 (the “current quarter”), was $195.0 million, or $1.34 per diluted share, on operating revenues of $692.8 million compared to net income for the three months ended June 30, 2023, of $65.8 million, or $0.45 per diluted share, on operating revenues of $638.5 million.

Key Operating Metrics

Operating results for our contract drilling services segment are dependent on three primary metrics: operating days, dayrates, and operating costs. We also track rig utilization, which is a function of operating days and the number of rigs in our fleet. For more information on operating costs, see “Contract Drilling Services” below.

The following table presents the average rig utilization, operating days, and average dayrates for our rig fleet for the periods indicated:

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Three Months Ended June 30,		Three Months Ended June 30,
	2024	2023	2024	2023	2024	2023
Floaters	70 %	76 %	1,138	1,305	435,677	363,167
Jackups	77 %	62 %	914	786	155,585	128,885
Total	73 %	70 %	2,052	2,091	$ 310,962	$ 275,066

⁽¹⁾ We define utilization for a specific period as the total number of days our rigs are operating under contract divided by the product of the total number of our rigs, including cold stacked rigs, and the number of calendar days in such period. Information reflects our policy of reporting on the basis of the number of available rigs in our fleet.

⁽²⁾ An operating day is defined as a calendar day during which a rig operated under a drilling contract. We define average dayrates as revenue from contract drilling services earned per operating day. Average dayrates exclude the effect of non-cash amortization related to favorable and unfavorable off-market customer contract assets and liabilities.

Contract Drilling Services Revenues

Floaters. During the second quarter of 2024, floaters generated revenue of $517.8 million, as compared to $494.0 million in the second quarter of 2023. The increase in revenue was mainly attributable to $76.2 million from an increase in average dayrates in the current period and was partly offset by $54.1 million from rigs with net changes in operating days in the current period. Additionally, floater revenue from net non-cash amortization related to off-market customer contract assets and liabilities increased $1.6 million in the current period.

Jackups. During the second quarter of 2024, jackups generated revenue of $143.0 million, as compared to $112.2 million in the second quarter of 2023. The increase in revenue was mainly attributable to $27.8 million from an increase in average dayrates in the current period and $11.5 million from rigs with net changes in operating days in the current period.

Additionally, jackup revenue from net non-cash amortization related to off-market customer contract assets and liabilities decreased $10.1 million in the current period.

Operating Costs and Expenses

Floaters. During the second quarter of 2024, total contract drilling services costs related to floaters was $246.0 million, as compared to $278.4 million in the second quarter 2023. The primary drivers of this decrease were $31.4 million in mobilization, $4.7 million in insurance, and $13.4 million in non-labor crew costs and operations support costs across the fleet. These decreases were partially offset by increases of $5.8 million in labor, $4.5 million in transportation and storage, and $6.8 million in repairs and maintenance.

Jackups. During the second quarter of 2024, total contract drilling services cost related to jackups was $86.8 million, as compared to $84.1 million in the second quarter 2023. The primary drivers of an aggregate increase of $16.0 million related to labor costs, repairs and maintenance, operations support, and other costs across the fleet. These increases were partially offset by decreases in mobilization, insurance, fuel, and other costs across the fleet. Further, there was a decrease of $13.4 million after the completion of disposal activities regarding certain rigs.

Depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization totaled $90.8 million and $71.3 million during the second quarter of 2024 and 2023, respectively. Depreciation and amortization increased by $19.4 million in the current quarter primarily due to the timing of capital additions that were placed in service as compared to retirements among the periods.

General and administrative. General and administrative expenses totaled $39.7 million and $32.4 million during the second quarter of 2024 and 2023, respectively. The increase was primarily related to individually insignificant items within certain corporate charges such as professional fees, corporate leases, and employee related costs.

