Certain statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, including statements in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Part I, Item 2 of this report, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements may include: projections of, and matters that affect, net sales, gross profit, gross margin, operating expenses, earnings from operations, non-operating income and expenses, net earnings or cash flows, cash needs and the payment of accrued expenses and liabilities; our expectations regarding supply constraints, including our belief that remaining supply constraints and extended lead times for certain infrastructure, including networking products, have now normalized back to near historic levels; our belief that the general slowdown in our clients' decision making will continue in the short term; our expectations regarding certain trends for our business; our expectation that transformation costs are not expected to recur in the longer term; the expected effects of seasonality on our business, including as a result of recent acquisitions; expectations of further consolidation and trends in the Information Technology ("IT") industry; our business strategy and our strategic initiatives, including our efforts to grow our core business in the current environment, develop and grow our global cloud business and build scalable solutions; expectations regarding the impact of partner incentives and changes to partner incentive programs; our expectations about future benefits of our acquisitions and our plans related thereto, including potential expansion into wider regions; the increasing demand for big data solutions; the availability of competitive sources of products for our purchase and resale; our intentions concerning the payment of dividends; our acquisition strategy and our expectation that we will incur additional acquisition expenses in executing such strategy; our expectations regarding the impact of inflation, including our expectation that higher interest rates may continue for the remainder of 2024, and our ability to offset the effects of inflation and manage any increase in interest rates; projections of capital expenditures; our plans to continue to evolve our IT systems; our expectation that our gross margins will improve as our mix of services and solutions increase; plans relating to share repurchases; our liquidity and the sufficiency of our capital resources, the availability of financing and our needs or plans relating thereto; our expectation that we have sufficient funds available from capacity under our senior secured revolving credit facility (the "ABL facility"), as well as cash we expect to generate from operations, to fund any conversions of our convertible senior notes (the "Convertible Notes") that may occur; the effects of new accounting principles and expected dates of adoption; the effect of indemnification obligations; projections about the outcome of ongoing tax audits; our expectations regarding future tax rates and the impact of domestic and global tax legislation, including our expectation that our effective tax rate will return to more typical levels in the foreseeable future; adequate provisions for and our positions and strategies with respect to ongoing and threatened litigation and expected outcomes; our ability to expand our client relationships; our expectations that pricing pressures in the IT industry will continue; our intention to use cash generated in the remainder of 2024 in excess of working capital needs to pay down our ABL facility and inventory financing facilities and for strategic acquisitions; our belief that our office facilities are adequate and that we will be able to extend our current leases or locate substitute facilities on satisfactory terms; our belief that we have adequate provisions for losses; our expectation that we will not incur interest payments under our inventory financing facilities; our expectations that future income will be sufficient to fully recover deferred tax assets; our exposure to off-balance sheet arrangements; statements of belief; and statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Forward-looking statements are identified by such words as "believe," "anticipate," "expect," "estimate," "intend," "plan," "project," "will," "may" and variations of such words and similar expressions and are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties, some of which cannot be predicted or quantified. Future events and actual results could differ materially from those set forth in, contemplated by, or underlying the forward-looking statements. There can be no assurances that results described in forward-looking statements will be achieved, and actual results could differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements. Some of the important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those projected in any forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the following, which are discussed in "Risk Factors" in Part I, Item 1A of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023 and in "Risk Factors" in Part II, Item 1A of this report:

- actions of our competitors, including manufacturers and publishers of products we sell;
- our reliance on our partners for product availability, competitive products to sell and marketing funds and purchasing incentives, which can change significantly in the amounts made available and in the requirements year over year;
- our ability to keep pace with rapidly evolving technological advances and the evolving competitive marketplace;
- general economic conditions, economic uncertainties and changes in geopolitical conditions, including the possibility of a recession or a decline in market activity as a result of the ongoing conflicts in Ukraine and Gaza;
- changes in the IT industry and/or rapid changes in technology;
- our ability to provide high quality services to our clients;
- our reliance on independent shipping companies;

INSIGHT ENTERPRISES, INC.

- the risks associated with our international operations;
- supply constraints for products;
- natural disasters or other adverse occurrences, including public health issues such as pandemics or epidemics;
- disruptions in our IT systems and voice and data networks;
- cyberattacks, outages, or third-party breaches of data privacy as well as related breaches of government regulations;
- intellectual property infringement claims and challenges to our registered patents, trademarks and trade names;
- potential liability and competitive risk based on the development, adoption, and use of Generative Artificial Intelligence ("GenAI");
- legal proceedings, client audits and failure to comply with laws and regulations;
- risks of termination, delays in payment, audits and investigations related to our public sector contracts;
- exposure to changes in, interpretations of, or enforcement trends related to tax rules and regulations;
- our potential to draw down a substantial amount of indebtedness;
- the conditional conversion feature of the Convertible Notes, which has been triggered, and may adversely affect the Company's financial condition and operating results;
- the Company is subject to counterparty risk with respect to certain hedge and warrant transactions entered into in connection with the issuance of the Convertible Notes (the "Call Spread Transactions");
- increased debt and interest expense and the possibility of decreased availability of funds under our financing facilities;
- possible significant fluctuations in our future operating results as well as seasonality and variability in client demands;
- potential contractual disputes with our clients and third-party suppliers;
- our dependence on certain key personnel and our ability to attract, train and retain skilled teammates;
- risks associated with the integration and operation of acquired businesses, including achievement of expected synergies and benefits; and
- future sales of the Company's common stock or equity-linked securities in the public market could lower the market price for our common stock.

Additionally, there may be other risks described from time to time in the reports that we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Any forward-looking statements in this report are made as of the date of this filing and should be considered in light of various important factors, including the risks and uncertainties listed above, as well as others. Our offerings in North America and certain countries in EMEA and APAC include hardware, software and services, including cloud solutions. Our offerings in the remainder of our EMEA and APAC segments consist largely of software and certain software-related services and cloud solutions.

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments necessary to present fairly our financial position as of September 30, 2024 and our results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 and cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023. The consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2023 was derived from the audited consolidated balance sheet at such date. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements and notes have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC and consequently do not include all of the disclosures normally required by United States generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”).

The results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results for the full year, due in part to the seasonal nature of our business. These unaudited consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements, including the related notes thereto, in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023.

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Insight Enterprises, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements. Additionally, these estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of net sales and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. On an ongoing basis, we evaluate our estimates, including those related to sales recognition, anticipated achievement levels under partner funding programs, assumptions related to stock-based compensation valuation, allowances for doubtful accounts, valuation of inventories, litigation-related obligations, valuation allowances for deferred tax assets, valuation of acquired assets and assumed liabilities, including intangible assets and goodwill and impairment of long-lived assets, including purchased intangibles and goodwill, if indicators of potential impairment exist.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In November 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standard Update ("ASU") No. 2023-07, "Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures", which requires public entities to disclose information about their reportable segments' significant expenses on an interim and annual basis. The amendments aim to improve interim disclosure requirements, clarify situations where an entity can reveal multiple segment measures of profit or loss, provide new segment disclosure requirements for entities with a single reportable segment, and include other disclosure requirements. The main objective of the amendments is to assist investors in understanding the entity's overall performance and evaluate potential future cash flows. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023 and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024 with early adoption being permitted. We did not early adopt this guidance. The updated guidance is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements or disclosures.

There have been no other material changes in, or additions to the recently issued accounting standards as previously reported in Note 1 to our Consolidated Financial Statements in Part II, Item 8 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023 that affect or may affect our current financial statements.

The majority of our backlog historically has been, and continues to be, open cancellable purchase orders. We do not believe that backlog as of any particular date is predictive of future results, therefore we do not include performance obligations under open cancellable purchase orders, which do not qualify for revenue recognition, in the table above.

