STUDIO CITY, CA – July 24, 2024 – Come along a wild crime solving ride with the help of man's best friend, when Rachel Skarsten (Christmas Island) and Corey Sevier (Everything Christmas) star in Jazz Ramsey: A K-9 Mystery, a new, original movie premiering Friday, August 2 (9 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Mystery.

If you need a crime detection dog, you call the best trainer in the business and that would be Jazz Ramsey (Skarsten). And if you're Jazz, you not only train great dogs, but also mentor the next generation of curious minds – the forensics club at the Astor Academy for Girls. While running a demonstration with one of her crime sensing dog trainees, Jazz uncovers a murder victim on the deserted third floor of the school. Jazz's demonstration soon becomes a crime scene swarming with cops. Detective Nick Kolesov (Sevier), head of the major crimes' unit, a dedicated investigator, as well as Jazz's ex-boyfriend, is assigned to investigate. Being an alumnus from the school, Nick brings Jazz into the case to utilize her expertise and her dogs to help gather evidence. Suspects begin to pile up while they investigate the death of the victim, an unpopular and overly strict teacher. But who would want this teacher dead? Jazz, with the help of Nick and her canine partner, Zeus, will stop at nothing to find the truth.

Jazz Ramsey: A K-9 Mystery is from Brain Power Studio Productions. Beth Stevenson, Nancy Yeaman, and Stan Hum are executive producers, with Peter Durst as associate producer.

Produced by Jessica Reis. Marco Deufemia directed from a script by Neale Kimmel based on the novel The Secret of Bones: A Jazz Ramsey Mystery by Kylie Logan.