Merger and integration costs. Noble incurred $10.6 million and $22.5 million of merger and integration costs during the second quarter of 2024 and 2023, respectively. Costs incurred prior to the second quarter of 2024 related to the Business Combination with Maersk Drilling in October 2022. In the second quarter 2024, $6.2 million and $4.4 million of costs related to the Diamond Transaction and the Business Combination with Maersk Drilling, respectively. The costs directly attributable to the Diamond Transaction related to professional services fees for pre-merger preparation and the costs directly attributable to the Business Combination with Maersk Drilling primarily related to severance plans, professional fees, and certain other integration-related activities.

Hurricane losses and (recoveries), net. During the second quarter of 2024, costs incurred in connection with the Hurricane Ida incident were offset by accrued recoveries. For additional information about the Hurricane Ida incident, see "Note 10 — Commitments and Contingencies" to our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

Other Income and Expenses

Interest expense, net of amounts capitalized. Interest expense totaled $12.0 million and $14.7 million during the second quarter of 2024 and 2023, respectively. Interest expense primarily relates to our 8.000% Senior Notes issued in April 2023, which refinanced prior debt assumed in the Business Combination with Maersk Drilling in October 2022. For additional information, see "Note 6 — Debt" to our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

Interest income and other, net. Noble recognized other losses of $8.2 million and of $2.9 million during the second quarter of 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Income tax benefit (provision). Noble recorded an income tax benefit of $5.2 million and $0.7 million during the second quarter of 2024 and 2023, respectively.

During the second quarter of 2024, our tax provision included tax benefits of $63.1 million mainly related to releases of valuation allowance for deferred tax benefits in Luxembourg. Such tax benefits are offset by tax expenses related to recurring quarterly accruals of $57.8 million mostly in Guyana, Luxembourg, Switzerland, and Nigeria.

During the second quarter of 2023, our tax provision included tax benefits of $50.7 million related to releases and adjustments of valuation allowance for deferred tax benefits in Guyana, Norway, Switzerland and Luxembourg and a tax benefit of $6.8 million related to a Ghana uncertain tax position release. Such tax benefits are offset by tax expenses related to a Mexico uncertain tax position of $9.8 million, contract fair value amortization of $4.7 million, and various recurring quarterly accruals of $42.2 million primarily in Guyana, Australia, and Luxembourg.

Results for the Six Months Ended June 30, 2024 and 2023

Net income for the six months ended June 30, 2024, was $290.5 million, or $1.99 per diluted share, on operating revenues of $1.3 billion compared to compared to net income for the six months ended June 30, 2023, of $173.9 million, or $1.19 per diluted share, on operating revenues of $1.2 billion.

Key Operating Metrics

Operating results for our contract drilling services segment are dependent on three primary metrics: operating days, dayrates, and operating costs. We also track rig utilization, which is a function of operating days and the number of rigs in our fleet. For more information on operating costs, see "Contract Drilling Services" below.

The following table presents the average rig utilization, operating days and average dayrates for our rig fleet for the periods indicated:

Floaters. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, floaters generated revenue of $1.0 billion, as compared to $970.2 million in the six months ended June 30, 2023. The increase in revenue was mainly attributable to $183.9 million from an increase in average dayrates in the current period and was partly offset by $119.9 million from rigs with net changes in operating days in the current period. Additionally, floater revenue from net non-cash amortization related to off-market customer contract assets and liabilities decreased $22.0 million in the current period.

Jackups. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, jackups generated revenue of $260.9 million, as compared to $211.3 million in the six months ended June 30, 2023. The increase in revenue was mainly attributable to $55.6 million from an increase in average dayrates in the current period and $13.3 million from rigs with net changes in operating days in the current period. Additionally, jackup revenue from net non-cash amortization related to off-market customer contract assets and liabilities decreased $19.9 million in the current period.

Operating Costs and Expenses

Floaters. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, total contract drilling services costs related to floaters was $535.6 million, as compared to $549.4 million in the six months ended June 30, 2023. The primary drivers of this decrease were $30.2 million in mobilization and $12.8 million in non-labor crew costs and operations support costs across the fleet. These decreases were offset by increases of $12.7 million in labor, $6.5 million in transportation and storage, $5.7 million in fuel, and $4.3 million in repairs and maintenance.