3. Assets Held for Sale

During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, we completed the sale of our properties in Montreal, Canada and Sheffield, United Kingdom for total net proceeds of approximately $15,476,000. We recognized a net gain on sale of approximately $6,813,000, reported in severance and restructuring expenses, net.

4. Net Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share ("EPS") is computed by dividing net earnings available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during each period. Diluted EPS is computed on the basis of the weighted average number of shares of common stock plus the effect of dilutive potential common shares outstanding during the period using the treasury stock method. Dilutive potential common shares include outstanding restricted stock units ("RSUs") and certain shares underlying the Convertible Notes and the warrants relating to the Call Spread Transactions, as applicable. A reconciliation of the denominators of the basic and diluted EPS calculations follows (in thousands, except per share data):

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, 500 and 10,000, respectively, of our RSUs were excluded from the diluted EPS calculations because their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, 65,000 and 72,000, respectively, of our RSUs were excluded from the diluted EPS calculations because their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive.

5. Debt, Inventory Financing Facilities, Finance Leases and Other Financing Obligations

Debt

Our long-term debt consists of the following (in thousands):

	September 30, 2024	December 31, 2023
ABL revolving credit facility	$ 262,408	$ 591,500
Senior unsecured notes due 2032	491,959	—

Long-term debt	$ 754,377	$ 592,517

On May 14, 2024, we entered into a Fourth Amendment to the Credit Agreement (as amended, the "credit agreement") to modify our senior secured revolving credit facility (the "ABL facility"). The amendment, among other things, releases certain immaterial guarantors from their obligations under the credit agreement. Our maximum borrowing amount under the ABL facility is $1,800,000,000, including a maximum borrowing capacity that could be used for borrowing in certain foreign currencies of $350,000,000. From time to time and at our option, we may request to increase the aggregate amount available for borrowing under the ABL facility by up to an aggregate of the U.S. dollar equivalent of $750,000,000, subject to customary conditions, including receipt of commitments from lenders. The ABL facility is guaranteed by certain of our material subsidiaries and is secured by a lien on certain of our assets and certain of each other borrower's and each guarantor's assets. The ABL facility provides for an uncommitted first-in, last-out revolving facility in an aggregate amount of up to $100,000,000. The interest rates applicable to borrowings under the ABL facility are based on the average aggregate excess availability under the ABL facility as set forth on a pricing grid in the credit agreement. The ABL facility matures on July 22, 2027. As of September 30, 2024, eligible accounts receivable and inventory permitted availability to the full $1,800,000,000 facility amount, of which $262,408,000 was outstanding.

The ABL facility contains customary affirmative and negative covenants and events of default. If a default occurs (subject to customary grace periods and materiality thresholds) under the credit agreement, certain actions may be taken, including, but not limited to, possible termination of commitments and required payment of all outstanding principal amounts plus accrued interest and fees payable under the credit agreement.

Senior Unsecured Notes due 2032

On May 20, 2024, we issued $500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 6.625% Senior Notes due 2032 (the "Senior Notes") that mature on May 15, 2032. The Senior Notes are senior unsecured obligations of the Company and guaranteed by each of the Company's existing and future direct and indirect U.S. subsidiaries that is or becomes a guarantor or borrower under the ABL facility, subject to certain exceptions. The net proceeds from the offering were used to repay a portion of the outstanding borrowings under the ABL facility. The Senior Notes were issued pursuant to an indenture (the "Senior Notes Indenture") containing certain covenants that limit the Company's ability to, subject to certain exceptions, create, incur, or assume liens to secure debt, among other things. The Senior Notes bear interest at an annual rate of 6.625% payable semiannually, in arrears, on May 15th and November 15th of each year beginning on November 15, 2024.

INSIGHT ENTERPRISES, INC.

The Company may redeem the Senior Notes prior to May 15, 2027, with an amount equal to the net cash proceeds received by the Company from certain equity offerings at a redemption price equal to 106.625% of the principal amount of such notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date, in an aggregate principal amount for all such redemptions not to exceed 40% of the aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes. The Senior Notes are subject to redemption at specified prices on or after May 15, 2027 plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on such notes redeemed, to, but excluding, the applicable redemption date. In addition, at any time prior to May 15, 2027, the Company may, on one or more occasions, redeem the Senior Notes in whole or in part, at its option, upon notice, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of such notes plus a "make-whole" premium as specified in the Senior Notes Indenture and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date.

If the Company experiences certain change of control events, together with a ratings decline, as described in the Senior Notes Indenture, the Company will be required to make an offer to repurchase some or all of the Senior Notes at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the repurchase date.

The Senior Notes are subject to certain customary events of default and acceleration clauses. As of September 30, 2024, no such events have occurred.

Convertible Senior Notes due 2025

In August 2019, we issued $350,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Convertible Notes (the "Convertible Notes") that mature on February 15, 2025. The Convertible Notes bear interest at an annual rate of 0.75% payable semiannually, in arrears, on February 15th and August 15th of each year. The Convertible Notes are general unsecured obligations of Insight and are guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by Insight Direct USA, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Insight.

Prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding June 15, 2024, holders of the Convertible Notes could have converted their notes at their option at any time under certain circumstances. Beginning June 15, 2024 until the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date, the holders may convert their Convertible Notes at any time, regardless of such circumstances.

The Convertible Notes mature on February 15, 2025, and we are required to settle the principal amount of the Convertible Notes in cash. As such, the Convertible Notes balance net of unamortized debt issuance costs is classified as a current liability.

Upon conversion, we will pay cash equal to the principal amount of the Convertible Notes, plus shares of our common stock for any additional amounts due. The conversion rate will initially be 14.6376 shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount of the Convertible Notes (equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $68.32 per share of common stock). The conversion rate is subject to change in certain circumstances and will not be adjusted for any accrued and unpaid interest. In addition, following certain events that occur prior to the maturity date or following our issuance of a notice of redemption, the conversion rate is subject to an increase for a holder who elects to convert their notes in connection with those events or during the related redemption period in certain circumstances.

If we undergo a fundamental change, the holders may require us to repurchase for cash all or any portion of their notes at a fundamental change repurchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Convertible Notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the fundamental change repurchase date. As of September 30, 2024, none of the criteria for a fundamental change or a conversion rate adjustment had been met.

INSIGHT ENTERPRISES, INC.

As of September 30, 2024, the maximum number of shares issuable upon conversion, including the effect of a fundamental change and subject to other conversion rate adjustments, was 6,460,532.

In September 2023, an individual Convertible Note holder exercised their option to convert their Convertible Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $16,895,000, which was settled in January 2024. As a result, the principal amount of the Convertible Notes was settled in cash with additional amounts due being settled in shares of our common stock.

The Convertible Notes are subject to certain customary events of default and acceleration clauses. As of September 30, 2024, no such events have occurred.

The Convertible Notes consist of the following balances reported within the consolidated balance sheets (in thousands):

	September 30, 2024	December 31, 2023
Liability:
Principal	$ 333,105	$ 350,000
Less: debt issuance costs, net of accumulated amortization	(671)	(2,012)
Net carrying amount	$ 332,434	$ 347,988

In January 2022, we filed an irrevocable settlement election notice with the note holders to inform them of our election to settle the principal amount of the Convertible Notes in cash.

The remaining life of the debt issuance cost accretion is approximately 0.37 years. The effective interest rate on the principal of the Convertible Notes is 0.75%.

Interest expense resulting from the Convertible Notes reported within the consolidated statement of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 is made up of contractual coupon interest and amortization of debt issuance costs.

Convertible Note Hedge and Warrant Transaction

In connection and concurrent with the issuance of the Convertible Notes, we entered into the Call Spread Transactions with respect to the Company's common stock.

