STUDIO CITY, CA – January 18, 2021 – Melanie Scrofano ("Wynonna Earp," Ready or Not), Daniel di Tomasso ("Ratched," "Dynasty") and Lorraine Bracco (Goodfellas, "The Sopranos") star in "Welcome to Mama's," a new, original movie premiering Saturday, February 26 (8 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel, as part of the network's "Loveuary" programming event.

Amy (Scrofano) inherits a restaurant in Brooklyn after "Mama" (Bracco), the owner and Amy's dear friend, unexpectedly passes away. Amy, who is trained as a restaurant manager, teams up with a charming but slightly egotistical master chef named Frank (di Tomasso), who is looking for a second chance. They hope to honor Mama by relaunching the restaurant for the community that loves it and her so much. Despite Amy and Frank's differences both personally and professionally, they discover that the most important ingredient for any recipe is always love.

"Welcome to Mama's" is from Timeless Pictures Inc. Ben C. Silverman, Michael R. Goldstein and Alexandre Coscas are executive producers. Michael Shepard is co-executive producer, while Shel Piercy serves as producer. Alexander Glua and Theresa Piercy are associate producers. Allan Harmon directed from a script by William Penick.