Jackups. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, total contract drilling services cost related to jackups was $187.1 million, as compared to $174.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2023. The primary drivers of an aggregate increase of $35.9 million related to labor costs, repairs and maintenance, operations support, and other costs across the fleet. These increases were partially offset by decreases in mobilization, fuel, and other costs across the fleet. Further, there was a decrease of $23.8 million after the completion of disposal activities regarding certain rigs.

Depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization totaled $177.5 million and $141.3 million during the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Depreciation and amortization increased by $36.2 million in the current period primarily due to the timing of capital additions that were placed in service as compared to retirements among the periods.

General and administrative. General and administrative expenses totaled $65.6 million and $62.4 million during the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The increase was primarily related to individually insignificant items within certain corporate charges such as professional fees, corporate leases, and employee related costs.

Merger and integration costs. Noble incurred $19.9 million and $34.1 million of merger and integration costs during the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, primarily as a result of the Diamond Transaction and the Business Combination with Maersk Drilling in October 2022. During the current period, $6.2 million of pre-merger preparation costs related to professional services fees directly attributable to the Diamond Transaction while the remaining costs were directly attributable to the Business Combination with Maersk Drilling and primarily related to severance plans, professional fees, and certain other integration-related activities.

Hurricane losses and (recoveries). During the six months ended June 30, 2024, costs incurred in connection with the Hurricane Ida incident were offset by accrued recoveries. For additional information about the Hurricane Ida incident, see "Note 10 — Commitments and Contingencies" to our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

Other Income and Expenses

Interest expense, net of amounts capitalized. Interest expense totaled $29.5 million and $31.5 million during the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Interest expense primarily relates to our 8.000% Senior Notes issued in April 2023, which refinanced prior debt assumed in the Business Combination with Maersk Drilling in October 2022. In the six months ended June 30, 2024, $2.8 million of interest expense related to non-income taxes partially offset decreases in interest on debt. For additional information, see "Note 6 — Debt" to our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

Interest income and other, net. Noble recognized other losses of $12.9 million and $0.9 million during the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Income tax benefit (provision). Noble recorded an income tax benefit of $15.4 million and $16.5 million during the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

During the six months ended June 30, 2024, our tax provision included tax benefits of $81.6 million related to releases and adjustments of valuation allowance for deferred tax benefits in Nigeria, Switzerland, and Luxembourg. Such tax benefits are offset by tax expenses related to a net increase in uncertain tax positions of $6.9 million and recurring quarterly accruals of $59.3 million mostly in Guyana, Luxembourg, Switzerland, and Nigeria.

During the six months ended June 30, 2023, our tax provision included tax benefits of $95.8 million related to releases of valuation allowance for deferred tax benefits in Guyana, Norway, and Switzerland and a tax benefit of $6.8 million related to a Ghana uncertain tax position release. Such tax benefits are offset by tax expenses related to a Mexico uncertain tax position of $9.8 million, contract fair value amortization of $8.9 million, and various recurring quarterly accruals of $67.4 million primarily in Guyana, Australia, and Luxembourg.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Amended and Restated Senior Secured Revolving Credit Agreement

On April 18, 2023, Noble entered into the 2023 Revolving Credit Agreement. The Revolving Credit Facility under the 2023 Revolving Credit Agreement provides for commitments of $550 million with maturity in 2028. The guarantors under the 2023 Revolving Credit Facility are the same subsidiaries of Noble Finance II that are or will be guarantors of the 2030 Notes.

As of June 30, 2024, we had $35.0 million of borrowings outstanding and $23.2 million of letters of credit issued under the 2023 Revolving Credit Facility. For additional information about our 2023 Revolving Credit Facility as of June 30, 2024, see “Note 6 — Debt” to our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

Sources and Uses of Cash

Our principal sources of capital in the current period were cash generated from operating activities and funding from the Revolving Credit Facility. Cash on hand during the current period was primarily used for the following:

- normal recurring operating expenses;
- planned and discretionary capital expenditures;
- fees and expenses related to merger and integration costs;
- dividend payments; and
- certain contractual cash obligations and commitments.

