Safe Harbor Statement

Certain information in this presentation constitutes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are those not based on historical information, but rather relate to future operations, strategies, financial results, or other developments and speak only as of the date made. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control. The following factors, in addition to other factors mentioned from time to time, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements: (1) unfavorable economic or business conditions, both domestic and foreign; (2) sustained periods of low interest rates; (3) fluctuation in insurance reserve liabilities and claim payments due to changes in claim incidence, recovery rates, mortality rates, and offsets due to, among other factors, the rate of unemployment and consumer confidence, the emergence of new diseases, epidemics, or pandemics, new trends and developments in medical treatments, the effectiveness of claims management operations, and changes in government programs; (4) legislative, regulatory, or tax changes, both domestic and foreign, including the effect of potential legislation and increased regulation in the current political environment; (5) investment results, including, but not limited to, changes in interest rates, defaults, changes in credit spreads, impairments, and the lack of appropriate investments in the market which can be acquired to match our liabilities; (6) ineffectiveness of our derivatives hedging programs due to changes in the economic environment, ratings downgrades, capital market volatility, changes in interest rates, and/or regulation; (7) increased competition from other insurers and financial services companies due to industry consolidation or other factors; (8) changes in our financial strength and credit ratings; (9) damage to our reputation due to, among other factors, regulatory investigations, legal proceedings, external events, and/or inadequate or failed internal controls and procedures; (10) actual experience that deviates from our assumptions used in pricing, underwriting, and reserving; (11) actual persistency and/or sales growth that is higher or lower than projected; (12) changes in demand for our products due to, among other factors, changes in societal attitudes, the rate of unemployment, consumer confidence, and/or legislative and regulatory changes; (13) effectiveness of our risk management program; (14) the level and results of litigation; (15) changes in accounting standards, practices, or policies; (16) fluctuation in foreign currency exchange rates; (17) ability to generate sufficient internal liquidity and/or obtain external financing; (18) availability of reinsurance in the market and the ability and willingness of our reinsurers to meet their obligations to us; (19) recoverability and/or realization of the carrying value of our intangible assets, long-lived assets, and deferred tax assets; (20) the effectiveness of our disaster recovery systems, including our ability to recover our systems and information in the event of a disaster or unanticipated event and to protect our systems and information from unauthorized access and deliberate attacks; and (21) events or consequences relating to terrorism and ongoing military actions, both domestic and foreign. For further information about risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements, see Part I, Item 1A of our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012. The forward-looking statements in this presentation are being made as of the date of this presentation, and the Company expressly disclaims any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement contained herein, even if made available on our website or otherwise.

Key Challenges

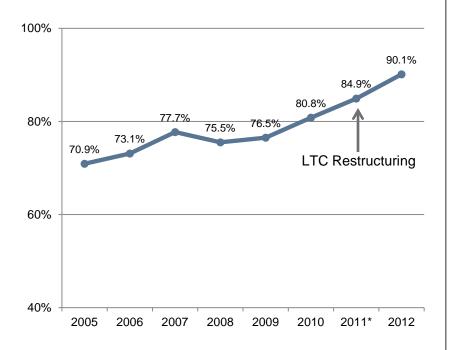

Key Challenges

- Operating Performance
 - Long-term Care
- Interest Rate Management

LONG-TERM CARE

Interest Adjusted Loss Ratio

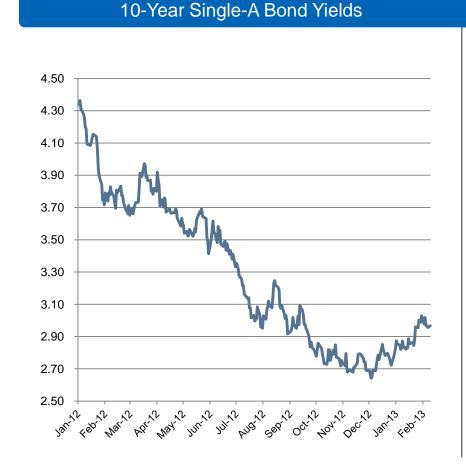

Key Messages

- Primary Risks:
 - Interest Rates we see 2 to 3 years of sufficient margin for low interest rates.
 - Risk Experience claim volatility expected given very young age of block; IALR estimated in range of 85% to 90% (+/- 5%).
- Primary risk mitigating factor is our ability to raise rates on in-force business.

^{*} Excludes $573.6 million reserve charge. Including this charge, the IALR was 179.3%.

Interest Rate Management

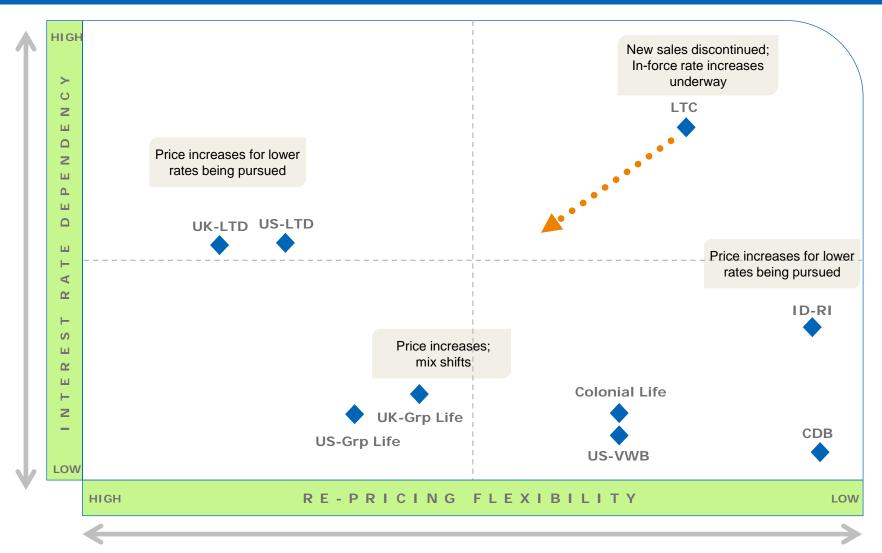

Key Messages

- Limited amount of new cash flow to invest relative to portfolio size
- Strong interest margins
- Hedges cover 20% of LTC cash flows for 2013
- Pricing adjustments

Interest Rate Management

PRODUCT LINE SENSITIVITIES

KEY MESSAGES

- We anticipate the general environment for 2013 to be similar to 2012.
 - Below average economic growth with limited employment growth
 - A continuation of today's low interest rates
- While the environment will remain challenging, the need for our products and services remains strong.
- We are taking the needed actions to protect our solid margins and returns.
 - The impact of our pricing and risk actions will build in 2014 and beyond
- We expect to maintain our consistent plan of returning capital to shareholders.
 - $500 million of share repurchases and continued dividend increases
 - Maintain solid capital metrics and ratings
- While we anticipate 2013 operating growth to be below our long-term targets, we expect positive operating EPS growth in 2013.
 - Eighth consecutive year of operating EPS growth
