

THE RESIDENTS OF MERINAC RALLY AROUND GUS
WHETHER SHE WANTS THEM TO OR NOT IN
THE CHICKEN SISTERS
AVAILABLE TO STREAM OCTOBER 17, ON HALLMARK+

STUDIO CITY, CA – October 15, 2024 – When all of Merinac turns up on Gus’ lawn it’s time to clean house – literally – in the “It’s Just Junk, Y’all” episode of Hallmark’s new, original series The Chicken Sisters available to stream Thursday, October 17, on Hallmark+, the company’s reimagined streaming service and membership rewards program. The series stars Schuyler Fisk (Sam & Kate, Orange County), Genevieve Angelson (The Handmaid’s Tale, Good Girls Revolt), Lea Thompson (Switched at Birth, Back to the Future) and Wendie Malick (Young Sheldon, Shrinking, Just Shoot Me!)

Despite everyone’s differences, the whole town of Merinac rallies around Gus (Malick), Amanda (Fisk) and Mae (Angelson) in a time of need. Meanwhile, Sabrina (Rukiya Bernard, Yellowjackets) starts to doubt her tactics on Kitchen Clash. As Jay (Samer Salem, The Expanse) spends more time in Merinac, he sees a surprising new side of Mae. Nancy (Thompson) begins to come to terms with Frank Sr. and Frank Jr.’s (James Kot, Virgin River) true colors while Gus is ready to start fresh and takes a shocking approach.

The Chicken Sisters is from Fox Entertainment/MarVista Entertainment in association with Lighthouse Pictures and Busy B Entertainment. Annie Mebane, Bradley Gardner, Shawn Williamson, Jamie Goehring, Larry Grimaldi, Ani Kevork, Hannah Pillemer and Fernando Szew are executive producers. Kimmy Gatewood, Erin Gibson and Leila Cohen serve as co-executive producers. The series is produced by Ian R. Smith. Monika Mitchell directed from a script by Erin Gibson.
