STUDIO CITY, CA – September 15, 2024 – Jodie Sweetin (Fuller House) and Stephen Huszar (Chesapeake Shores) return to star in The Jane Mysteries: Murder at Moseby, an all-new installment in the mystery movie series, Thursday, September 19, on Hallmark+.

When a mysterious photograph from her college days resurfaces, singer-turned-detective Jane Da Silva (Sweetin) is drawn back to her alma mater to unravel a 15-year-old mystery. The photo, captured by Da Silva's college boyfriend Anthony, depicts a masked figure seemingly disposing of a body during the inaugural Edgar Allan Poe Festival. Despite initial skepticism by Detective John Cameron (Huszar), Jane goes undercover as a visiting music professor to investigate, with support from her Aunt Sadie (Paris Jefferson, Y: The Last Man). As she navigates the intricate dynamics of the faculty and confronts secrets long-buried, Jane finds herself entangled in a web of deception that leads to a shocking revelation about love, loss, and the lengths people go to protect their secrets.

The Jane Mysteries: Murder at Moseby is executive produced by Beth Stevenson, Nancy Yeaman, Stan Hum, Stephen Huszar, and Jodie Sweetin. Jessica Reis is a producer; Peter Durst is an associate producer. Marco D'Amico directed from a script by Paula Tiberius.