Our anticipated cash flow needs, both in the short term and long term, may also include repurchases, redemptions, or repayments of debt and interest and share repurchases.

We currently expect to fund our cash flow needs with cash generated by our operations, cash on hand, proceeds from sales of assets, or borrowings under the 2023 Revolving Credit Facility and we believe this will provide us with sufficient liquidity to fund our cash flow needs over the next 12 months. Subject to market conditions and other factors, we may also issue equity or long-term debt securities to fund our cash flow needs and for other purposes. Regarding the Diamond Transaction, Noble intends to fund the cash portion of the transaction through new debt financing, which Noble has secured through a $600.0 million committed bridge financing facility. In 2023 and during the first half of 2024, we incurred additional expenses and capital costs related to the damage and repair of two jackup rigs. These incurred costs exceeded our deductible amount. As such, we have received partial insurance recoveries and we continue to seek insurance recoveries for the remainder of the incurred and anticipated costs.

Net cash provided by operating activities was $235.5 million and $148.1 million for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The increase in net cash provided by operating activities for the six months ended June 30, 2024 was primarily attributable to improvements in cash flows from operating assets and liabilities, with key drivers being an increase in payments from customers offset by a reduction in payments to vendors. We had working capital of $349.9 million at June 30, 2024, and $420.1 million at December 31, 2023.

Net cash used in investing activities was $299.8 million and $169.5 million for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and primarily consisted of capital expenditures on routine projects associated with overhauls and upgrades on various rigs.

Net cash used in financing activities was $134.9 million and $202.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The six months ended June 30, 2024, included dividend payments to our shareholders of $116.6 million as well as $53.6 million in taxes withheld on vested employee share-based compensation awards, partly offset by borrowing of $35.0 million under the 2023 Revolving Credit Facility. The six months ended June 30, 2023, included the repayment of the DSF Credit Facility in full, redemption of Second Lien Notes, repayment of the New DNB Credit Facility, totaling $673.4 million, and the $600.0 million issuance of 2030 Notes. We also repurchased 1.8 million of our Ordinary Shares for total of $70.0 million.

At June 30, 2024, we had a total contract drilling services backlog of approximately $4.2 billion, which includes a commitment of 69% of available days for the remainder of 2024. For additional information regarding our backlog, see “Contract Drilling Services Backlog.”

Capital Additions

Capital additions totaled $266.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2024, and consisted of the following:

- $132.7 million for sustaining capital;
- $118.8 million in major projects, including subsea and other related projects; and
- $15.1 million for rebillable capital and contract modifications.

Our total capital additions estimate for the year ending December 31, 2024, net of reimbursements, is expected to range between $400 million and $440 million, of which approximately $270 million to $300 million is currently anticipated to be spent for sustaining capital. We expect to fund these capital additions with cash generated by our operations and cash on hand.

From time to time we consider possible projects and may have certain events, such as insured losses, that would require expenditures that are not included in our capital budget, and such unbudgeted expenditures could be significant. In addition, while liquidity and preservation of capital remains our top priority, we will continue to evaluate acquisitions of drilling units from time to time.

Dividends

Our most recent quarterly dividend, totaling approximately $57.2 million (or $0.40 per share), was declared on May 6, 2024, and paid on June 27, 2024, to shareholders of record at close of business on June 6, 2024.

On June 10, 2024, Noble's Board of Directors declared an interim quarterly cash dividend on our Ordinary Shares of $0.50 per share for the third quarter of 2024. The $0.50 dividend is expected to be paid on September 26, 2024, to shareholders of record at close of business on September 12, 2024.

The declaration and payment of dividends require authorization of the Board of Directors, provided that such dividends on issued share capital may be paid only out of the Company's "distributable reserves" as determined by reference to relevant statutory accounts in accordance with English law. The Company is not permitted to pay dividends out of share capital, which includes share premiums. The payment of future dividends will depend on our results of operations, financial condition, cash requirements, future business prospects, the availability of sufficient distributable reserves, contractual and indenture restrictions, and other factors deemed relevant by the Board of Directors.