The convertible note hedge consists of an option to purchase up to 5,123,160 common stock shares at a price of $68.32 per share. The hedge expires on February 15, 2025 and can only be concurrently executed upon the conversion of the Convertible Notes. We paid approximately $66,325,000 for the convertible note hedge transaction.

Additionally, we sold warrants to purchase 5,123,160 shares of common stock at a price of $103.12 per share. The warrants expire on May 15, 2025 and can only be exercised at maturity. The Company received aggregate proceeds of approximately $34,440,000 for the sale of the warrants.

The Call Spread Transactions have no effect on the terms of the Convertible Notes and reduce potential dilution by effectively increasing the initial conversion price of the Convertible Notes to $103.12 per share of the Company's common stock.

Inventory Financing Facilities

We have an unsecured inventory financing facility with MUFG Bank Ltd ("MUFG") for $280,000,000. We have maximum availability under our unsecured inventory financing facility with PNC Bank, N.A. ("PNC") of $375,000,000, including a $25,000,000 facility in Canada (the "Canada facility"). We also have an unsecured inventory financing facility with Wells Fargo in EMEA (the "EMEA facility") of $50,000,000. The inventory financing facilities will remain in effect until they are terminated by any of the parties. In the second quarter of 2023, the Company transitioned the reference rate for invoices issued in U.S. Dollars under the PNC facility from LIBOR to the Term Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("Term SOFR") benchmark provisions. If balances are not paid within stated vendor terms (typically 60 days), they will accrue interest at prime plus 2.00% on the MUFG facility, Canadian Overnight Repo Rate Average plus 4.50% on the Canada facility and Term SOFR, EURIBOR, or SONIA, as applicable, plus 4.50% and 0.25% on the PNC (other than the Canada facility) and EMEA facilities, respectively. Amounts outstanding under these facilities are classified separately as accounts payable – inventory financing facilities in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and within cash flows from financing activities in the accompanying consolidated statements of cash flows.

As of September 30, 2024, our combined inventory financing facilities had a total maximum capacity of $705,000,000, of which $235,192,000 was outstanding.

6. Income Taxes

Our effective tax rates for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 were 22.5% and 24.2%, respectively. Our effective tax rate was higher than the United States federal statutory rate of 21.0% due primarily to state income taxes and higher taxes on earnings in foreign jurisdictions, partially offset by excess tax benefits on the settlement of employee share-based compensation, tax benefits related to research and development activities, and tax benefits related to the revaluation of certain acquisition earnout liabilities.

Our effective tax rates for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 were 24.7% and 25.4%, respectively. Our effective tax rates were higher than the United States federal statutory rate of 21.0% due primarily to state income taxes and higher taxes on earnings in foreign jurisdictions, partially offset by excess tax benefits on the settlement of employee share-based compensation and tax benefits related to research and development activities.

As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, we had approximately $12,135,000 and $13,947,000, respectively, of unrecognized tax benefits. Of these amounts, approximately $1,570,000 and $1,767,000, respectively, related to accrued interest. In the future, if recognized, the remaining liability associated with uncertain tax positions could affect our effective tax rate. We do not believe there will be any changes to our unrecognized tax benefits over the next 12 months that would have a material effect on our effective tax rate.

We are currently under audit in various jurisdictions for tax years 2017 through 2022. Although the timing of the resolutions and/or closures of audits is highly uncertain, it is reasonably possible that the examination phase of these audits may be concluded within the next 12 months, which could increase or decrease the balance of our gross unrecognized tax benefits. However, based on the status of the various examinations in multiple jurisdictions, an estimate of the range of reasonably possible outcomes cannot be made at this time, but the estimated effect on our income tax expense and net earnings is not expected to be significant.

7. Share Repurchase Program

On May 18, 2023, we announced that our Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to $300,000,000 of our common stock, including $100,000,000 that remained available from prior authorizations. During the three months ended September 30, 2024, this repurchase authorization was substantially exhausted. On September 11, 2024, we announced that our Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to $300,000,000 of our common stock, in addition to any amount that remained from prior authorizations. As of September 30, 2024, approximately $300,000,476 remained available for repurchases under our share repurchase plan. Our share repurchases may be made on the open market, subject to Rule 10b-18 or in privately negotiated transactions, through block trades, through 10b5-1 plans or otherwise, at management's discretion. The number of shares purchased and the timing of the purchases will be based on market conditions, working capital requirements, general business conditions and other factors. We intend to retire the repurchased shares.

During the three months ended September 30, 2024, we repurchased 835,188 shares of our common stock on the open market at a total cost of $165,020,000 (an average price of $197.58 per share). During the three months ended September 30, 2023, we did not repurchase any shares of our common stock.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we repurchased 1,022,545 shares of our common stock on the open market at a total cost of $200,020,000 (an average price of $195.61 per share). During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, we repurchased 1,633,620 shares of our common stock on the open market at a total cost of $217,108,000 (an average price of $132.90 per share). All shares repurchased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 were retired.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

Contractual

In the ordinary course of business, we issue performance bonds to secure our performance under certain contracts or state tax requirements. As of September 30, 2024, we had approximately $29,525,971 of performance bonds outstanding. These bonds are issued on our behalf by a surety company on an unsecured basis; however, if the surety company is ever required to pay out under the bonds, we have contractually agreed to reimburse the surety company.

Management believes that payments, if any, related to these performance bonds are not probable at September 30, 2024. Accordingly, we have not accrued any liabilities related to such performance bonds in our consolidated financial statements.

The Company has a minimum required purchase commitment of approximately $100,467,000 pursuant to an agreement primarily related to cloud services. The total purchase commitment is required to be met or exceeded during a 5-year period, starting October 1, 2023 through September 30, 2028. At September 30, 2024 we had a remaining purchase commitment of $81,446,000. If total purchases do not meet the required commitment by September 30, 2028, the shortfall must be prepaid by the Company and can be used for further purchases through September 30, 2029.

The Company has a minimum required purchase commitment of approximately $40,000,000 pursuant to an agreement primarily related to software as a service. The total purchase commitment is required to be met during a 4-year period, starting November 30, 2022 through November 29, 2026. At September 30, 2024 we had a remaining purchase commitment of $26,123,000.

(unaudited)

The Company has recorded a contingent liability of approximately $21,236,000 payable to a partner to settle various contractual commitments to resell a minimum amount of cloud services to clients.

Employment Contracts and Severance Plans

We have employment contracts with, and severance plans covering, certain officers and management teammates under which severance payments would become payable in the event of specified terminations without cause or terminations under certain circumstances after a change in control. In addition, vesting of outstanding nonvested RSUs would accelerate following a change in control. If severance payments under the current employment agreements or plan payments were to become payable, the severance payments would generally range from three to twenty-four months of salary.

Indemnifications

From time to time, in the ordinary course of business, we enter into contractual arrangements under which we agree to indemnify either our clients or third-party service providers from certain losses incurred relating to services performed on our behalf or for losses arising from defined events, which may include litigation or claims relating to past performance. These arrangements include, but are not limited to, the indemnification of our clients for certain claims arising out of our performance under our sales contracts, the indemnification of our landlords for certain claims arising from our use of leased facilities and the indemnification of the lenders that provide our credit facilities for certain claims arising from their extension of credit to us. Such indemnification obligations may not be subject to maximum loss clauses.

Management believes that payments, if any, related to these indemnifications are not probable at September 30, 2024. Accordingly, we have not accrued any liabilities related to such indemnifications in our consolidated financial statements.

We have entered into separate indemnification agreements with certain of our executive officers and with each of our directors. These agreements require us, among other requirements, to indemnify such officers and directors against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments and settlements incurred by such individual in connection with any action arising out of such individual's status or service as our executive officer or director (subject to exceptions such as where the individual failed to act in good faith or in a manner the individual reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company) and to advance expenses incurred by such individual with respect to which such individual may be entitled to indemnification by us. There are no pending legal proceedings that involve the indemnification of any of the Company's directors or officers.

