Outcome:
The ICANN organization (org) will share this summary report and the submissions with the Registries Stakeholder Group (RySG) for its consideration. The RySG will then prepare a final version of its amended charter for approval by its members and submit it to the ICANN Board.

Section 1: What We Received Input On

The RySG of the Generic Names Supporting Organization recently amended its charter and notified the ICANN org of its request for approval by the ICANN Board. This Public Comment proceeding sought input on proposed amendments of the RySG charter to inform ICANN Board consideration.

Section 2: Submissions

Individuals:

Name	Affiliation (if provided)	Initials
Faheem Soomro		FS

Section 3: Summary of Submissions

There was one submission received and it was in favor of the RySG's charter amendments and noted that the RySG's "commitment to continuous improvement strengthens the ICANN multistakeholder model."

Section 4: Analysis of Submissions

The comment received was overwhelmingly supportive of the RySG's charter amendment effort.

Faheem Soomro made a concerted effort to point out that the RySG's "well-defined structure, inclusive membership categories, and adherence to principles of openness, accountability, transparency, inclusiveness, and representativeness" is a credit to the drafting team of the RySG with their amended charter.

Section 5: Next Steps

The ICANN org will share this summary report and the submissions with the RySG for its consideration. The RySG will then prepare a final version of its amended charter for approval by its members and submit it to the ICANN Board.