Critical Accounting Estimates

We prepare our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, which require us to make estimates that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses, and related disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. We disclose our significant accounting policies in "Note 1— Organization and Significant Accounting Policies" to our audited consolidated financial statements included in Part II, Item 8 of our Form 10-K.

For information about our critical accounting policies and estimates, see Part II, Item 7, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Critical Accounting Estimates" in our Form 10-K. As of June 30, 2024, there have been no material changes to the judgments, assumptions, and estimates upon which our critical accounting policies and estimates are based.

See Part I, Item 1, Financial Statements, "Note 3 — Accounting Pronouncements," to the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements for a description of the recent accounting pronouncements.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

There has been no significant change in our exposure to market risk when compared to those disclosed in Part II, Item 7A. "Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk" in our Form 10-K.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Conclusions Regarding Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Robert W. Eifler, President and Chief Executive Officer (Principal Executive Officer) of Noble, and Richard B. Barker, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (Principal Financial Officer) of Noble, have evaluated the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) as of the end of the period covered by this report. On the basis of this evaluation and, as a result of the material weakness in internal control over financial reporting as described below, Mr. Eifler and Mr. Barker have concluded that Noble's disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of June 30, 2024.

Previously Reported Material Weakness

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of our annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

As disclosed in our Form 10-K, we previously identified a material weakness in the Company's internal control over financial reporting as the Company did not design and maintain effective controls over certain information technology general controls for an information system that is relevant to the preparation of Noble's consolidated financial statements. Specifically, the Company did not design and maintain (i) program change management controls to ensure that program and data changes are identified, tested, authorized, and implemented appropriately and (ii) user access controls to ensure appropriate segregation of duties and to adequately restrict user and privileged access to appropriate personnel.

The material weakness described above did not result in a misstatement to our annual or interim consolidated financial statements. However, the material weakness could result in a misstatement of our financial statement accounts or disclosures that would result in a material misstatement to the annual or interim consolidated financial statements that would not be prevented or detected.

Remediation Plan

Noble is committed to the planning and implementation of remediation efforts to address the material weakness described above. As of the end of the third quarter of 2023, we completed the design and implementation of controls related to (i) program change management controls to ensure that program and data changes are identified, tested, authorized, and implemented appropriately and (ii) user access controls to ensure appropriate segregation of duties and to adequately restrict user and privileged access to appropriate personnel. While we have completed the design and implementation of these controls, certain controls have not operated effectively for a sufficient period of time to demonstrate the material weakness has been remediated. Therefore, the remediation plan includes the continued operation of the newly designed and implemented controls.

Noble is working to remediate the material weakness by executing the measures outlined above, and we believe the measures described above will remediate the material weakness and strengthen our internal control over financial reporting. This material weakness will not be considered remediated until the applicable controls operate for a sufficient period of time and management has concluded through testing that the controls are operating effectively.

The actions that we are taking are subject to ongoing senior management review as well as Audit Committee oversight. As we continue to monitor the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting in the area affected by the material weakness, we will perform additional procedures, including the use of manual mitigating control procedures where necessary, and plan to employ any additional resources deemed necessary to provide assurance that our financial statements continue to be fairly stated in all material respects. As we continue to evaluate and work to improve our internal control over financial reporting, management may execute additional measures to address potential control deficiencies or modify the remediation plan described above. Management will continue reviewing and making necessary changes to our internal controls' overall design.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in Noble's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the quarter ended June 30, 2024, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the internal control over financial reporting of Noble.