Contingencies Related to Third-Party Review

From time to time, we are subject to potential claims and assessments from third parties. We are also subject to various governmental, client and partner audits. We continually assess whether or not such claims have merit and warrant accrual. Where appropriate, we accrue estimates of anticipated liabilities in the consolidated financial statements. Such estimates are subject to change and may affect our results of operations and our cash flows.

Legal Proceedings

From time to time, we are party to various legal proceedings incidental to the business, including preference payment claims asserted in client bankruptcy proceedings, indemnification claims, claims of alleged infringement of patents, trademarks, copyrights and other intellectual property rights, employment claims, claims related to services provided, interruptions, or outages, claims of alleged non-compliance with contract provisions and claims related to alleged violations of laws and regulations. We regularly evaluate the status of the legal proceedings in which we are involved to assess whether a loss is probable or there is a reasonable possibility that a loss, or an additional loss, may have been incurred and determine if accruals are required. If accruals are not required, we further evaluate each legal proceeding to assess whether an estimate of possible loss or range of possible loss can be made. Although litigation is inherently unpredictable, we believe that we have adequate provisions for any probable and estimable losses. It is possible, nevertheless, that our consolidated financial position, results of operations or liquidity could be materially and adversely affected in any particular period by the work required pursuant to any legal proceedings or the resolution of any legal proceedings during such period. Legal expenses related to defense of any legal proceeding or the negotiations, settlements, rulings and advice of outside legal counsel in connection with any legal proceedings are expensed as incurred.

We operate in three reportable geographic operating segments: North America; EMEA; and APAC. Our offerings in North America and certain countries in EMEA and APAC include IT hardware, software and services, including cloud solutions. Our offerings in the remainder of our EMEA and APAC segments consist largely of software and certain software-related services and cloud solutions.

In the following table, revenue is disaggregated by our reportable operating segments, which are primarily defined by their related geographies, as well as by major product offering, by major client group and by recognition on either a gross basis as a principal in the arrangement, or on a net basis as an agent, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 (in thousands):

All significant intercompany transactions are eliminated upon consolidation, and there are no differences between the accounting policies used to measure profit and loss for our segments or on a consolidated basis. Net sales are defined as net sales to external clients. None of our clients exceeded ten percent of consolidated net sales for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 or 2023.

A portion of our operating segments' selling and administrative expenses arise from shared services and infrastructure that we have historically provided to them in order to realize economies of scale and to use resources efficiently. These expenses, collectively identified as corporate charges, include senior management expenses, internal audit, legal, tax, insurance services, treasury and other corporate infrastructure expenses. Charges are allocated to our operating segments, and the allocations have been determined on a basis that we consider to be a reasonable reflection of the utilization of services provided to or benefits received by the operating segments.

10. Acquisition

Infocenter

Effective May 1, 2024, we acquired 100 percent of the issued and outstanding shares of Infocenter.io Corporation ("Infocenter") for a cash purchase price of $265,000,000, net of cash and cash equivalents acquired of $5,103,000, which is comprised of the initial purchase price of $269,477,000 paid in cash upon the acquisition and contractual adjustments to the purchase price of $626,000 paid in July 2024. The purchase price also includes the estimated fair value of earn out payments of approximately $24,200,000, which provide an incentive opportunity for the sellers of up to $106,250,000, based on Infocenter achieving certain EBITDA performance through April 2026. Infocenter is a pure-play ServiceNow Elite Partner dedicated to automating business processes on the Now Platform®. We believe this acquisition enhances our Solutions Integrator offering framework to drive better business outcomes for our clients by enabling them to scale their multicloud environments with modern infrastructure, applications, and unified data and AI platforms.

INSIGHT ENTERPRISES, INC.

The preliminary fair value of net assets acquired was approximately $97,362,000, including approximately $123,900,000 of identifiable intangible assets, consisting primarily of customer relationships that will be amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated economic life of ten years. As these intangible assets are not tax deductible, we recognized a related deferred tax liability of approximately $31,832,000. The preliminary purchase price was allocated using the information currently available. Further information obtained upon the finalization of the fair value assumptions for identifiable intangible assets acquired and various accrued expense balance assessments could lead to an adjustment of the purchase price allocation. Goodwill acquired approximated $191,838,000, which was recorded in our North America operating segment.

We consolidated the results of operations for Infocenter within our North America operating segment since its acquisition on May 1, 2024. Our historical results would not have been materially affected by the acquisition of Infocenter and, accordingly, we have not presented pro forma information as if the acquisition had been completed at the beginning of each period presented in our consolidated statement of operations.

We recognized net gains within selling and administrative expenses of $4,000,000 due to the net decrease in the estimated fair value of the earnout payments for both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024.

SADA

Effective December 1, 2023, we acquired 100 percent of the issued and outstanding shares of SADA Systems, LLC (successor to SADA Systems, Inc. via conversion) ("SADA") for a cash purchase price of $399,762,000, excluding cash and cash equivalents acquired of $24,701,000. SADA is a leading cloud consultancy and technical services provider and six-time Google Cloud Partner of the Year, including cloud licensing and professional services to small, mid-sized and corporate/enterprise commercial clients, state and federal governments and educational institutions across North America, Europe and Asia. Based in Los Angeles, California, SADA has three office locations in North America, India and Armenia with more than 800 teammates. We believe that this acquisition advances our strategy and further strengthens our unique position as a leading Solutions Integrator offering market-leading multicloud solutions at scale. We further believe SADA's partnership with Google Cloud will enhance our ability to serve clients who operate across multiple clouds and accelerate adoption of widely sought-after technologies like GenAI. SADA is being reported as a part of our North America operating segment.

The total purchase price of $426,050,000, which is net of cash and cash equivalents acquired of $24,701,000, is comprised of the initial purchase price of $423,290,000 paid in cash upon the SADA acquisition, contractual adjustments to the purchase price of $1,173,000 paid in March 2024 and a seller retention fund of $5,000,000 payable post-closing. The purchase price also includes the estimated fair value of earnout payments of approximately $21,288,000, which provides an incentive opportunity for the sellers of up to $390,000,000, based on the SADA business achieving EBITDA and revenue growth performance through 2026. A portion of the purchase price was used to settle SADA's stock-based compensation liabilities of $68,335,000 and pay SADA's transaction costs of approximately $16,852,000 at acquisition and after contractual adjustments in accordance with the purchase agreement.

The following table summarizes the preliminary purchase price and the estimated fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition (in thousands):

Total purchase price, net of cash and cash equivalents acquired	$	426,050
Fair value of net assets acquired:
Current assets	$	348,043
Identifiable intangible assets - see description below	158,100
Property and equipment	2,266
Other assets	244,342
Current liabilities	(332,010)
Long-term liabilities, including long-term accounts payable	(115,171)
Total fair value of net assets acquired		305,570
Excess purchase price over fair value of net assets acquired ("goodwill")	$	120,480

Under the acquisition method of accounting, the total purchase price as shown in the table above was allocated to the tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values. The excess of the purchase price over fair value of net assets acquired was recorded as goodwill. During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, a net adjustment of $3,458,000 was recorded to reduce goodwill, primarily due to certain measurement period adjustments to accounts receivable, contract assets, net, accounts payable and accrued expenses.

The estimated fair values of the majority of the current assets and liabilities are based upon their historical costs on the date of acquisition due to their short-term nature, with the exception of contract assets. The estimated fair value of the property and equipment are also based upon historical costs as they approximate fair value. The contract assets are an exception to the fair value model and are evaluated under relevant revenue recognition guidance including an allowance for credit losses using the current expected credit loss ("CECL") model.

The preliminary estimated fair value of net assets acquired was approximately $305,570,000, including $158,100,000 of identifiable intangible assets, consisting primarily of customer relationships of $124,700,000 and non-compete agreements of $26,200,000. The fair values were determined using the multiple-period excess earnings method and the lost income method, respectively.

