

JODIE SWEETIN AND STEPHEN HUSZAR ARE JUST WHAT THE DOCTOR ORDERED IN THE JANE MYSTERIES: A DEADLY PRESCRIPTION
PREMIERING SEPTEMBER 10 ON HALLMARK+

STUDIO CITY, CA – August 15, 2024 – Jodie Sweetin (Fuller House) and Stephen Huszar (Chesapeake Shores) reunite to star in The Jane Mysteries: A Deadly Prescription, an all-new installment in the mystery movie series, premiering Tuesday, September 10 on Hallmark+.

Singer-turned-detective Jane Da Silva (Sweetin) continues her journey as the head of her family's foundation, a non-profit detective agency dedicated to aiding those who can't help themselves. When Sandra Shea (Beth Hornby, Star Trek: Strange New Worlds) approaches the agency, desperate to prove her teenage son Ryan (Colin McLeod, It Chapter Two) innocent in the murder of a local pharmacist, Jane feels a personal connection to the case. Partnering with Detective John Cameron (Huszar) and guided by her Aunt Sadie (Paris Jefferson, Y: The Last Man), Jane delves into a complex investigation involving false confessions, missing witnesses, and buried secrets. As the stakes rise, Jane and John must race against time to uncover the truth and bring justice to a family in despair.

The Jane Mysteries: A Deadly Prescription is executive produced by Beth Stevenson, Nancy Yeaman, Stan Hum, Jodie Sweetin, and Stephen Huszar. Jessica Reis is a producer; Peter Durst is an associate producer. Marco D'Amico directed from a script by Neale Elizabeth Kimmel.