Limitations on the Effectiveness of Controls

Internal control over financial reporting includes the controls themselves, monitoring (including internal auditing practices), and actions taken to correct deficiencies as identified. There are inherent limitations to the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, however well designed, including the possibility of human error and the possible circumvention or overriding of controls. The design of an internal control system is also based in part upon assumptions and judgments made by management about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that an internal control will be effective under all potential future conditions. As a result, even an effective system of internal controls can provide no more than reasonable assurance with respect to the fair presentation of financial statements and the processes under which they were prepared.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

Information regarding legal proceedings is presented in “Note 10 — Commitments and Contingencies,” to our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements included in Item 1 of Part I of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

There are numerous factors that affect our business and results of operations, many of which are beyond our control. You should carefully read and consider “Item 1A. Risk Factors” in Part I and “Item 7. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in Part II of our Form 10-K, which contains descriptions of significant risks that might cause our actual results of operations in future periods to differ materially from those currently anticipated or expected. There have been no material changes from the risk factors disclosed in our Form 10-K other than the addition of the text below.

Risks Related to the Diamond Transaction

Failure to complete the Diamond Transaction in a timely manner or at all could have adverse effects on the market value, trading price, and/or the future business results and financial condition of Noble.

The completion of the Diamond Transaction is subject to a number of conditions, including, among others, (i) the receipt of the Diamond stockholder approval, (ii) the receipt of any regulatory approvals, (iii) the absence of any order or law prohibiting consummation of the Diamond Transaction, (iv) the absence of any material adverse effect on Diamond or Noble since the date of the Diamond Merger Agreement, and (v) the authorization for listing on the NYSE of the Ordinary Shares to be issued in connection with the Diamond Merger Agreement. These conditions make the completion and timing of the Diamond Transaction uncertain.

In addition, if the Diamond Transaction is not completed by June 9, 2025, or, in certain instances, on or before June 9, 2026, either Noble or Diamond may choose not to proceed with the Diamond Transaction by terminating the merger agreement. Further, either Noble or Diamond may elect to terminate the merger agreement in certain other circumstances and the parties can mutually decide to terminate the merger agreement at any time.

If the Diamond Transaction is not completed, the ongoing business, financial condition, financial results, and stock price of Noble may be adversely affected. Without realizing any of the benefits of having completed the Diamond Transaction, Noble may be subject to a number of risks, including the following:

- the market price of Ordinary Shares could decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the Diamond Transaction will be completed;
- if the merger agreement is terminated and Noble seeks another business combination, Noble shareholders cannot be certain that Noble will be able to find a party willing to enter into a transaction on terms equivalent to or more attractive than the terms that the other party has agreed to in the merger agreement;
- time and resources committed by Noble’s management team to matters relating to the Diamond Transaction could otherwise have been devoted to pursuing other beneficial opportunities for their respective companies;
- Noble may experience negative reactions from the financial markets or from their respective customers, suppliers, business partners, or employees;
- Noble will be required to pay their respective costs relating to the Diamond Transaction, such as legal, accounting, financial advising, and other fees and expenses, whether or not such transactions are completed;
- litigation against Noble and Diamond, such as securities class action lawsuits and derivative lawsuits, could result in substantial costs, an injunction preventing the completion of the Diamond Transaction, and/or a judgment resulting in the payment of damages; and
- litigation related to any failure to complete the Diamond Transaction or related to any enforcement proceeding commenced against Noble to perform their respective obligations pursuant to the merger agreement, which may result in injunctions or significant additional expenses.

The materialization of any of these risks could adversely impact Noble's ongoing businesses, financial condition, financial results, and the trading price of Ordinary Shares. Similarly, delays or diversions of management's attention in the completion of the Diamond Transaction could have other negative effects associated with uncertainty about completion of the Diamond Transaction.

Noble may not achieve the intended benefits of the Diamond Transaction, and the Diamond Transaction may disrupt its current plans or operations.