The identifiable intangibles resulting from the acquisition are amortized using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Intangible Assets	Estimated Economic Life
Customer relationships	10 Years
Trade name	3 Years
Non-compete agreements	3-5 Years

Goodwill of $120,480,000, which was recorded in our North America operating segment, represents the excess of the purchase price over the estimated fair value assigned to tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed from SADA. The goodwill is not amortized and will be tested for impairment annually in the fourth quarter of our fiscal year. The addition of the SADA technical employees to our team and the opportunity to grow our business are the primary factors making up the goodwill recognized as part of the transaction.

INSIGHT ENTERPRISES, INC.

The intangible assets and goodwill are tax deductible as the transaction is a deemed asset acquisition for U.S. federal income tax purposes after the Seller Parties undertook an internal restructuring pursuant to Section 368(a)(1)(F).

The purchase price allocation is preliminary and was allocated using information currently available. Further information related to accounts receivable, contract assets, accounts payable, goodwill and various accrued expense balance assessments may lead to an adjustment of the purchase price allocation.

We have consolidated the results of operations for SADA since its acquisition on December 1, 2023. Our historical results would not have been materially affected by the acquisition of SADA and, accordingly, we have not presented pro forma information as if the acquisition had been completed at the beginning of each period presented in our consolidated statement of operations.

We recognized net gains within selling and administrative expenses of $20,684,000 due to the net decrease in the estimated fair value of the earnout payments for the nine months ended September 30, 2024.

Amdaris

Effective August 17, 2023, we acquired 100 percent of the issued and outstanding shares of Amdaris Group Limited ("Amdaris") for a cash purchase price, net of cash and cash equivalents acquired, of approximately $82,875,000, excluding the estimated fair value of an earnout, reported in other liabilities, with a range of payouts through 2026 of $0 to $54,391,000. We paid the earnout of $14,348,000 for Amdaris' 2023 performance in March 2024. Amdaris, an award-winning software development and digital services specialist, provides innovative software development, application support, managed services and consultancy services to the customers in the United Kingdom with service delivery centers located in several eastern European countries. Amdaris has been recognized as a Microsoft Gold Certified Partner. We believe this acquisition expands our global Modern Apps and Data & AI areas of solutions expertise as a leading solutions integrator and enhances our technological capabilities and scale to deliver an even broader range of customized services and solutions to clients in EMEA.

The fair value of net assets acquired was approximately $34,060,000, including $41,291,000 of identifiable intangible assets, consisting primarily of customer relationships that will be amortized using the straight line method over the estimated economic life of ten years. The purchase price was allocated using the information available. During the first quarter of 2024, we finalized the fair value assumptions for identifiable intangible assets with no changes being made to amounts previously recorded. Goodwill acquired approximated $71,698,000, which was recorded in our EMEA operating segment.

We consolidated the results of operations for Amdaris within our EMEA operating segment beginning on August 17, 2023, the effective date of the acquisition. Our historical results would not have been materially affected by the acquisition of Amdaris and, accordingly, we have not presented pro forma information as if the acquisition had been completed at the beginning of each period presented in our consolidated statement of operations.

We recognized net gains within selling and administrative expenses of $2,442,000 and $6,430,000 due to the net decrease in the estimated fair value of the earnout payments for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, respectively.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the related notes that appear elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. We refer to our customers as "clients," our suppliers as "partners" and our employees as "teammates."

Quarterly Overview

Today, every business is a technology business. We help our clients accelerate their digital journey to modernize their businesses and maximize the value of technology. We serve these clients in North America; Europe, the Middle East and Africa ("EMEA"); and Asia-Pacific ("APAC"). As a Fortune 500-ranked solutions integrator, we enable secure, end-to-end digital transformation and meet the needs of our clients through a comprehensive portfolio of solutions, far-reaching partnerships and 36 years of broad IT expertise. We amplify our solutions and services with global scale, local expertise and our e-commerce experience, enabling our clients to realize their digital ambitions in multiple ways. Our offerings in North America and certain countries in EMEA and APAC include hardware, software and services, including cloud solutions. Our offerings in the remainder of our EMEA and APAC segments consist largely of software and certain software-related services and cloud solutions.

On a consolidated basis, for the three months ended September 30, 2024:

- Net sales of $2.1 billion decreased 8% compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023. The decrease in net sales reflects decreases in hardware and software net sales, partially offset by an increase in services net sales. Excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates, net sales also decreased 8% compared to the third quarter of 2023.
- Gross profit of $432.1 million increased 6% compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023. Excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates, gross profit increased 5% compared to the third quarter of 2023.
- Compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023, gross margin expanded approximately 270 basis points to 20.7% of net sales in the three months ended September 30, 2024. This expansion primarily reflects an increase in higher margin services net sales compared to the same period in the prior year.
- Earnings from operations increased 1%, year over year, to $92.9 million in the third quarter of 2024 compared to $91.9 million in the third quarter of 2023. The increase was primarily due to an increase in gross profit in the current quarter, partially offset by an increase in selling and administrative expenses. Excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates, earnings from operations also increased 1% year over year.
- Net earnings and diluted earnings per share were $58.2 million and $1.52, respectively, for the third quarter of 2024. This compares to net earnings of $60.2 million and diluted earnings per share of $1.62 for the third quarter of 2023. Diluted earnings per share decreased 6% year to year, and excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates, also decreased 6% year to year.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

Throughout the "Quarterly Overview" and "Results of Operations" sections of this "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," we refer to changes in net sales, gross profit, selling and administrative expenses and earnings from operations on a consolidated basis and in North America, EMEA and APAC excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates, which are financial measures that are adjusted from our financial results prepared in accordance with the United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). We believe providing this information excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates provides valuable supplemental information to investors regarding our underlying business and results of operations, consistent with how we, including our management, evaluate our performance. In computing the changes in amounts and percentages, we compare the current period amount as translated into U.S. dollars under the applicable accounting standards to the prior period amount in local currency translated into U.S. dollars utilizing the weighted average translation rate for the current period. The performance measures excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates should not be considered a substitute for, or superior to, the measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Details about segment results of operations can be found in Note 9 to the Consolidated Financial Statements in Part I, Item 1 of this report.

Our discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations is intended to assist in the understanding of our consolidated financial statements, including the changes in certain key items in those consolidated financial statements from period to period and the primary factors that contributed to those changes, as well as how certain critical accounting estimates affect our consolidated financial statements.

Supply Chain Constraints, Demand and Inflation Update

Supply constraints that have had an industry-wide impact since the beginning of 2020 eased in the second half of 2023. We believe that any remaining supply constraints and extended lead times for certain infrastructure, including networking products, have now normalized back to near historic levels. Despite the easing supply constraints, we continue to see a general slowdown in our clients' decision making, which we believe will continue in the short term.

Inflation contributed to higher interest rates on all of our variable rate facilities. While these interest rates are expected to decrease, we anticipate higher than historical rates for the remainder of 2024. We are actively monitoring changes to the global macroeconomic environment, including those impacting our supply chain and interest rates, and assessing the potential impacts these challenges may have on our current results, financial condition and liquidity. We are also mindful of the potential impact these conditions could have on our clients, partners and prospects for the remainder of 2024 and beyond.

Critical Accounting Estimates

Our consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP. For a summary of significant accounting policies, see Note 1 to the Consolidated Financial Statements in Part II, Item 8 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023. The preparation of these consolidated financial statements requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, net sales and expenses. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results, however, may differ from estimates we have made. Members of our senior management have discussed the critical accounting estimates and related disclosures with the Audit Committee of our Board of Directors.

There have been no changes to the items disclosed as critical accounting estimates in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Part II, Item 7 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Results of Operations

The following table sets forth certain financial data as a percentage of net sales for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023:

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2024	2023	2024	2023
Net sales	100.0 %	100.0 %	100.0 %	100.0 %
Costs of goods sold	79.3	82.0	80.0	82.2
Gross profit	20.7	18.0	20.0	17.8
Selling and administrative expenses	15.9	13.7	14.9	13.5
Severance and restructuring expenses, net and acquisition and integration related expenses	0.4	0.2	0.2	0.2
Earnings from operations	4.4	4.1	4.9	4.1
Non-operating expense, net	0.8	0.6	0.7	0.4
Earnings before income taxes	3.6	3.5	4.2	3.7
Income tax expense	0.8	0.8	1.0	1.0
Net earnings	2.8 %	2.7 %	3.2 %	2.7 %

We generally experience some seasonal trends in our sales of IT hardware, software and services. Software and certain cloud net sales are typically seasonally higher in our second and fourth quarters. Business clients, particularly larger enterprise businesses in the United States, tend to spend more, particularly on product, in our fourth quarter. Sales to the federal government in the United States are often stronger in our third quarter, while sales in the state and local government and education markets are also often stronger in our second quarter. Sales to public sector clients in the United Kingdom are often stronger in our first quarter. These trends create overall variability in our consolidated results.

Our gross profit across the business and related to product versus services sales are, and will continue to be, impacted by partner incentives, which can and do change significantly in the amounts made available and in the related product or services sales being incentivized by the partner. Incentives from our largest partners are significant and changes in the amounts and incentive requirements, including those related to cloud transactions, which occur regularly, have and could continue to impact our results of operations to the extent we are unable to shift our focus and respond to them. For a discussion of risks associated with our reliance on partners, see "Risk Factors – Risks related to Our Business, Operations and Industry – We rely on our partners for product availability, competitive products to sell and marketing funds and purchasing incentives, which can change significantly in the amounts made available and the requirements year over year," in Part I, Item 1A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Net Sales. Net sales in North America decreased 8%, or $144.3 million, for the three months ended September 30, 2024 compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023, driven by decreases in hardware and software net sales, partially offset by an increase in services net sales. Hardware and software net sales decreased 13% and 5%, year to year, respectively. These decreases were partially offset by an increase in services net sales of 9%. The net changes for the three months ended September 30, 2024 were the result of the following:

- The decrease in hardware net sales was due to lower volume of sales primarily to large enterprise and corporate clients due to lower demand. This decline was driven by infrastructure and device sales.
- The decrease in software net sales was primarily due to changes in certain vendor relationships (shifting us from a principal to an agent role) as well as the continued migration of on-premise software to cloud solutions, in each case, reported net in services net sales.
- The increase in services net sales was primarily due to higher sales of cloud solution offerings including from SADA and an increase in Insight Delivered services from SADA and Infocenter, partially offset by declines in Insight Delivered services from our organic business. Our North America organic business excludes SADA, which we acquired on December 1, 2023 and excludes Infocenter, which we acquired on May 1, 2024.

Net sales in North America decreased 4%, or $238.2 million, for the nine months ended September 30, 2024, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023, driven by a decrease in hardware net sales. Hardware net sales decreased by 13%, year to year. This decrease was partially offset by software and services net sales increases of 11% and 9%, respectively, year over year. The net changes for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 were the result of the following:

- The decrease in hardware net sales was primarily due to lower volume of sales to large enterprise and corporate clients due to lower demand. This decline was driven by infrastructure sales.
- The increase in software net sales was primarily due to a significant multiyear transaction in the first quarter, partially offset by changes in certain vendor relationships (shifting from a principal to agent role) as well as the continued migration of on-premise software to cloud solutions, in each case, reported net in services net sales.
- The increase in services net sales was primarily due to higher sales of cloud solution offerings, including from SADA, and an increase in Insight Delivered services from SADA and Infocenter, partially offset by declines in Insight Delivered services from our organic business and in software maintenance.

North America's gross profit for the three months ended September 30, 2024 increased 4%, or $14.2 million, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023. As a percentage of net sales, gross margin expanded approximately 240 basis points to 20.3% for the third quarter of 2024. The year over year net expansion in gross margin was primarily attributable to the following:

- An increase in services margin of 203 basis points and an expansion in product margin of 31 basis points.
- The increase in services margin reflects an increase in fees for cloud solutions, including from SADA. There was also an increase in margin contribution from Insight Core services (consisting of Insight Delivered and managed services) from SADA and Infocenter, partially offset by a decline in margin contribution from organic Insight Core services and a decrease in software maintenance.
- The expansion in product margin reflects an increase in margin contribution from software and hardware net sales due to selling product at higher margins than in the prior year period.

North America's gross profit for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 increased 6%, or $59.9 million, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023. As a percentage of net sales, gross margin expanded approximately 190 basis points to 19.6% for the nine months ended September 30, 2024. - The increase in services margin primarily reflects an increase in fees for cloud solutions, including from SADA. The increase also reflects a net increase in margin contribution from Insight Core services from SADA and Infocenter, partially offset by a decline in margin contribution from organic Insight Core services.
- The net expansion in product margin reflects an increase in margin contribution from software due to selling software at higher margins, partially offset by a decrease in margin contribution from hardware.

EMEA's gross profit for the three months ended September 30, 2024 increased 11%, or $6.7 million, year over year (increasing 9% when excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates), compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023. As a percentage of net sales, gross margin expanded 440 basis points, year over year. The year over year net expansion in gross margin was attributable to the following:

- An increase in services margin of 278 basis points and an expansion in product margin of 160 basis points.
- The increase in services margin is primarily the result of increased fees for cloud solutions and increased margin contribution from Insight Core services, including from Amdaris.
- The expansion in product margin is primarily the result of sales of hardware at higher margins than in the same period in the prior year.

EMEA's gross profit for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 increased 14%, or $27.9 million, year over year (increasing 13% when excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates), compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023. - The increase in services margin is primarily the result of increased fees for cloud solutions and increased margin contribution from Insight Core services, including from Amdaris.
- The expansion in product margin is primarily the result of sales of hardware at higher margins than in the same period in the prior year.

APAC's gross profit for the three months ended September 30, 2024 increased 15%, or $2.3 million, year over year (increasing 13% when excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates), compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023. As a percentage of net sales, gross margin expanded approximately 10 basis points, year over year. The year over year net expansion in gross margin was primarily attributable to an expansion in product margin driven by sales of hardware at higher margins in connection with an infrastructure transaction in the current year period.

APAC's gross profit for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 increased 11%, or $5.2 million, year over year (increasing 12% when excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates), compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023. As a percentage of net sales, gross margin expanded approximately 190 basis points, year over year. The year over year net expansion in gross margin was primarily attributable to the following:

- An expansion in services margin of 166 basis points and an expansion in product margin of 27 basis points.
- The expansion in services margin was primarily driven by increased fees for cloud solutions and higher margin contribution from Insight Core services.
- The expansion in product margin was driven by higher volume of sales of software at higher margins than in the prior year period.

Operating Expenses.