There can be no assurance that Noble will be able to successfully integrate Diamond assets or otherwise realize the expected benefits of the Diamond Transaction. Difficulties in integrating Diamond into Noble may result in Noble performing differently than expected, in operational challenges or in the failure to realize anticipated synergies and efficiencies in the expected time frame or at all. The anticipated benefits and cost savings of the merger may not be realized fully or at all, may take longer to realize than expected, or could have other adverse effects that Noble does not currently foresee. These anticipated benefits include an assumption that Noble is able to realize annual pre-tax cost synergies of approximately $100 million, in which case the Diamond Transaction may not be accretive to earnings per share, may not improve Noble's balance sheet position, may not enhance Noble's ability to deliver, and may not generate additional free cash flow.

Following completion of the Diamond Transaction, the combined company's success will depend, in part, on Noble's ability to manage the expansion resulting from the Diamond Transaction, which poses numerous risks and uncertainties. The integration of the two companies may result in material challenges, including the diversion of management's attention from ongoing business concerns; attracting, motivating, and retaining key management and other employees; retaining or attracting business, customer, and operational relationships; the possibility of faulty assumptions underlying expectations regarding the integration process and associated expenses; consolidating corporate and administrative infrastructures and eliminating duplicative operations; coordinating geographically separate organizations; unanticipated issues in integrating information technology, communications, and other systems; as well as potential unknown liabilities, unforeseen expenses relating to integration, or delays associated with the acquisition. Additionally, if relationships with customers, distributors, suppliers, vendors, landlords, and other business partners are adversely affected by the Diamond Transaction, or if Noble, following completion of the Diamond Transaction, loses the benefits of certain contracts of Diamond, Noble's business, prospects, liquidity, and financial performance could suffer. Further, the market price of Noble Ordinary Shares may decline as a result of completing the Diamond Transaction if, among other things, it is unable to achieve the expected benefits and synergies of the Diamond Transaction.

In addition, Noble's obligation to consummate the Diamond Transaction is not conditioned on the availability of financing to pay the $5.65 per share cash portion of the merger consideration. Accessing such cash consideration through the capital markets and cash on hand may result in increased leverage and debt service costs, issuance of dilutive equity, or other adverse impacts on Noble's future liquidity.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

Exercises of Warrants

During the three months ended June 30, 2024:

- 44,896 Ordinary Shares were issued to holders of our Tranche 1 Warrants pursuant to exercises of 73,176 Tranche 1 Warrants; and
- 36,951 Ordinary Shares were issued to holders of our Tranche 2 Warrants pursuant to exercises of 68,624 Tranche 2 Warrants.
- 1 Ordinary Share was issued to holders of our Tranche 3 Warrants pursuant to exercises of 116 Tranche 3 Warrants.

Such Ordinary Shares were issued pursuant to the exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act under Section 4(a)(2) under the Securities Act or Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code. For more information on the terms of exercise and other features of the warrants, see our Form 10-K.

Item 5. Other Information

Our directors and executive officers may from time to time enter into plans or other arrangements for the purchase or sale of our shares that are intended to satisfy the affirmative defense conditions of Rule 10b5-1(c) or may represent a non-Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement under the Exchange Act. During the three months ended June 30, 2024, no such plans or other arrangements were adopted, terminated or modified.

CERTIFICATION PURSUANT TO EXCHANGE ACT RULE 13a-14(a) OR RULE 15d-14(a)

I, Robert W. Eifler, certify that:

1. I have reviewed this quarterly report on Form 10-Q of Noble Corporation plc;
2. Based on my knowledge, this report does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading with respect to the period covered by this report;
3. Based on my knowledge, the financial statements, and other financial information included in this report, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the registrant as of, and for, the periods presented in this report;
4. The registrant's other certifying officer and I are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) and internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f)) for the registrant and have:
 - a) Designed such disclosure controls and procedures, or caused such disclosure controls and procedures to be designed under our supervision, to ensure that material information relating to the registrant, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which this report is being prepared;
 - b) Designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused such internal control over financial reporting to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
 - c) Evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and presented in this report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report based on such evaluation; and
 - d) Disclosed in this report any change in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal quarter (the registrant's fourth fiscal quarter in the case of an annual report) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting; and
5. The registrant's other certifying officer and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of the registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):
 - a) All significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information; and
 - b) Any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.