Selling and Administrative Expenses. Selling and administrative expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2024 increased 7%, or $20.2 million, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023 (increasing 6% when excluding fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates). Selling and administrative expenses increased 5%, or $46.6 million (also increasing 5% when excluding fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates), for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

Selling and administrative expenses increased approximately 210 basis points as a percentage of net sales in the three months ended September 30, 2024 compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023. The overall net increase in selling and administrative expenses primarily reflects increases in personnel costs, including teammate benefits and in depreciation and amortization expenses of $12.0 million and $10.6 million, respectively, year over year. The increase in personnel costs reflects an increase in overall teammate headcount resulting from our acquisitions and the impact of merit increases. The increase in depreciation and amortization expenses primarily reflects higher amortization of intangible assets associated with the SADA, Infocenter and Amdaris acquisitions. These increases were partially offset by a net decrease in other expenses. The net decrease in other expenses primarily reflects net gains of $6.4 million recognized on the revaluation of the Amdaris and Infocenter acquisition earnout liabilities and the resulting decreases in the fair values of the potential earnout payments combined with costs associated with certain third-party data center outages of $8.0 million incurred in the three months ended September 30, 2023 with no comparable costs in the three months ended September 30, 2024. We also incurred transformation costs in the current and prior year periods of $5.1 million and $3.7 million, respectively, however, these costs are unique in nature and are not expected to recur in the longer term.

Selling and administrative expenses increased approximately 140 basis points as a percentage of net sales in the nine months ended September 30, 2024 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023. The overall net increase in selling and administrative expenses primarily reflects increases in personnel costs, including teammate benefits and depreciation and amortization expenses of $38.3 million and $28.2 million, respectively, year over year. The increase in personnel costs reflects an increase in overall teammate headcount from our acquisitions and the impact of merit increases. The increase in depreciation and amortization expenses reflects higher amortization of intangible assets associated with the SADA, Infocenter and Amdaris acquisitions. These increases were partially offset by a net decrease in other expenses. The net decrease in other expenses primarily reflects net gains of $30.6 million recognized on the revaluation of the SADA, Amdaris and Infocenter acquisition earnout liabilities and the resulting decreases in the fair values of the potential earnout payments, as well as recoveries associated with certain third-party data center outages of $3.4 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2024 compared to costs incurred of $8.0 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2023. We also incurred transformation costs in the current and prior year periods of $13.0 million and $14.0 million, respectively, however, these costs are unique in nature and are not expected to recur in the longer term.

Severance and Restructuring Expenses. During the three months ended September 30, 2024, we recorded severance and restructuring expenses, net of adjustments, of approximately $8.5 million. This includes approximately $4.3 million, net restructuring charges associated with costs to exit properties. Comparatively, during the three months ended September 30, 2023, we recorded severance and restructuring expenses of approximately $2.9 million. The severance charges in both periods primarily related to a realignment of certain roles and responsibilities and reductions in workforce.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we recorded severance and restructuring expenses, net of adjustments, of approximately $15.6 million. This includes approximately $4.3 million, net restructuring charges associated with costs to exit properties. Comparatively, during the nine months ended September 30, 2023, we recorded severance and restructuring expense, net of adjustments, of approximately $3.0 million, reflecting a net gain on sale of property due to restructuring of $6.8 million. The severance charges in both periods primarily related to a realignment of certain roles and responsibilities and reductions in workforce.

Acquisition and Integration Related Expenses. During the three months ended September 30, 2024, we recorded acquisition and integration related expenses of approximately $0.7 million. During the three months ended September 30, 2023, we recorded acquisition and integration related expenses of approximately $4.3 million. As the Company executes its acquisition strategy, we expect to incur additional acquisition and integration related expenses.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we recorded acquisition and integration related expenses of approximately $2.2 million. During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, we recorded acquisition and integration related expenses of approximately $4.4 million. The expenses in the current year period related primarily to the acquisitions of SADA in December 2023 and Infocenter in May 2024.

Earnings from Operations. Earnings from operations increased 1%, or $1.0 million, for the three months ended September 30, 2024 compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023. As a percentage of net sales, earnings from operations increased by approximately 10 basis points to 4.7%. The decrease in earnings from operations was primarily driven by the increase in selling and administrative expenses and severance and restructuring expenses, net, partially offset by an increase in gross profit and a decrease in acquisition and integration related expenses, when compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023.

North America's earnings from operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 increased 9%, or $22.0 million, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023. As a percentage of net sales, earnings from operations increased by approximately 60 basis points to 5.0%. EMEA's earnings from operations for the three months ended September 30, 2024 increased more than 100%, or $5.0 million (also increasing by more than 100% when excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates), compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023. EMEA's earnings from operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 increased 38%, or $10.6 million (increasing 35% when excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates), compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023. 9.1%. The increase in earnings from operations was primarily driven by an increase in gross profit, partially offset by an increase in selling and administrative expenses, when compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023.

APAC's earnings from operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 increased 23%, or $3.4 million (also increasing 23% when excluding the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates), compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023. As a percentage of net sales, earnings from operations increased by approximately 160 basis points to 10.2%. The increase in earnings from operations was primarily driven by an increase in gross profit, partially offset by an increase in selling and administrative expenses, when compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

Non-Operating Expense (Income).

Interest Expense, Net. Interest expense, net primarily relates to borrowings under our ABL facility, the 6.625% Senior Notes due 2032 (the "Senior Notes"), the Convertible Notes and imputed interest under our inventory financing facilities, partially offset by interest income generated from interest earned on cash and cash equivalent bank balances. Interest expense, net for the three months ended September 30, 2024 increased 38%, or $4.6 million, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2023. This was primarily due to the issuance of the Senior Notes in May 2024 partially offset by lower loan balances under our ABL facility, increased interest income and decreased imputed interest under our inventory financing facilities. Interest expense, net for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 increased 37%, or $11.6 million, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2023. The increase in the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was due to the issuance of the Senior Notes and higher loan balances under our ABL facility, partially offset by decreased imputed interest under our inventory financing facilities and higher interest income.

Imputed interest under our inventory financing facilities was $2.5 million and $7.3 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, compared to $3.2 million and $10.7 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023. The decrease in imputed interest under our inventory financing facilities was a result of lower average daily balances under the facilities during the period. For a description of our various financing facilities, see Note 5 to our Consolidated Financial Statements in Part I, Item 1 of this report.

Income Tax Expense. Our effective tax rate of 22.5% for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was lower than our effective tax rate of 24.7% for the three months ended September 30, 2023. The decrease in the effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was primarily due to tax benefits related to the revaluation of certain acquisition earnout liabilities and increased tax benefits for research and development activities recorded in the current year period.

Our effective tax rate of 24.2% for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was lower than our effective tax rate of 25.4% for the nine months ended September 30, 2023. The decrease in the effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was primarily due to tax benefits related to the revaluation of certain acquisition earnout liabilities and higher excess tax benefits on the settlement of employee share-based compensation in the current year period.

The Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development's (OECD) Pillar II Initiative introduced a 15% global minimum tax for certain multinational groups exceeding minimum annual global revenue thresholds. Several countries in which Insight operates have enacted legislation adopting the minimum tax effective January 1, 2024. The minimum tax did not have a material impact on our effective tax rate as of September 30, 2024, nor do we expect it to have a material impact on our 2024 annual effective tax rate. We will continue to monitor any future impact as additional countries enact legislation to adopt this tax.

Cash and Cash Flow

- Our primary uses of cash during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 were to fund the acquisition of Infocenter, repay debt, including principal upon conversion of a portion of the Convertible Notes, fund repurchases of our common stock and to pay earnouts and other acquisition related payments.
- Operating activities provided $417.7 million in cash during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, compared to cash provided by operating activities of $413.7 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.
- Capital expenditures were $32.4 million and $29.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.
- During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we paid approximately $265.0 million, to acquire Infocenter, net of cash and cash equivalents acquired of $5.1 million.
- During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we repurchased $200.0 million of our common stock compared to $217.1 million of repurchases during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.
- We issued $500.0 million in aggregate principal amount of Senior Notes, which we used to pay down a portion of our borrowings under our ABL facility.
- We had net repayments under our ABL facility during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 of $333.3 million, using proceeds from the Senior Notes, compared to net borrowings of $34.3 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.
- We had net borrowings under our inventory financing facilities of $3.1 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 compared to net repayments of $32.5 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

We anticipate that cash flows from operations, together with the funds available under our financing facilities, will be adequate to support our expected cash and working capital requirements for operations, as well as other strategic acquisitions, over the next 12 months and beyond. We expect existing cash and cash flows from operations to continue to be sufficient to fund our operating cash activities and cash commitments for investing and financing activities, such as capital expenditures, strategic acquisitions, repurchases of our common stock, principal payment on the Convertible Notes that mature in February 2025 and are freely convertible at the option of the Convertible Note holders, debt repayments and repayment of our inventory financing facilities for the next 12 months. We currently expect to fund known cash commitments beyond the next 12 months through operating cash activities and/or other available financing resources.

Net cash provided by operating activities

- Our cash conversion cycle is inverted, meaning on average we pay our partners on terms shorter than we receive payments from our clients. This means we generate more cash in our operations in periods of sequential decline in sales and particularly in hardware net sales.
- Cash flow provided by operating activities in the first nine months of 2024 was $417.7 million compared to cash provided by operating activities of $413.7 million in the first nine months of 2023.
- Cash flow provided by operating activities increased 1% during the first nine months of 2024 compared to the same period in 2023.

Our consolidated cash flow operating metrics were as follows:

	Three Months Ended September 30,
	2024	2023
Days sales outstanding in ending accounts receivable (“DSOs”) ^(a)	172	125
Days inventory outstanding (“DIOs”) ^(b)	8	9
Days purchases outstanding in ending accounts payable (“DPOs”) ^(c)	(162)	(99)
Cash conversion cycle (days) ^(d)	18	35

- (a) Calculated as the balance of current accounts receivable, net at the end of the quarter divided by daily net sales. Daily net sales is calculated as net sales for the quarter divided by 92 days.
- (b) Calculated as the balance of inventories at the end of the quarter divided by daily costs of goods sold. Daily costs of goods sold is calculated as costs of goods sold for the quarter divided by 92 days.
- (c) Calculated as the sum of the balances of accounts payable – trade and accounts payable – inventory financing facilities at the end of the quarter divided by daily costs of goods sold. Daily costs of goods sold is calculated as costs of goods sold for the quarter divided by 92 days.
- (d) Calculated as DSOs plus DIOs, less DPOs.
- Our cash conversion cycle was 18 days in the third quarter of 2024, down from 35 days in the third quarter of 2023.
 - The net changes were a result of a 63 day increase in DPOs and a 1 day decrease in DIOs, partially offset by a 47 day increase in DSOs.
 - The net decrease in our cash conversion cycle year over year was primarily the result of:
 - the impact to DPOs of the SADA acquisition, a significant agency transaction that based on its terms had not cleared by quarter end and changes in vendor mix;
 - the benefit to DIOs of the reduction in hardware sales and changes in our operating strategy; and
 - the impact to DSOs of the SADA acquisition combined with a significant agency transaction that based on its terms had not cleared by quarter end.
 - Our cash conversion cycle is impacted by netted costs that we apply to our services net sales to appropriately record net sales that we earn as an agent. These netted costs, while excluded from both net sales and cost of goods sold, are processed and applied to accounts receivable and accounts payable in each reporting period. As a result, our DSO and DPO calculated on the basis of unadjusted net sales and unadjusted cost of goods sold are inherently inflated. Netted costs were $2.4 billion and $1.7 billion in the third quarter of 2024 and 2023, respectively. Adjusting our cash conversion cycle calculation by adding netted costs to both daily net sales and daily cost of goods sold results in a decrease to our cash conversion cycle from 18 days to 17 days in the third quarter of 2024 and results in a decrease from 35 days down to 25 days in the third quarter of 2023, which we believe provides a more accurate reflection of our cash flow operating metrics.

INSIGHT ENTERPRISES, INC.

- We expect that cash flow from operations will be used, at least partially, to fund working capital as we typically pay our partners on average terms that are shorter than the average terms we grant to our clients to take advantage of supplier discounts.
- We intend to use cash generated in the remainder of 2024 in excess of working capital needs to pay down our ABL facility and inventory financing facilities and for strategic acquisitions.

Net cash used in investing activities

- We paid $265.0 million to acquire Infocenter on May 1, 2024, net of cash and cash equivalents acquired of $5.1 million. Additionally, we paid $5.2 million, net of cash and cash equivalents acquired, to acquire an entity in our EMEA segment, on July 1, 2024.
- We acquired Amdaris for approximately $82.9 million, net of cash and cash equivalents acquired and excluding earn outs and hold backs in the nine months ended September 30, 2023.
- We received proceeds from the sale of assets of $13.8 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2024.
- We received proceeds from the sale of assets, including our properties held for sale, of $15.5 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2023.
- Capital expenditures were $32.4 million and $29.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.
- We expect capital expenditures for the full year 2024 to be in a range of $35.0 to $40.0 million.

Net cash used in financing activities

- In May 2024, we issued $500.0 million in aggregate principal amount of Senior Notes, which we used to pay down a portion of our borrowings under our ABL facility.
- During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we had net repayments under our ABL facility of $333.3 million using proceeds from the Senior Notes.
- During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, we had net borrowings under our ABL facility that increased our outstanding long-term debt balance by $34.3 million.
- We had net borrowings under our inventory financing facilities of $3.1 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 compared to net repayments of $32.5 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.
- We repaid approximately $16.9 million principal upon conversion of a portion of the Convertible Notes in the nine months ended September 30, 2024, with no comparable activity in the prior year period.
- During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we made earnout and acquisition related payments of $18.3 million associated with our Amdaris and Hanu acquisitions.
- During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, we paid $10.7 million, the majority of the earnout associated with the Hanu acquisition.
- During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we repurchased $200.0 million of our common stock.

Financing Facilities

Our debt balance as of September 30, 2024 was $1,086.8 million. As of September 30, 2024, the current portion of our long-term debt primarily relates to the Convertible Notes.

- Our objective is to pay our debt balances down while retaining adequate cash balances to meet overall business objectives.
- The Convertible Notes are subject to certain events of default and certain acceleration clauses. As of September 30, 2024, no such events have occurred.
- The Senior Notes are subject to certain events of default and certain acceleration clauses. As of September 30, 2024, no such events have occurred.
- Our ABL facility contains various covenants customary for transactions of this type, including complying with a minimum receivable and inventory requirement and meeting monthly, quarterly and annual reporting requirements.
 - The credit agreement contains customary affirmative and negative covenants and events of default.
 - At September 30, 2024, we were in compliance with all such covenants.
 - While the ABL facility has a stated maximum amount, the actual availability under the ABL facility is limited by a minimum accounts receivable and inventory requirement. As of September 30, 2024, eligible accounts receivable and inventory were sufficient to permit access to the full $1.8 billion under the ABL facility of which $262.4 million was outstanding.

We also have agreements with financial intermediaries to facilitate the purchase of inventory from various suppliers under certain terms and conditions.

- These amounts are classified separately as accounts payable – inventory financing facilities in our consolidated balance sheets.
- Our inventory financing facilities have an aggregate availability for vendor purchases of $705.0 million, of which $235.2 million was outstanding at September 30, 2024.

Undistributed Foreign Earnings

Cash and cash equivalents held by foreign subsidiaries are generally subject to U.S. income taxation upon repatriation to the United States. As of September 30, 2024, we had approximately $272.1 million in cash and cash equivalents in certain of our foreign subsidiaries, primarily residing in Canada, the Netherlands and Australia. Certain of these cash balances will be remitted to the United States by paying down intercompany payables generated in the ordinary course of business or through actual dividend distributions.

The indemnifications are discussed in Note 8 to the Consolidated Financial Statements in Part I, Item 1 of this report and such discussion is incorporated by reference herein. We believe that none of our off-balance sheet arrangements have, or are reasonably likely to have, a material current or future effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements.
